PREFACE.

THE YEAR BOOK for 1917 contains the names of 356 Ministers and 11 Lay Workers in Great Britain and Ireland, and 15 Ministers in the British Dominions across the seas. The alterations, additions, and omissions in the list of Ministers have been made on the recommendation of a small committee representing the Association, the Conference, and the Ministerial Fellowship. Eight Ministers have died; seven others, for various reasons, have been omitted.

The names of the following Ministers appear in the Year Book for the first time :—Kenneth Dunbar (educated, 1913-16, at M.C.O.), James Herbert Ewbank (educated, 1910-16, at H.M.C.), Harry Charles Horsley (educated, 1913-16, at M.C.O.), Albert Whitford (educated, 1913-16, at H.M.C.).

Frank A. Bullock, Helen Louise Phillips, having completed a period of probationary service as Lay Workers, are now regarded as belonging to the regular ministry. In transferring the name of a Lay Worker to the list of Ministers, the period of service as a Lay Worker is indicated.

The name of Charles F. Potter, removed to the United States, formerly in the Colonial list, has been omitted; the names of William Irvine, of Calgary, and Walter G. Letham, of Victoria, B.C., have been inserted.

The names of the following Lay Workers appear in that list for the first time :—C. E. Mercer (Kendal), William Stephenson (Sunderland), Harry Taylor (Burnley), Hubert G. Woodford (Trowbridge).

Of the Ministers, 117 were educated at Manchester College: this number includes 14 students from the Unitarian Home Missionary College, and 6 from the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen; 111 Ministers were educated at the Unitarian Home Missionary College, Manchester, and 25 at the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen; 52 Ministers were educated at 'orthodox' theological Colleges; 3 were educated at Unitarian Colleges in America; 13 Ministers have had a University or College education without special theological training; 55 have had no College training.

256 Ministers and 11 Lay Workers are in charge of Congregations; 10 are employed as tutors in our colleges, secretaries of associations, editors of papers, and district ministers; 6 are engaged in work not connected with the denomination; 10 Ministers are apparently open to accept ministerial appointments ; 74 Ministers have retired from active work.

The list of Congregations contains 370 places of worship ; 289 in England ; 38 in Ireland ; 35 in Wales ; 8 in Scotland. Services at Westcliff-on-Sea and Wimbledon have been discontinued for the present.

In December, 1916, the following pulpits were vacant, or about to become vacant :—England—Accrington, Altrincham, Birmingham (Small Heath), Blackpool (Dickson Road), Brighton, Chatham, Colne, Liverpool (Ullet Road and Toxteth Park), London (Brixton, Lewisham), Manchester (Longsight and Moss Side), Marple, Mottram, Newbury, Nottingham (Christ Church), Yarmouth. Ireland—Belfast (York Street). Wales—Merthyr Tydfil. Upwards of 60 congregations rely upon lay preachers.

The Essex Hall Hymnal is used by 188 congregations ; ‘ Hymns of Praise and Prayer ’ by 22 ; ‘ Hymns for the Christian Church and Home ’ by 6. In Ireland 14 congregations use ‘ Hymns for Christian Worship ’ ; in Wales 21 use ‘ Pearls of Praise.’ The Berwick Hymnal is used by 14 congregations, the New Hymnal (Novello) by 71 ; upwards of 30 congregations use selections more or less peculiar to themselves. Liturgies are used by 108 congregations.

Every care is taken to bring the information up to date—not always an easy task, as several ministers and secretaries do not return the Forms. Owing to the War, there is more uncertainty than usual in respect to the names and addresses of several of the secretaries of congregations. To the large number of faithful and punctual correspondents, the Editor is most grateful : without their assistance the Year Book could not be prepared.

MINISTERS

[Revised and approved 8 November, 1916]

The list contains the name and address, college, university degree, date of entering ministry, and congregations served by the following :—

(1) Ministers in charge of Unitarian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing Congregations in Great Britain and Ireland.

(2) Ministers, formerly settled with Congregations, now engaged as professors, tutors, missionaries, secretaries, etc.

(3) Ministers in charge of Unitarian Congregations in Australia, New Zealand, Canada, and South Africa.

(4) Ministers who have resigned their pastorates, or who have retired from active duty, but who have not withdrawn from the ministry. These names are printed in italic.

ADMISSION OF NAMES

(1) The name of any Minister regularly appointed by a Congregation or a Missionary Society to conduct religious services, and to take charge of the work of the Church or Society, is inserted in the list.

(2) He is described as a 'Minister,' if he (a) holds the certificate of having completed the theological curriculum at Manchester College, Oxford, the Unitarian Home Missionary College, Manchester, the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen, or at Harvard or Meadville, U.S.A. ; or (b) has previously been in the ministry of another denomination, or educated for the ministry in another denomination, at home or abroad, and has (if required) satisfied an Advisory Committee respecting his character and general fitness ; or (c) having been a Lay Worker is certificated as a Minister.

Note.—Managers of Benevolent, Fellowship, Pension, Sustentation, and other Funds are under no obligation to admit anyone to benefits simply because his name appears in the Year Book.

OMISSION OF NAMES

(1) On resigning his charge, any minister may withdraw his name from the list.

(2) On his becoming minister in another denomination, the name is omitted, unless a personal request is made for its retention.

(3) The names of ministers who have ceased to reside in the United Kingdom are omitted, but may on their personal application be included.

(4) The names are omitted of those who have withdrawn from the ministry to engage in secular pursuits, or who for five years have had no active connexion with our churches or work. This does not apply to those who are temporarily out of service, or who have retired by reason of age or infirmity.

(5) The names of persons are omitted whose character and conduct have, in the opinion of an Advisory Committee or a District Society, unfitted them for continuing to hold the office of a minister.

CONGREGATIONS

The list contains the location, the date of foundation, the hours of service, the hymn book in use, the name and address of the Secretary, the name of the Minister, Missionary, or Lay Worker of:—

(a) All duly organized Unitarian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing Congregations in Great Britain and Ireland.

(b) Pioneer movements holding regular meetings for worship.

(c) Places of worship closed at present, but not finally given up.

The date following the name and address of the congregation indicates the year in which it was founded, which is not necessarily the date of the existing building; when two or more dates are given, the last refers to the erection of the present building.

Under each Congregation the names of the present and the more recent Ministers are given. Those printed in italic are deceased.

Important to Congregations

As much injury has been done both to congregations and to the ministry by the appointment of unsuitable persons, congregations are advised to take no steps in respect to the selection or appointment of any Minister whose name does not appear in the Year Book.

ABBREVIATIONS

Colleges : M.N.C.=Manchester New College (altered in 1893 to Manchester College, M.C.O.), Oxford; H.M.C.=Unitarian Home Missionary College (altered in 1889 from Board), Manchester; Car.=Presbyterian College, Carmarthen.

Sunday Schools : The small s after the hours of service indicates that there is a Sunday School.

Hymn Books : E.H.—Essex Hall Hymnal; E.R.—Essex Hall Hymnal Revised; M.—Hymns for the Christian Church and Home; N.M.—Hymns of Praise and Prayer; C.W.—Hymns for Christian Worship (Ireland); P.M.—Perlau Moliant, Pearls of Praise (Wales); B.—Berwick Hymnal (A. W. Oxford); N.—New Hymnal (Novello); P.—Book used by a few Congregations.

Liturgies : 'L,' after Hymn Book, signifies that a Liturgy is used at one or both services. Those chiefly in use are Ten Services of Public Prayer, Common Prayer for Christian Worship, and Seven Services for Public Worship. Several congregations have Liturgies which have been compiled for their own special use.

PIONEER PREACHERS

HOSTEL: Unity House, 23 Highbury Place, London, N.

IN RESIDENCE, 1917

JOHN BEGG F. G. FINCHAM J. P. ROSLING J. HARRY SMITH

THE PIONEER PREACHERS' movement owes its inception to the Rev. R. J. Campbell, M.A., and was an outcome of the New Theology propaganda. When Mr. Campbell retired from the Presidency of the Liberal Christian League the movement was transferred to a new committee acting under the auspices of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association. The Pioneer Preachers are responsible for the missionary work and oversight of several churches in London and elsewhere. In May, 1914, a new Hostel was opened at 23 Highbury Place, London. The premises, including freehold site, alterations, and equipment, cost £1,400. Messrs. F. Cottier, S. Mossop, C. A. Piper, and J. Pipkin, former residents, are now studying at the Unitarian Home Missionary College, Manchester, and Mr. P. Chalk at Manchester College, Oxford, in preparation for the regular ministry. Secretary and Superintendent, Rev. T. P. Spedding, Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

The British and Foreign Unitarian Association was constituted in 1825. It arose out of the union of three Societies supported by Unitarians in all parts of the country :—(1) The Unitarian Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge and the Practice of Virtue, by the Distribution of Books, founded in 1791 ; (2) The Unitarian Fund, established in 1806, which may be regarded as the most important ; and (3) The Association for Protecting the Civil Rights of Unitarians, formed in 1819.

The Association is a national and international missionary organization. Its operations cover all parts of the British Isles, and extend to the Colonies, India, Africa, and several European countries.

The Association assists in establishing and maintaining churches, especially in the early and difficult stages of their growth. It supports ministers, lecturers, and missionary preachers. It holds conferences and meetings in London and in different parts of the country.

The Association is the publication agency of the denomination. Books and pamphlets are issued dealing with the broader aspects of liberal religious thought and life, in addition to direct expositions of Unitarian Christianity. Publications intended for a wider public are issued under the name of 'The Lindsey Press' ; those of a denominational type with the imprint of the Association. Books are frequently presented to public libraries, ministers, and lay preachers. Thousands of Unitarian tracts are distributed, in response to applications from congregations, postal missions, and inquirers in all parts of the world.

The Association is supported by the subscriptions of individuals, collections from congregations, sales of publications, and income from investments. The serviceableness of the Association and the range of its operations are dependent upon the generosity of congregations and of individual Unitarians.

The Association was Incorporated, 28 July, 1915 ; and may now be appointed a Trustee of Chapels, Endowments, and other Funds.

Officers.—President : Rev. Dr. J. E. Carpenter, M.A. ; Treasurer : Mr. Howard Chatfield Clarke ; Chairman of Committee : Mr. R. M. Montgomery, K.C. ; Solicitor : Mr. Howard Young, LL.B. ; Missionary Agent : Rev. T. P. Spedding ; Secretary : Rev. W. Copeland Bowie.

Book Room and Office.—Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London. The Book Room is open Monday to Friday 9 to 6 ; Saturday 9 to 1.

Meetings : 1917.—The Committee of the Association will meet at 3 p.m. on Wednesdays :—10 Jan., 14 Feb., 14 March, 11 April, 9 May, 13 June, 11 July, 10 October, 14 November, 12 December. The Finance, Mission, Publications, Scottish, and other SUBCOMMITTEES meet the week before the Executive Committee, and communications respecting Grants and other important business should reach the Secretary at Essex Hall at least ten days before these dates.

The Council of the Association will meet Tuesday, 27 March, and Tuesday, 23 October. The Provincial Meetings in November.

Association Sunday will be 18 November, when Collections on behalf of the Funds of the Association will be taken in our Churches.

The Anniversary Meetings will be held in London during Whit-week : Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, 29, 30, 31 May.

MINISTERS' STIPEND AUGMENTATION FUNDS ENGLAND

Ministers' Stipend Augmentation Fund (1856).—Object: The encouragement of ministers of congregations in England assembling for the public worship of God, the members or ministers of which shall not be required to subscribe or assent to any articles of religious belief, or submit to any test of religious doctrine. The Fund is upwards of £50,000; annual subscriptions £150. Treasurer, Richard D. Holt, M.P., India Buildings, Liverpool. Applications for grants should be made in the month of April to the Secretary, B. P. Burroughs, 15 Sweeting Street, Liverpool.

Sustentation Fund for the Augmentation of Ministers' Stipends (1883).—Object: To aid in the maintenance of faithful and efficient ministers of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing or Kindred Congregations as regularly assemble for the public worship of God. In 1912 it was resolved to raise an additional Fund of £50,000 with the view of securing subject to certain conditions a minimum stipend to all accredited ministers of such congregations as aforesaid in England and Wales. Board of twenty-seven Managers, of whom twelve are elected by the contributors, six by the Board, six by the National Conference, and three by the British and Foreign Unitarian Association. Managers are elected for three years and are then eligible for re-election. The Board meets in June to consider applications for grants. Forms of application should be obtained from the Secretary during the month of March. The Fund (1915) consists of investments amounting to about £78,000 and annual subscriptions amounting to about £500. Treasurer, Ronald P. Jones, 7 Stone Buildings, Lincoln's Inn, London, W.C.; Secretary, Harold F. Pearson; Acting Secretary, Rev. W. H. Drummond, 23 Cannon Place, Hampstead, London, N.W.

IRELAND

Irish Sustentation Fund (1914).—A sum of £10,000 was raised by subscription and capitalized under the charge of lay trustees appointed by the General Synod of the Non-Subscribing Church of Ireland. The interest on such capital, together with congregational contributions at the fixed rate of five per cent per annum on the minister's stipend from all sources, exclusive of manse, is applied in augmenting the stipends of ministers. Secretary, H. Thomas, Strathfoyle, Hawthornden Road, Knock, Belfast.

Sustentation Fund (1871).—This Fund, which is connected with the ten congregations of the Remonstrant Synod of Ulster, supplies the place of the 'Regium Donum,' which granted annually £69 4s. 8d. to each minister. The Fund amounts to about £12,600, income £610 per annum. The proceeds are distributed amongst the ministers of the congregations which from 1872 have contributed a minimum of 4s. per stipend payer per annum to the Fund. Each minister receives at present £65 a year, if not still enjoying 'Regium Donum' or its equivalent. Treasurer, William McRobert, Ulster Bank, Belfast; Secretary, Rev. J. A. Kelly, The Glebe, Dunmurry, Co. Antrim.

Dublin Fund (1751).—This Fund, capital £600, is for the relief of ministers and their widows, and is administered in connexion with the Presbytery of Antrim. Treasurer, Rev. James Kennedy, Larne.

Dunbar Fund (1871).—This Fund consists of a sum of £2,000, conveyed by the late Miss Jane Dunbar, of Huntly, Banbridge, the interest on which to be applied for the benefit of not more than eight and not less than four struggling, necessitous, and deserving congregations in connexion with the Remonstrant Synod of Ulster. The Trustees of the First Presbyterian Congregation, Banbridge, administer the Fund. Treasurer, W. Lindsay, Ballydown, Banbridge.

SCOTLAND

McQuaker Fund (1889).—Bequest of nearly £30,000, by William McQuaker, of Glasgow, to the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, the interest to be applied in maintaining and diffusing the principles of Unitarian Christianity in Scotland by supplementing the salaries of ministers of non-self-supporting congregations who can show such an amount of congregational income as shall attest to the satisfaction of the Committee a living interest in the work; by contributing to the support of missionary preachers; by the distribution of tracts, controversial and practical, in a cheap and popular form; and by such other means as may seem advisable to the Committee of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association. Secretary, Rev. W. Copeland Bowie, Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C.

MINISTERS SOCIETIES AND MEETINGS

Ministers' Pension and Insurance Fund (1902).—To assist Ministers to make provision for their old age and for their families after their death. 'Minister' does not include Lay Preacher or Lay Worker. The Fund is administered by a Board of twelve Managers, four of whom are Ministers. The income of the Fund, in the first instance, is employed in assisting Ministers to pay the premiums on benefit policies effected by them with the Equitable Life Assurance Society. After the Managers have made provision for paying their proportion of such premiums, they may employ the balance, if any, of the income for that year in assisting any Minister, not insured as above, and still in active service, to make provision for his old age, and for his family after his death, in such manner as they may think best. New tables of insurance (10 in number) were adopted in December, 1915. The Philip Holt Fund, administered by the Board, is to be applied at the discretion of the Managers, as an addition to its capital, or in aid of Ministers in active service, or both. It now gives assistance in suitable cases towards insurance for Children's Education and in special cases. The number of beneficiary members on the books is now 132, of whom eleven are in receipt of pensions in the ordinary course, six are insurances assisted under special circumstances, and two are aged ministers to whom grants are made by way of annuity. The representatives of eight deceased beneficiary members have received £2,144 by way of insurance. Treasurer, H. Chatfield Clarke, 102 Bishopsgate, London, E.C.; Secretary, Rev. C. J. Street, 74 High Lane, Ecclesall, Sheffield.

Ministers Benevolent Society (1852).—Objects: Affording relief to such Unitarian Christian Ministers in Great Britain as from age or infirmity may be prevented from discharging the public duties of their office, and for the aid of the widows and families of any such ministers as may be left without adequate means of support. Capital, £74,853. Secretary, E. E. Townley, 65 Temple Row, Birmingham.

Ministerial Fellowship (1899).—Objects: To assist in the support of Members who are temporarily without ministerial charge; and to afford counsel and brotherly aid to Members. The Fellowship is represented on the Ministerial Settlements Board, the Committee on the Supply of Ministers, and the Joint-Committee for the Revision of the List of Ministers in the Year Book. Number of Members on the roll, 235. Secretary, Rev. C. J. Street, 74 High Lane, Ecclesall, Sheffield.

Missionary Conference (1860).—An Association for the promotion and encouragement of missionary labours for the spread of Liberal Christianity. Annual meeting in July on the Thursday following the U.H.M.C. Examinations. Secretary, Rev. W. T. Bushrod, The Manse, Park Street, Chorley.

Bolton District Ministers Meeting (1873).—Meetings are held monthly for discussion and social intercourse. Secretary (vacant).

Cardiganshire Unitarian Ministers Union (1886).—For mutual help and co-operation in promoting the interests of Unitarianism in Cardiganshire. Secretary, Rev. L. Williams, Allt-y-placa, Llanybyther.

Devon Ministers Conference (1892).—Meetings are held under the auspices of the Western Union. Secretary, Rev. F. Allen, 7 Linden Terrace, Newton Abbot.

East Lancashire Ministers Fraternal (1914).—Meetings are held monthly for discussion and social intercourse. Secretary, Rev. W. McMullan, Rawtenstall.

Exeter Assembly (1655; suspended 1660-1691).—The Assembly has borne the alternative titles of 'United Brethren of Devon and Cornwall' and 'West of England Presbyterian Divines.' Meets annually in June at Exeter. Scribe, Rev. W. H. Burgess, Plymouth.

Liverpool District Ministers Meeting (1885).—Meetings are held monthly for discussion and social intercourse. Secretary, Rev. W. Short, 20 St. Albans Road, Bootle, Liverpool.

London Unitarian Ministers Meeting (1893).—Meetings held for open council upon matters relating to the work of the ministry and for the discussion of papers. Secretary, Rev. F. Summers, 4 Durley Road, Stamford Hill, London, N.

London and Westminster.—The Body of English Presbyterian Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster can trace its history back to 1601. Its present function is to present Addresses to the Sovereign on certain National occasions. Secretary, Rev. F. K. Freeston, Headland Cottage, Limpsfield, Surrey.

North Midland Ministers Association.—Conferences and meetings of ministers. Secretary, Rev. A. L. Smith, New Road, Belper.

Protestant Dissenting Ministers of Warwickshire and Neighbouring Counties Monthly Meeting (1782).—Dudley and Oldbury Double Lectures (1723-1866) incorporated with the Meeting. Religious services, conferences, public meetings. Secretary, Rev. I. Wrigley, Lye, Stourbridge.

Rochdale and District Fellowship of Unitarian Churches.—This body is a Federation of the Rochdale, Todmorden, Oldham, Middleton, and Heywood congregations for social intercourse and missionary enterprise. Secretary, F. Fitton, 67 Haslam Street, Rochdale.

Wessex Ministers Meeting (1897).—Meetings of ministers in Hants., the Isle of Wight, and Dorset. Convener, Rev. H. S. Solly, Southcote, Alexandra Road, Parkstone, Dorset.

Western Union Ministers Meeting (Northern District) (1908).—Meetings are held under the auspices of the Western Union. Secretary, Rev. C. E. Pike, 13 Taunton Road, Bridgwater.

Yorkshire Ministers Union (1906).—Quarterly meetings are held, at which papers are read and discussed. Secretary, Rev. J. M. Bass, Seedfield, Alverthorpe, Wakefield.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

'The National Conference of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing or Kindred Congregations' had its origin in the example set by the Unitarians of the United States of America, who had organized a 'National Conference of Unitarian and other Christian Churches' in 1865. At a Council Meeting of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, held 19 January, 1881, it was resolved:—'That the Executive Committee be requested to consider the possibility and desirableness of holding a Unitarian Conference in England, and to ascertain the feeling of the larger Congregations, and report to the next meeting of the Council.' On 24 June, 1881, a Committee was formed to make arrangements for a meeting of ministers and laymen in some central district for Religious Fellowship and Conference. Beginning with Liverpool, twelve triennial meetings have been held, 1882-1915.

Triennial Meetings.—(1) Liverpool, 1882; (2) Birmingham, 1885; (3) Leeds, 1888; (4) London, 1891; (5) Manchester, 1894; (6) Sheffield, 1897; (7) Leicester, 1900; (8) Liverpool, 1903; (9) Oxford, 1906; (10) Bolton, 1909; (11) Birmingham, 1912; (12) London, 1915.

Officers.—President, Rev. Charles Hargrove, M.A., D.Litt.; Treasurer, F. W. Monks, Esq., J.P., Stonecroft, Appleton, Warrington; Secretary, Rev. James Harwood, B.A., 60 Howitt Road, Hampstead, London.

Advisory Committees.—(1) Lancashire and Cheshire (Sec., Rev. H. E. Dowson, B.A.); (2) London, the Midlands, and the Southern and Eastern Counties (Sec., Rev. Joseph Wood); (3) North Midlands, Yorkshire, Northumberland and Durham (Sec., Rev. W. R. Shanks); (4) Western Union (Sec., Rev. Rudolf Davis, B.A.); (5) South Wales (Sec., Rev. W. J. Phillips). The Advisory Committees give advice to Congregations or District Associations as to the antecedents, fitness, and qualifications of those whom they think of inviting as Ministers.

Ministerial Settlements Board.—When requested by Congregations, the Board undertakes to recommend for vacant Pulpits Ministers whom it considers the most suitable. Secretary, Rev. James Harwood.

Reading Scheme for Lay Workers.—A course of Reading extending over three years, has been prepared by a Committee of the National Conference, more especially for Lay Workers on probation who desire eventually to be admitted into the regular ministry. It embraces the study of the Old and New Testaments, Church History, the Philosophy of Religion, and Ministerial and Sunday School Work. A copy of the revised prospectus will be supplied on application to Rev. J. Harwood.

INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS

'The International Council of Unitarian and other Liberal Religious Thinkers and Workers' was organized at Boston, U.S.A., 25 May, 1900. In 1910 its title was changed to 'The International Congress of Free Christians and other Religious Liberals' (in French, 'Congrès International des Chrétiens libéraux et d'autres libre-croyants,' and in German, 'Welt-Kongress für freies Christentum und religiösen Fortschritt'). The purpose of the Congress is 'to open communication with those in all lands who are striving to unite pure religion and perfect liberty, and to increase fellowship and co-operation among them.' It seeks to bring into closer union for exchange of ideas, mutual service, and the promotion of their common aims the historic liberal churches, the liberal elements in all churches, scattered liberal congregations, and isolated workers for religious freedom and progress in many lands.

Meetings of the International Congress were held in London (1901), Amsterdam (1903), Geneva (1905), Boston, U.S.A. (1907), Berlin (1910), and Paris (1913). It was intended to hold meetings of the International Congress in London in 1916, but the great War made this impossible. Secretary, Rev. C. W. Wendte, D.D., 165 Hunnewell Avenue, Newton, Mass., U.S.A.

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

The American Unitarian Association was organized 25 May, 1825. Its object is 'to diffuse the knowledge and promote the interests of pure Christianity.' Offices and Book Rooms, 25 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. President, Rev. Samuel A. Eliot, D.D.; Secretary, Rev. Louis C. Cornish; Treasurer, Henry M. Williams. There are also Unitarian Book Rooms at Chicago, 105 South Dearborn Street; New York, 104 East 20th Street; San Francisco, 376 Sutter Street. The General Conference of Unitarian and other Christian Churches held its first meeting in 1865. It is simply a 'Conference.' It 'adopts the existing organizations of the Unitarian body as the instruments of its activity, and confines itself to recommending to them such undertakings and methods as it judges to be in the heart of its constituency.' The Unitarian Association is 'the executive arm of the Unitarian body, and the working missionary organization of the Unitarian churches in America.'

Canadian Unitarian Association (1913).—President, J. S. N. Dougall, Montreal; Chairman of Executive, W. P. Hinton, Winnipeg; Treasurer, E. J. Ransom, Winnipeg; Secretary, Rev. Horace Westwood, D.D., Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.

LIBERAL RELIGIOUS MOVEMENTS ABROAD

Outside the United States of America, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, and Hungary, Liberal religious movements seldom employ the Unitarian name; but in different parts of the world there are several congregations and many individuals in substantial agreement with Unitarians. The information given in the issue for 1915 respecting Liberal religion in Foreign Countries required careful revision; but the prevalence of the War makes revision practically impossible. It was, therefore, deemed best for the present to omit the pages altogether from the Year Book.

EDUCATION OF MINISTERS

MANCHESTER COLLEGE, OXFORD.—Founded at Manchester, 22 February, 1786 (though clearly tracing its ancestry to the earliest Nonconformist Academy, opened by Richard Frankland, one of the ejected clergy, in the year 1670); removed to York in 1803; restored to Manchester in 1840; transferred to London in 1853; removed to Oxford in 1889; New Buildings, Mansfield Road, Oxford, opened October, 1893.

College Studies.—The Curriculum of the College is designed both for Students for the Ministry of Religion and for others who wish to obtain a special knowledge of theological and philosophical subjects. The full course, provided for 'Regular Students,' extends over three years; but Students desiring to avail themselves of only a portion of it may, at the discretion of the Committee, be admitted for shorter periods, under the name of 'Special Students.'

Teaching Staff.—Principal and Professor of Philosophy—Rev. L. P. JACKS, M.A., LL.D., D.Litt.; Rev. HENRY GOW, B.A.—New Testament and Early Christian History; The Work of the Ministry; Rev. D. C. SIMPSON, M.A.—Old Testament and Hebrew.

Rev. JAMES DRUMMOND, M.A., LL.D., D.Litt.—Emeritus Professor of Divinity; Rev. CHARLES BARNES UPTON, B.A., B.Sc.—Emeritus Professor of Philosophy.

UNITARIAN HOME MISSIONARY COLLEGE.—Established under the title of the Unitarian Home Missionary Board in 1854; altered in 1889 to Unitarian Home Missionary College. The College adheres to the principle of freely imparting theological knowledge, without insisting on the adoption of particular theological doctrines. In the year 1904 the College celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its foundation, and in commemoration of this event a Memorial Fund of £20,000 was raised to provide Collegiate and Residential buildings at Summerville, Victoria Park, Manchester. A residence for the Warden and twelve students has been provided. The building was opened 4 October, 1905.

Collegiate Course.—The Collegiate Course covers five years: an Arts Curriculum of two years, and a Theological Curriculum of three years. A shorter course may be taken in exceptional cases.

Admission of Students.—Students may be admitted to the Collegiate Course after having attained the age of eighteen years; and to the Theological Curriculum (a) After having completed the Arts Curriculum; or, (b) After having obtained a degree; or, (c) After having attained the age of 25 years, and shown special aptitude for the work of the ministry.

Scholarships.—The Tate Scholarship is of the annual value of £70 and may be held for one, two, or three years. The Gaskell Scholarship is of the annual value of £70. The tenure of the Scholarship is for one year. The Durning-Smith Scholarship is of the annual value of £90. Its purpose is to enable promising students to take a degree at the Victoria University, and it is tenable for one year. The Sharpe Hungarian Scholarship for Hungarian Students was founded in 1911 by the late Miss Emily Sharpe.

The Trustees consider applications from pupil teachers who, having duly served their apprenticeship, propose to enter a Training College. Secretary and Treasurer, Charles Fenton, I.S.O., 10 Vineyard Hill, Wimbledon.

Workers Aid Society (1891).—Object: To aid the workers at the Invalid Children's Convalescent Hospital Home, Winifred House, and the various Missions in poor districts, by supplying them with clothing. Secretary, Miss M. Barmby, Mount Pleasant, Sidmouth.

LEGAL INFORMATION

Births, Registration.—Parents are required to register the birth of their children at the Registrar's office for the district in which they reside, within six weeks. Penalty of 40s. for default. There is no charge for such registration.

Deaths, Registration.—Deaths must be registered within five days. The nearest relative present at the death or during the last illness is the responsible person, or should there be no relative present, then the occupier of the house, or the person who causes the body to be buried. Penalty for default, 40s. The doctor's certificate must be produced to the Registrar at the time of registration; and the Registrar's certificate to the officiating minister at the interment.

Registration of Chapels.—All places of worship should be registered. Registration is effected by giving a certificate in writing that the Chapel is used for worship to the Superintendent-Registrar of the District on a form which he will supply on application. The fee on registration is 2s. 6d., and a certified copy of the Registrar-General's certificate of the registration can be obtained for a further payment of 2s. 6d. Registered places of worship are exempt from the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Acts. When a place of worship is rebuilt, either on the same or another site, the old certificate of registration must be cancelled and the place re-registered.

Registration for Marriages.—A place of worship must, before marriages can legally be celebrated therein, in addition to being registered as above mentioned, be separately registered for the performance of marriages. Before registering a place for marriages, the Superintendent-Registrar of the District must be satisfied by certificate that the building has been used for worship for one year previous to the application. A fee of £3 is payable, and the Registration is advertised in the London Gazette and in a local newspaper. When a chapel ceases to be used for worship or is rebuilt, the Certificate is cancelled, and in that case it requires to be renewed if worship is resumed. When a congregation has removed from one chapel to another, and the old building has ceased to be used as a place of public worship, the Certificate of the old chapel may be cancelled, and the new building registered for the solemnization of marriages, without waiting for a year to elapse. All necessary forms and information will be supplied by the Superintendent-Registrar of the District.

Marriages : England and Wales.—Marriages may be solemnized in any registered building, or in a district registry office either by Certificate or by Licence. If by Certificate, notice (accompanied with fee of 1s. for entry in 'Marriage Notice Book') must be given by one of the parties, if both live in one district, to the Superintendent-Registrar, on form furnished for purpose, containing solemn declaration of absence of impediment to intended marriage, certifying that one of the parties has dwelt at least seven days in district, and must be signed in presence of Registrar or deputy; but if parties live in different districts, notices must be sent to respective Superintendent-Registrars. Twenty-one clear days after entry of notice the Certificate (for which 1s. must be paid) will be granted on application.

If by licence, though both parties do not dwell in same district, only one need give notice, certifying that he or she has resided at least fifteen days in district, though marriage may be held in district of either party. Both parties, however, must be in England at the time of notice, though only one clear day is required (unless marriage take place in Ireland with some one there, when seven days are required) between notice and granting of licence. Cost of Licence, £2 2s.

If usual 'place of worship' at which ceremony is desired, be out of district of either's dwelling, by inserting words :—' Such building being usual place of worship of said——, and situate not more than two miles beyond limits of district of——,' Certificate will be granted accordingly.

The marriage must take place in registered building specified in Certificate, with open doors, between the hours of eight in the morning and three in the afternoon, within three calendar months from day of entry of notice, in presence of Registrar (or his deputy, or, if the Marriage Act of 1898 has been adopted, in the presence of the Authorized Person) and two or more credible witnesses besides minister, if any. At some part of ceremony the words must be said :—' I do solemnly declare that I know not of any lawful impediment why I—— may not be joined in matrimony to——'; and each must say to other : ' I call upon these persons here present to witness that I—— do take thee—— to be my lawful wedded wife (or husband) ' ; without which it is not a marriage.

Registrar's fee for attending marriage by Certificate, 5s. ; by Licence, 10s. ; for Copy of Certificate, 2s. 6d., and stamp 1d.

By the Marriage Act, 1898 (61 & 62 Vic. c. 58), marriage may be solemnized in the registered building named in the Superintendent's Certificate without the presence of any Registrar, but in the presence of such duly Authorized Person as mentioned in the Statute. The Statute provides for the notices and forms required to be given or complied with and the registers to be kept.

Marriage with a Deceased Wife's Sister was legalized by Act of Parliament, August, 1907.

Marriages : Ireland.—Marriages according to the form and discipline of the Presbyterian Church may be celebrated—(1) By special licence ; (2) By licence ; or (3) After publication of banns.

(1) In the first case both parties must be members of the same Church as the Moderator who grants the Special Licence.

(2) Ordinary Licences can be granted when only one of the parties is a Presbyterian. Each Presbytery is authorized to appoint, subject to the approval of the Lord Lieutenant, ministers to issue licences for marriage in Meeting Houses duly certified.

Anyone wishing to obtain a Licence must, seven days before the licence shall be delivered to him or her, produce to the licensing minister a certificate from the minister of the congregation of which he or she shall be a member and has been a member for at least one calendar month preceding.

(3) When both parties are Presbyterians, marriages may be celebrated after the banns have been proclaimed for three Sundays in the Presbyterian meeting-houses attended by each of the parties.

Marriages : Scotland.—The ceremony can be performed by the minister of any denomination, in any place, at any time, with or without any particular form. The law has been amended so as to put an end, as far as possible, to what were known as 'irregular' marriages. Legal notice must now be given to the Registrar of the parish or district, the names of the contracting parties being exhibited for seven days on the notice board outside the office of the Registrar in whose district the parties have resided for at least fifteen days immediately preceding. At the expiration of the period named a Certificate will be granted, and on this the marriage may take place either in a church or elsewhere. Any person who has resided for at least twenty-one days in Scotland may be married by going to the Registrar's office in the district in which he or she may reside, accompanied by two witnesses who can certify as to the term of residence, and exchanging written contract with the other party, afterwards proceeding to the County Sheriff's chambers to have the Marriage Registered.

Burial Act, 1880.—Wherever there is a Cemetery there is no difficulty in the way of a Nonconformist minister conducting a funeral service. The Act of Parliament of 1890 authorizes any person responsible for the burial of a body to give forty-eight hours notice to the incumbent of the parish in which the death took place, or in his absence to his deputy, that it is intended that the body shall be buried in the churchyard of the parish without the Church of England service. The Act allowed a like notice to be given to the chaplain of a parochial cemetery if a burial was intended to be made there; but the Burial Act, 1900 (63 & 64 Vic. c. 15, s. 8) requires that in the last-mentioned case the notice shall be given at such time and to such person as the burial authority directs. It is therefore necessary in that case to inquire at the office of the cemetery, and to give such notice as the rules of the cemetery prescribe.

In the case of burials in churchyards the form of notice is specified in the Act of 1880, and the requirements are as follows:—

The Notice must be in writing; must be endorsed on the outside 'Notice of Burial'; must be signed with the name and address of the person giving it, and be in the form, or to the effect, following:—

I _____, of _____, being the relative [or friend, or legal representative, as the case may be, describing the relation, if a relative] having the charge of, or being responsible for, the burial of A. B., of _____, who died at _____, in the parish of _____, on the _____ day of _____, do hereby give you notice that it is intended by me that the body of the said A. B. shall be buried within the [here describe the churchyard or graveyard in which the body is to be buried] on the _____ day of _____, at the hour of _____, without the performance in the manner prescribed by law of the service for the burial of the dead according to the rites of the Church of England; and I give this notice pursuant to the Burial Laws Amendment Act, 1880.

To the Rector [or as the case may be] of _____ NOTE.—While it is desirable to keep to this form, the person receiving it will not be at liberty to object to its sufficiency, because the exact words are not used; the Act only requiring that the notice shall be in the form, 'or to the effect,' of the above.

In the case of a churchyard, the notice is to be left at the house of the clergyman, or in his absence, of the clergyman in charge of the parish, or of any person appointed to receive such notices. It is not necessary that the clergyman should consent to a burial under the Act. He can object only to the time proposed, and do that only in certain cases. Unless it be otherwise mutually arranged, burials must be between 10 and 6 o'clock from April 1st to October 1st, and between 10 and 3 from October 1st to April 1st.

A burial may take place either without 'any religious service' or 'with such Christian and orderly religious service' at the grave as the person responsible for the burial may think fit, and 'any person or persons'—whether ministers or laymen—who may be invited or authorized, may conduct such service, or take part in any religious act thereat. The words 'Christian service' include 'every religious service used by any church, denomination, or person, professing to be Christian.'

The person having charge of a burial under the Act must, either on the same day or the day after, send to the incumbent or his representative—or, in the case of a Cemetery, to the clerk—a certificate of the burial in prescribed form.

I, _____, of _____, the person having the charge of [or, being responsible for] the burial of the deceased, do hereby certify that on the _____ day of _____, 191____, _____, aged _____, was buried in the churchyard [or graveyard] of the parish [or district] of _____

To the Rector [or as the case may be] of _____

The Act of 1880 does not entitle anyone to be buried in any place in which he would have no right to be buried if the Act had not passed. Neither does it affect previously existing regulations or authority in regard to the position of graves, inscriptions on gravestones, etc.

Burial Act, 1900.—This Act modifies the Act of 1880 in the case of the consecrated parts of parochial cemeteries. The Act does not deal with churchyards. In future, Burial Boards 'may, if they think fit,' apply to have a portion of the cemetery consecrated; formerly they were compelled to have a portion consecrated. Burial Boards are no longer compelled to erect two cemetery chapels, one for Anglicans and one for Nonconformists. They may erect any chapel 'they may consider necessary'; but any chapel so erected 'shall not be consecrated, or reserved for the exclusive use of any denomination.' The payment of fees to an incumbent of a parish will no longer be required 'except for services rendered by him.' In future, when a Nonconformist minister officiates in the consecrated part of a parochial cemetery, he, and not the clergyman, will receive the fee. These provisions apply to cemeteries opened after the passing of the Act. In the case of cemeteries already existing the old fees were continued for fifteen years, that is until 1915.

Cremation.—This is regulated by the Cremation Act, 1902, and the Regulations made by the Home Secretary in pursuance of that Act.

Charitable Trusts.—The Acts relating to Charitable Trusts give the Charity Commissioners very extensive jurisdiction over all charitable trusts (except certain exempted charities), and empower the Commissioners to inquire into the management of charities, to oblige their trustees to render accounts, to advise such trustees on the administration of the trusts, to authorize or direct legal proceedings to be taken, to authorize the granting of leases and making of improvements, and raising of money by mortgage, to authorize trustees to remove schoolmasters and other officers, to authorize the sale, exchange, or partitions of lands, to remove and appoint trustees, and to make new schemes for the administration of charities. Among the charities exempted from the operations of these Acts are any buildings registered as places of meeting for religious worship with the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, and bona fide used as places of meeting for religious worship. Exempted charities can, by application under certain sections of one of the Acts, have the benefits of the Acts extended to them.

Dissenters' Chapels Act, 1844.—It is under this Act (7 & 8 Vic. c. 45), that many of the old Presbyterian Chapels are secured to the Unitarians. The Act provides in substance that where there is no express statement in the deed of foundation as to the particular doctrines for which a chapel was to be employed, twenty-five years' usage shall be conclusive evidence of the legality of the doctrines.

Executors and their Duties.—Immediately on the death of a testator his personal property passes to his executors to be distributed (after the payment of his funeral expenses and debts) in the manner directed by the will. The real property also (except land of copyhold tenure or customary freehold) vests in the executors, who hold it as trustees for the persons beneficially entitled thereto, subject to a liability on account of the testator's debts, should the personal property which he leaves prove insufficient to pay them. They must take out a probate of the will, either personally or through a solicitor, either at Somerset House or at the Registry of the district in which the testator resided. The original will is then deposited in one of the registries of the Court, and the executors obtain a copy of it certified under the seal of the Probate Division. Estate duty is payable upon the principal value of all property, real or personal, settled or not settled, which passes on a death.

National Health Insurance Act, 1911.—By decision of the Commissioners (August, 1912), Unitarian Ministers are not required to be insured under the National Health Insurance Act.

Oaths Act, 1888.—This Act enacts that every person upon objecting to being sworn, and stating, as the ground of such objection, either that he has no religious belief, or that the taking of an oath is contrary to his religious belief, shall be permitted to make his solemn affirmation instead of taking an oath, in all places and for all purposes where an oath is or shall be required by law, which affirmation shall be of the same force and effect as if he had taken the oath. Every such affirmation shall be as follows:—‘I, A. B., do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare and affirm,’ and then proceed with the words of the oath prescribed by law, omitting any words of imprecation or calling to witness. If any person to whom an oath is administered desires to swear with uplifted hand in the form and manner in which an oath is usually administered in Scotland, he shall be permitted to do so, and the oath shall be administered to him in such form and manner without further question. By the Act of 1909, an alteration in the manner of administering oaths is authorized.

Rates, Exemption from.—It is enacted by 3 & 4 William IV. c. 30, that ‘no person or persons shall be rated, or shall be liable to be rated to, or to pay any church or poor rates or cesses for, or in respect of, any churches, district churches, chapels, meeting-houses, or premises, or such part thereof, as shall be exclusively appropriated to public religious worship, and which shall be’ registered under 18 & 19 Vic. c. 81, as a place of meeting for religious worship. ' Provided always that no person or persons shall be hereby exempted from any such rates or cesses, for or in respect of, any parts of such churches, district churches, chapels, meeting-houses, or other premises which are not so exclusively appropriated, and from which parts not so exclusively appropriated, such person or persons shall receive any rent or rents or shall derive profit or advantage.' Section 2 proceeds, ' Provided always that no person or persons shall be liable to any such rates or cesses because the said churches, district churches, chapels, meeting-houses, or other premises, or any vestry-rooms belonging thereto or any part thereof, may be used for Sunday or infant schools, or for the charitable education of the poor.' It is difficult to say what user of part of a chapel or school premises would bring the case within the exception from the exemption.

Workmen's Compensation Act, 1907.—It is desirable to insure the minister (if in receipt of a salary under £250 per annum); the chapel-keeper, and where there is an understanding (written or otherwise) that the wife or any member of the family helps, the helper also; any charwoman or other person employed regularly though for only and perhaps a part of a day a week; the grave-digger, if any; the organist and blower and members of the choir, if paid; also any Bible-women or nurses. Where the chapel-keeper regularly employs any charwoman or other person to help, an insurance should be taken out for the benefit of the chapel-keeper in respect of the persons helping, as he would probably be liable under the Act.

Recent Statutes.—The following Acts of Parliament may be usefully consulted on the subjects named: 18 & 19 Vic. c. 81, Places of Religious Worship Registration Act; 55 & 56 Vic. c. 11, Mortmain and Charitable Uses Act Amendment; c. 32; 56 & 57 Vic. c. 53, Trustee Act, 1893; 57 & 58 Vic. c. 35, Charitable Trusts (Places of Religious Worship Amendment Act, 1894); 60 & 61 Vic. c. 5, Marriage Act, 1898; 62 & 63 Vic. c. 32, Burial Act, 1900, c. 15; Factory and Workshops Act, 1901, c. 22; Cremation Act, 1902, c. 8; Marriage Legalization Act, 1903, c. 26; Elementary Education Amendment Act, 1903, c. 13; Employment of Children Act, 1903, c. 45; Shop Hours Act, 1904, c. 31; Prevention of Cruelty to Children Act, 1904, c. 15; Education (Provision of Meals Act), 1906, 6 Ed. This may be made under the Act of 1850 (13 & 14 Vic. c. 28), generally known as Sir Morton Peto's Act, and the Acts of 1869 and 1890 extending the same, now together called the 'Trustees Appointment Acts, 1850 to 1890,' or by the 'Trustee Act, 1893.' When there is an existing power of appointment, the appointment may be effected in the manner, and by the person appointed by the instrument creating the trust; if there is no existing power, or the appointment under the power be not made within twelve months, then recourse should be made to the above Acts, under which the appointment can be made, in the case of Peto's Act, by resolution of the congregation, society, or body of persons interested therein as by the Act provided, or, in the case of the Trustee Act, 1893, by writing by the persons therein mentioned, the trust property in the former case vesting in the new trustees by virtue of the appointment alone, and, in the latter case, by virtue of a declaration forming part of the Deed.

If none of these modes of appointment should be feasible, resort should be had to the powers of the Charity Commissioners.

No form of appointment is prescribed by the Trustee Act, 1893, but in Sir Morton Peto's Act a form is given for cases under that Act only, and is as follows :—

TRUST DEEDS OF CHURCHES

The greater number of Unitarian Churches possess what are known as 'Open Trust Deeds.' The land, buildings, and endowments (if any) are held in Trust for the worship of God, and for the religious, moral, or intellectual improvement of the Congregation for the time being worshipping there, and for its general benevolent objects.

In drafting a New Trust Deed care should be taken to state clearly that if any question should at any time arise as to the purposes for which the said Church or Chapel may lawfully be used, the widest meaning should be attached to the trust aforesaid, so that neither by reference to the actual or supposed opinions of the founders, nor otherwise, shall any restriction be imposed on the liberty of the congregation for the time being to change its opinions with regard to religious doctrines or modes of regulating worship. The Deed should be settled by a solicitor, who will consider questions of consideration, enrolment, etc.

The British and Foreign Unitarian Association has a Special Subcommittee for giving advice to Congregations, respecting the Civil Rights of Unitarians, Chapel Trust Deeds, Endowments, etc. Applications should be addressed to the Secretary, Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C. The Committee will expect the congregations to defray the cost of any legal charges. The Solicitor of the Association is Howard Young, Esq., LL.B., 29 Mark Lane, London, E.C.

UNITARIAN MINISTERS DECEASED

December, 1915—November, 1916

Brooke.—The Rev. Stopford Augustus Brooke, of London, died at Ewhurst, Surrey, 18 March, 1916, aged 83. Dr. Brooke was born at Letterkenny, Co. Donegal. He graduated at Trinity College, Dublin, M.A., LL.D., he was ordained in 1857; after holding two curacies in London he was appointed Chaplain to the Embassy in Berlin, 1863-65. On his return to England he began his ministry at St. James's Chapel, York Street, 1866-75, and in 1872 was appointed Hon. Chaplain to the Queen. In 1876 his ministry was transferred to Bedford Chapel, Bloomsbury, where he remained till his retirement in 1894. He seceded from the Church of England in 1880. For four years, 1897-1901, he travelled about the country as special preacher at the invitation of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association; and during 1902-4 he preached at Little Portland Street Chapel. In later years he frequently preached at Rosslyn Hill Chapel, Hampstead. His first book The Life and Letters of the late Frederick W. Robertson was published in 1865, and his last book, a volume of sermons called The Onward Cry was issued in 1911. In 1874 he published Theology in the English Poets, which was followed by volumes on Tennyson and Browning, Ten Plays of Shakespeare, Studies in Poetry, and essays on Clough, Matthew Arnold, Rossetti, and William Morris. In 1876 was published his little Primer of English Literature. In 1884 Dr. Brooke preached the Annual Sermon before the British and Foreign Unitarian Association at Unity Church, Islington, entitled What think ye of Christ? He also gave the first Essex Hall Lecture in 1893, on the Development of Theology as illustrated in English Poetry from 1780 to 1830. Several of his Sermons have been published as Tracts, and have had a wide circulation. The latest, a Discourse on War, was issued since his death.

Buckland.—The Rev. Ernest Segar Lang Buckland died at Nottingham, 16 January, 1916, aged 49. Mr. Buckland was educated at Cambridge. His first pastorate was at Guildford from 1899 to 1903. He then went to Friar Gate Chapel, Derby, 1904-8. Whilst at Derby he inaugurated and personally conducted a 'Mission to the Blind.' Mr. Buckland retired from the pulpit in Derby in 1908, and for some years devoted himself to work for the Blind, preaching occasionally. For a brief period before his death he was joint-pastor of Christ Church, Nottingham, and Ilkeston.

Dunbar.—The Rev. Michael Smith Dunbar died at Comber, Co. Down, 5 November, 1916, aged 72. Mr. Dunbar was educated at Glasgow University, where he obtained the degree of M.A. in 1865. On leaving his early Presbyterian connexion and coming among the Unitarians he became minister at Horsham, 1873-77; Hunslet, Leeds, 1878-83; Evesham, 1883-93; and Downpatrick, 1894-1916. Mr. Dunbar then left for Comber, where he ministered for several months whilst his son completed his college course. He was also Moderator of the Non-Subscribing Presbyterian Church of Ireland, and a governor of the Orphan Society.

Fox.—The Rev. George Fox died at Cheadle Hulme, 5 January, 1916, aged 81. Mr. Fox entered the Unitarian Home Missionary Board (now Colledge) as a student in 1856. His first ministry was at the Christian Church, Mossley, 1859-64. In 1864 he became minister of the old Presbyterian Chapel of Park Lane, near Wigan, from which he retired after twenty-six years service. He compiled the History of Park Lane Chapel.

Greaves.—The Rev. Cyril Abdy Greaves died at Sturry, near Canterbury, 23 April, 1916, aged 85. Dr. Greaves was a native of Canterbury, and educated at King's School. In 1851 he emigrated to New Zealand. In 1853 he returned to his old home and became clerk and collector at the gas-works. In 1866 he proceeded to Durham University, where he took his B.A. degree in 1868, his M.A. in 1871, B.C.L. in 1872, D.C.L. in 1876. He was an Anglican Clergyman till 1883, when he became Unitarian minister at Canterbury, then at King's Lynn, and preached occasionally at other chapels. In 1911 he published his autobiography entitled Records of My Life. By his Will, the British and Foreign Unitarian Association was made residuary legatee of his estate.

Pollard.—The Rev. Joseph Pollard died at Ballymena, Co. Antrim, 9 November, 1916, aged 84. Mr. Pollard began his ministry at Croft in 1872, and in 1876 was appointed to the charge of the Belfast Domestic Mission. When the London Domestic Mission Society founded in 1882 the mission station at Rhyl Street, Kentish Town, he was appointed Missionary. Retiring in 1900 he ministered at Ballymena, 1900-2, and King's Lynn, 1902-3. He had lived in retirement at Ballymena for several years previous to his death.

Sneath.—The Rev. Charles James Sneath died at Birmingham, 28 November, 1916, aged 77. Throughout his life Mr. Sneath suffered from defective eyesight. In 1882 he entered Queen's College, Birmingham, becoming an Anglican Clergyman in the same year. Changing his views he seceded from the Established Church in 1899 and with those who worked with him formed what is now the Unitarian Christian Church, Moseley, Birmingham. He retired from the active ministry in 1905.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

The Sunday School Association, founded in 1833, has its head-quarters at Essex Hall, London. Its objects are (a) the promotion generally of Sunday School Education, and (b) the publication of suitable religious Books for young people. The qualification for individual Membership is an annual subscription of not less than 5s., or a life donation of not less than £5. Individuals, Schools, or Societies, subscribing a guinea a year, or upwards, are entitled to a copy of every new book printed and published by the Association during the year for which the subscription is paid. District and kindred Societies, whose objects are similar to those of the Association, which contribute one guinea and upwards annually, are thereby deemed to be affiliated to it, and have the right of appointing a delegate to represent it on the Committee and at all General Meetings. Schools contributing 5s. and upwards annually are considered members, and have the right of sending a representative to all the General Meetings. Annual Meeting held in Whit-week.

Officers.—President, Rev. A. W. FOX, M.A.; Treasurer, Mr. HAROLD WADE; Chairman of Committee, Mr. ION PRITCHARD; Secretaries, Mr. T. M. CHALMERS, M.A.; Rev. BERTRAM LISTER, M.A.

The Committee meet on the second Friday in the month at 5.30 p.m. Business communications should be addressed to Mr. B. C. HARE, Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C.; other Correspondence to the Secretaries at the same address.

Book Room at Essex Hall open from 9 to 6; Saturdays, 9 to 1.

CONVALESCENT AND HOLIDAY HOMES

Great Hucklow (Barleycrofts), Buxton (1908).—Convalescent Home for elder girls and women teachers in the schools of the Manchester District Sunday School Association and others. Secretary, Rev. C. Peach, 9 East Meade, Chorltonville, Manchester.

Great Hucklow (Holiday Home), Buxton.—The Home is maintained by the Manchester District Sunday School Association to provide cheap quiet holidays for Sunday-school and other parties. It contains one hundred beds, also a large Day Room. Secretary, Rev. C. Peach.

Grundy Home for Convalescent Children, Harrowside, South Shore, Blackpool.—The house is the gift of Mr. C. C. Grundy to the Manchester District Sunday School Association, and it is maintained by the Association and voluntary subscriptions, as a Convalescent Home for younger scholars. Secretary, Rev. J. W. Bishop, 4 River View, Tulketh Road, Preston.

Mansford House, Birchington (1914).—The Home was built by Mr. Ronald P. Jones, and presented to the Committee of the Mansford Street Church and Mission, Bethnal Green, London, as a centre for their Holiday and Convalescent work. The Home has been used as a Hospital for Soldiers for the past two years, but it is hoped that it will be available again for visitors from our churches early in the New Year. Apply to Rev. G. Cooper, 117 Mansford Street, Bethnal Green, London, E.

Southend Home.—Bernard House, 80 Darnley Road, Southend-on-Sea, maintained by the London Sunday School Society for the purpose of providing a seaside home at reasonable charges for the teachers and elder scholars of the London Sunday Schools. Application forms can be obtained from the Lady Superintendent at the Home, or from the Secretary, A. S. Noel, 75 Hainault Road, Leytonstone, N.E.

THE

Sunday School Association

Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C.

(FOUNDED 1833)

Sunday School Teachers, Ministers, Parents, and all others interested in the religious education of the young are cordially invited to visit the Association's Book Room and to co-operate in making known the publications of the Association. Catalogues for distribution will be sent on application.

The object of the Association is to supply Sunday schools and parents with text-books of moral and religious instruction at the smallest possible outlay, only a slight addition being made to the actual cost.

[* AN ASTERISK IS PLACED BEFORE THE TITLES OF NEW BOOKS.]

A list of Books offered at specially reduced prices is given on page 14.

Carpenter, J. Estlin, M.A., D.Litt., D.D.

LIFE IN PALESTINE WHEN JESUS LIVED. New revised and enlarged edition, with Indexes. Cloth 1/6 net.

The Schoolmaster in reviewing the first edition, says: 'It does not require to read more than half-a-dozen pages to feel that our attention is not likely to flag during the rest of the volume. The country, people, government, and religion are all discussed in turn—nothing hurried or curtailed, every sub-division given its due share, and the result is a whole upon which the author may fairly be congratulated.'

Cooke, Frances E.

THEOPHILUS LINDSEY AND HIS FRIENDS. Cloth 1/- net.

'The stories of Lindsey and his friend Dr. Priestley, which are combined in this little volume, are almost unknown to young people of the present day. Yet because of their faithfulness to duty and fearless search after truth, these men should be lasting examples for all time.'—Preface.

STORY OF THEODORE PARKER. Cloth 1/- net. Paper, 6d. net.

‘Although written for young people, there is much in this volume to attract those of maturer years, and teachers who are earnest in their work will find much to interest them in the career of Parker, himself a teacher, in whose heart the love of children was great to the overflow.’—Schoolmaster

STORY OF WILLIAM ELLERY CHANNING. Cloth 1/- net.
Paper covers 6d. net.

‘The story of Dr. Channing told for boys and girls, terse, plain, pointed and attractive, a book which is sure to find its way into many of our young folks’ libraries, and should be omitted from no School Library. —Unity.

THE STORY OF ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI. Cloth 1/- net. Paper covers 6d. net.

‘Perhaps now, more than ever,’ Miss Cooke says in a brief introductory note, ‘we need the kindling influence of great aims and lofty ideals, and it would surely be well for ourselves and for the world about us if we were to try to carry the spirit of St. Francis into our daily lives.’

THE STORY OF DOROTHEA LYNDE DIX. Cloth 1/- net.
Paper covers 6d. net.

The New Age says:—‘The story of the noble devotion and self-sacrifice of this brave, beautiful soul is told in a way that cannot fail to do anyone good who reads it. The magnificent work done for the poor and friendless lunatics by Dorothea Dix places her in the front rank of the world’s latter-day saints.’

Davis, Valentine D., B.A.

THE EPISTLES OF ST. PAUL TO THE PHILIPPIANS AND TO PHILEMON. Explained and Illustrated. Cloth 1/- net.

‘... Far more to our mind is the choice, careful, and thoughtful little book by Valentine D. Davis, B.A. Such a book as this is worth cart-loads of certain theological publications; it does great credit to the series and to its author.’—Christian World.

Dendy, John

SUCCESSFUL LIFE. A Series of Essays. Cloth 2/- net.

‘These frank and well considered addresses would make a good foundation for a useful course of lessons. Apart from class work this is also an excellent book to put into the hands of a young man for his own study.’—Christian World.

* THE LARGER LIFE. A Way through Experience towards the Truth. Cloth 2/6 net.

The Challenge says:—‘We do not know any book fuller than this of the kind of religion that a layman needs. . . . It is an excellent book.’

Dendy, Mary

LESSON STORIES FOR THE LITTLE ONES. Cloth 1/- net.

These stories are written so as to convey helpful lessons in a bright and attractive way. They are illustrated by pictures of animals, and are sure to interest little boys and girls.

Thirty-four Lessons. Cloth 1/6 net.

THE PRACTICAL TEACHING OF JESUS OF NAZARETH AS FOUND IN THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE. Thirty-five Lessons. Cloth 1/6 net.

The purpose of these little books is to bring out the practical teaching of the Christ, so that it may have its mighty influence in the formation of the character of the taught.

TENNYSON'S 'IDYLLS OF THE KING': Six Studies. Cloth
1/- net.

CONTENTS:—Short Biography of Tennyson. The Coming of Arthur. Gareth and Lynette. Geraint and Enid. The Holy Grail. Guinevere. The Passing of Arthur.

Gannett, William C.

THE CHILDHOOD OF JESUS. Cloth 1/- net.

A most helpful book for teachers, as it will enable them so to describe the surroundings of the life of Jesus that the children will be able to picture them for themselves.

THE THREE STAGES OF A BIBLE'S LIFE. Sewed 4d. net.

This little work has been found very helpful by parents, teachers, and elder scholars, and it has been republished in booklet form in the hope that it may aid those who have broken away from 'orthodoxy' to a truer and deeper reverence for what is still the Book of Books.

IN THE HOME. A Study of Duties. Sewed 3d. net.

This little work consists of 'aids' to study, and will therefore require thoughtful preparation by those who wish to use them.

Giran, Etienne

JESUS OF NAZARETH. An Historical and Critical Survey of His Life and Teaching. Translated by E. L. H.
Thomas, B.A. Cloth 2/- net.

Unity says: 'With this little volume in his hand, the intelligent reader who has also the ability to write is able to compile from the New Testament an approximately accurate account of the life and teaching of Jesus, stripped of later accretions from popular imagination and conflicting schools of early Christian thought.'

Haigh, J. L.

THE STORY OF JOSEPH. A Service of Song, with Music in both notations. 2d. net. Words of Hymns only, 1d.

The story is told in blank verse, and the hymns, both words and music are in keeping with the earnest tone of the whole.

Hall, Alfred, M.A.

JAMES MARTINEAU, THE STORY OF HIS LIFE. Cloth 1/- net.

This little book has been written in the hope that it will be welcome to young people who ought to know something of James Martineau, whose thinking has had and continues to have a powerful influence upon the best religious life of our time; also to busy people who have not time to read larger biographies.

PLAYS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE. Sewed, 3d. each net.

Robin Hood. Babes in the Wood.

Dick Whittington. William Tell.

Beauty and the Beast King Amor.

and Red Riding Hood. The Unambitious Queen.

AUTHOR'S NOTE.—'These Plays make no pretence to literary merit. They are written in rhyme because verse is so much more easily learnt than prose. Experience has proved that most of them are within the range of elder scholars, while scenery, dresses, &c., are not very exacting.'

'These simple and interesting little plays are written gracefully and with good taste, and might, by the elder children, be performed very effectively.'—Schoolmaster.

Herford, Brooke, D.D.

THE STORY OF RELIGION IN ENGLAND. Sixth edition Tenth thousand. Cloth 2/- net.

Describes, in a graphic and interesting way, the history of the growth of religious thought and its results from the earliest times to the present day.

THE PROPHECIES OF THE CAPTIVITY (ISAIAH XL.-LXVI.) EXPLAINED AND ILLUSTRATED. Cloth 1/- net.

'The notes are clear, and free from irrelevance; they put the results of much study within reach of the English reader . . . The treatment is admirable for clearness and candour.'—British Weekly.

Hicks, E. Savell, M.A.

THE BIBLE LITERATURE IN THE LIGHT OF MODERN KNOWLEDGE. Cloth 2/- net.

The Inquirer says:—The compilation of such a work is a task so exacting that the author must be congratulated who attains so much success as here displayed.

Hirst, J. Crowther

HALF-HOURS WITH THE PARABLES. Two Series. Cloth 1/- each net.

The object the Author has kept in view in writing these books, is to enable even a poorly-equipped teacher to give a series of instructive and helpful lessons on the Parables, and to provide a story to read after each lesson illustrating and emphasising the particular points brought forward.

Knappert, Dr.

THE RELIGION OF ISRAEL. Cheap edition. Cloth 1/- net.

This work follows Kuenen. It is a clear and interesting exposition of the growth of the Hebrew Religions from the earliest times up to the period before the birth of Jesus.

Lee, E. Rosalind

THE PILGRIM FATHERS, their Trials and Adventures. Illustrated by Alice M. Odgers. Cloth 1/- net.

The aim of this short account of the Pilgrim Fathers is to give our young people some idea of the hardships and trials that faced those who first sought refuge in America from religious persecution.

Macrae, David

NEW PARABLES AND STORIES. Cloth 1/- net.

They inculcate trust, prudence, perseverance, charity, modesty, and kindness; and a child will learn more of the true character of Religion from them than from the most elaborately devised definitions.—Inquirer

Martineau, Caroline A.

VOICES OF NATURE, AND LESSONS FROM SCIENCE. Cloth 1/- net

The pages are an attempt to tell some of the more simple among the many 'fairy tales of science' (together with the thoughts which they have suggested) in such a way that those may enter into them who have not time or opportunity to read longer and more systematic books.

Pritchard, E. and J. J. Wright.

FAVOURITE STORIES. Cloth 1/- net.

A teacher (or parent) in giving a lesson on some subject, or on some portion of Scripture, often feels the need of an apt, good story with which to illustrate and carry home his lesson. Here then, is a handy volume of just such stories—stories to illustrate lessons likely to be given to any boys or girls over eight or ten years of age.

Rawlings, Henry, M.A.

PRACTICAL HINTS FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS. 6d. net.

'No one can read these pages, be he teacher or parent, without learning a good deal from the wise and discriminating suggestions given in them. The whole is conceived and written in an admirable spirit. — Inquirer.

THE STORY OF ISAAC HOPPER. A Hero of the Anti-Slavery Movement. Cloth, with Portrait, 6d. net.

The names of some of the men and women who helped the slave to freedom are well known—such as that of William Lloyd Garrison. Hopper's name is seldom heard, at least in England, but Garrison himself, accepting an invitation to stay with him in New York, wrote, 'There is no one in the world for whom I entertain more veneration and esteem than for yourself. Would it not be surprising if the life of the man thus addressed were not worthy of some record?

Rawlings, Julie

ADDRESSES AND ILLUSTRATIVE STORIES. Cloth 1/- net.

The Coming Day says: 'A perfect treasure-store of pretty stories, serious little lectures or life-studies, and thoughtful poetry, all sweetly reasonable. About seventy pieces in all. The very thing for a class, as dessert after a lesson; or for home-reading for youngsters from ten to fifteen.'

Tarrant, W. G., B.A.

OUR FAITH : STUDIES IN RELIGION. Paper covers 6d. net.

It seeks to present OUR FAITH in its clearest and most definite form and, at the same time, to indicate its relation to the general religious life of mankind.—Preface.

* HOME PRAYERS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE. 1/- net.

The Inquirer says :—To write prayers for children of various ages, from infancy to adolescence, is not an easy task. It requires a wide range of sympathy, a certain delicacy of feeling and touch, combined with a simplicity which is free from childishness. That Mr. Tarrant has succeeded so well ought to ensure for his book a place in every home where there are children. It supplies a long-felt want.

Tavener, Lucking

* LESSONS FROM THE PAINTERS. With 15 Illustrations.
Cloth 1/6 net.

During thirty years of ministry, including pulpit, platform, and class work, I have found the use of works of Art most valuable. At the annual meeting of the Sunday School Association, I ventured to urge its advantage to Sunday School teachers; and this little book is the outcome of that address. It is written in order to show how reproductions of pictures might be used to illustrate ideals and duties.—From Preface.

Thomas, A. Hermann, M.A.

THE EARLY CHURCH. Its Orders and Institutions. 2/6 net.

This little volume is a sequel to the manual entitled Christianity and the Roman Empire. Assuming the relations to the State described in that book, it endeavours to delineate in simple terms the complicated phases of the internal growth and organization of the Church.

Thornhill, Albert, M.A.

* HEROES OF FAITH : From Wiclif to Priestley. With 14 Illustrations. Cloth 1/6 net.

In writing this little book the author has been impelled by the conviction that our young people have only to learn the story of the lives of the great Heroes of Faith to be moved with the desire to emulate their noble examples in the field of daily duty.

PREFACE

THE YEAR BOOK for 1918 contains the names of 356 Ministers and 9 Lay Workers in Great Britain and Ireland, and 13 Ministers in the British Dominions across the seas. The alterations, additions, and omissions in the list of Ministers have been made on the recommendation of a small committee representing the Association, the Conference, and the Ministerial Fellowship. Eight Ministers have died; seven others, for various reasons, have been omitted.

The names of the following Ministers appear in the Year Book for the first time :—James Percival Chalk (educated, 1915-17, at M.C.O.), Fred Cottier (educated, 1914-17, at H.M.C.), Margaret Brackenbury Crook (educated, 1914-17, at M.C.O.), Benjamin Davies (educated, 1912-15, at Carmarthen), Vigo Auguste Demant (educated, 1914-17, at M.C.O.), George Randall Jones (educated, 1914-17, at H.M.C.), John William Maw (educated, 1912-17, at H.M.C.), Stanley Mossop (educated, 1914-17, at H.M.C.), Sydney T. Pagesmith (educated, 1913-16, at M.C.O.), Charles Arthur Piper (educated, 1914-17, at H.M.C.), Jesse Pipkin (educated, 1915-17, at H.M.C.).

Charles Edward Mercer, Marshall Bentley Skelland, Charles Smith, Thomas Oswald Williams, having completed a period of probationary service as Lay Workers, are now regarded as belonging to the regular ministry. In transferring the name of a Lay Worker to the list of Ministers, the period of service as a Lay Worker is indicated.

The names of Frederick R. Griffin and Walter G. Letham, removed to the United States, also of Douglas Price (deceased), formerly in the Colonial list, have been omitted; the name of E. J. Bowden, of Victoria, B.C., has been inserted.

The names of the following Lay Workers appear in that list for the first time :—Alfred J. Heale (Bradford, Manchester), E. Rosalind Lee, B.A. (Pentre), W. Priestley Phillips, M.A. (Bridgend).

Of the Ministers, 115 were educated at Manchester College: this number includes 13 students from the Unitarian Home Missionary College, and 5 from the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen; 115 Ministers were educated at the Unitarian Home Missionary College, Manchester, and 25 at the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen; 49 Ministers were educated at 'orthodox' theological Colleges; 3 were educated at Unitarian Colleges in America ; 14 Ministers have had a University or College education without special theological training ; 53 have had no College or University training.

258 Ministers and 9 Lay Workers are in charge of Congregations ; 11 are employed as tutors in our colleges, secretaries of associations, editors of papers, and district ministers ; 3 are engaged in work not connected with the denomination ; 15 Ministers are apparently open to accept ministerial appointments ; 69 Ministers have retired from active work.

The list of Congregations contains 370 places of worship ; 289 in England ; 38 in Ireland ; 35 in Wales ; 8 in Scotland. Leytonstone has been inserted, and Baffin's Lane, Chichester, having been disposed of, is omitted.

In December, 1917, the following pulpits were vacant, or about to become vacant :—England—Accrington, Bolton (Halliwell Road), Exeter, Leeds (Hunslet), Leicester (Narborough Road), London (Brixton), Loughborough, Manchester (Cross Street), Mansfield, Middleton, Norwich, Nottingham (Christ Church), Rawtenstall, Scarborough, Sheffield (Unity Church), York. Ireland—Belfast (York Street). Scotland—Aberdeen. Wales—Merthyr Tydfil. Nearly 60 congregations rely for the most part upon lay preachers.

The Essex Hall Hymnal is used by 186 congregations ; ‘ Hymns of Praise and Prayer ’ by 19 ; ‘ Hymns for the Christian Church and Home ’ by 6. In Ireland 12 congregations use ‘ Hymns for Christian Worship ’ ; in Wales 20 use ‘ Pearls of Praise.’ The Berwick Hymnal is used by 15 congregations, the New Hymnal (Novello) by 76 ; nearly 30 congregations use selections more or less peculiar to themselves. Liturgies are used by 107 congregations.

Every care is taken to bring the information up to date—not always an easy task, as several ministers and secretaries do not take the trouble to return the Forms. Owing to the War, there is more uncertainty than usual in respect to the names and addresses of the secretaries of congregations. To the large number of diligent correspondents, the Editor is most grateful : without their assistance the Year Book could not be prepared.

MINISTERS

[Revised and approved 14 November, 1917]

The list contains the name and address, college, university degree, date of entering ministry, and congregations served by the following :—

(1) Ministers in charge of Unitarian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing Congregations in Great Britain and Ireland

(2) Ministers, formerly settled with Congregations, now engaged as professors, tutors, missionaries, secretaries, etc.

(3) Ministers in charge of Unitarian Congregations in Australia, New Zealand, Canada, and South Africa.

(4) Ministers who have resigned their pastorates, or who have retired from active duty, but who have not withdrawn from the ministry. These names are printed in italic.

ADMISSION OF NAMES

(1) The name of any Minister regularly appointed by a Congregation or a Missionary Society to conduct religious services, and to take charge of the work of the Church or Society, is inserted in the list.

(2) He is described as a 'Minister,' if he (a) holds the certificate of having completed the theological curriculum at Manchester College, Oxford, the Unitarian Home Missionary College, Manchester, the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen, or at Harvard or Meadville, U.S.A.; or (b) has previously been in the ministry of another denomination, or educated for the ministry in another denomination, at home or abroad, and has (if required) satisfied an Advisory Committee respecting his character and general fitness; or (c) having been a Lay Worker is certificated as a Minister.

Note.—Managers of Benevolent, Fellowship, Pension, Sustentation, and other Funds are under no obligation to admit anyone to benefits simply because his name appears in the Year Book.

OMISSION OF NAMES

(1) On resigning his charge, any minister may withdraw his name from the list.

(2) On his becoming minister in another denomination, the name is omitted, unless a personal request is made for its retention.

(3) The names of ministers who have ceased to reside in the United Kingdom are omitted, but may on their personal application be included.

(4) The names are omitted of those who have withdrawn from the ministry to engage in secular pursuits, or who for five years have had no active connexion with our churches or work. This does not apply to those who are temporarily out of service, or who have retired by reason of age or infirmity.

(5) The names of persons are omitted whose character and conduct have, in the opinion of an Advisory Committee or a District Society, unfitted them for continuing to hold the office of a minister.

CONGREGATIONS

The list contains the location, the date of foundation, the hours of service, the hymn book in use, the name and address of the Secretary, the name of the Minister, Missionary, or Lay Worker of :—

(a) All duly organized Unitarian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing Congregations in Great Britain and Ireland.

(b) Pioneer movements holding regular meetings for worship.

(c) Places of worship closed at present, but not finally given up.

The date following the name and address of the congregation indicates the year in which it was founded, which is not necessarily the date of the existing building: when two or more dates are given, the last refers to the erection of the present building.

Under each Congregation the names of the present and the more recent Ministers are given. Those printed in italic are deceased.

Important to Congregations

As much injury has been done both to congregations and to the ministry by the appointment of unsuitable persons, congregations are advised to take no steps in respect to the selection or appointment of any Minister whose name does not appear in the Year Book.

PIONEER PREACHERS

HOSTEL: Unity House, 23 Highbury Place, London, N. 5.

IN RESIDENCE, 1918

JOHN BEGG F. G. FINCHAM J. P. ROSLING J. HARRY SMITH

THE PIONEER PREACHERS' movement owes its inception to the Rev. R. J. Campbell, M.A., and was an outcome of the New Theology propaganda. When Mr. Campbell retired from the Presidency of the Liberal Christian League the movement was transferred to a new committee acting under the auspices of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association. The Pioneer Preachers are responsible for the missionary work and oversight of several churches in London and elsewhere. In May, 1914, a new Hostel was opened at 23 Highbury Place, London. The premises, including freehold site, alterations, and equipment, cost £1,400. Secretary and Superintendent, Rev. T. P. Spedding, Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C. 2.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

The British and Foreign Unitarian Association was constituted in 1825. It arose out of the union of three Societies supported by Unitarians in all parts of the country :—(1) The Unitarian Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge and the Practice of Virtue, by the Distribution of Books, founded in 1791 ; (2) The Unitarian Fund, established in 1806, which may be regarded as the most important ; and (3) The Association for Protecting the Civil Rights of Unitarians, formed in 1819.

The Association is a national and international missionary organization. Its operations cover all parts of the British Isles, and extend to the Colonies, India, Africa, and several European countries.

The Association assists in establishing and maintaining churches, especially in the early and difficult stages of their growth. It supports ministers, lecturers, and missionary preachers. It holds conferences and meetings in London and in different parts of the country.

The Association is the publication agency of the denomination. Books and pamphlets are issued dealing with the broader aspects of liberal religious thought and life, in addition to direct expositions of Unitarian Christianity. Publications intended for a wider public are issued under the name of 'The Lindsey Press' ; those of a denominational type with the imprint of the Association. Books are frequently presented to public libraries, ministers, and lay preachers. Thousands of Unitarian tracts are distributed, in response to applications from congregations, postal missions, and inquirers in all parts of the world.

The Association is supported by the subscriptions of individuals, collections from congregations, sales of publications, and income from investments. The serviceableness of the Association and the range of its operations are dependent upon the generosity of congregations and of individual Unitarians.

The Association was Incorporated, 28 July, 1915 ; and may now be appointed a Trustee of Chapels, Endowments, and other Funds.

Officers.—President : Rev. Dr. J. E. Carpenter, M.A. ; Treasurer pro tem. : Mr. G. W. Brown, B.A. ; Chairman of Committee : Mr. R. M. Montgomery, K.C. ; Solicitor : Mr. Howard Young, LL.B. ; Missionary Agent : Rev. T. P. Spedding ; Secretary : Rev. W. Copeland Bowie.

Book Room and Office.—Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London. The Book Room is open Monday to Friday 9 to 5.30 ; Saturday 9 to 1.

Meetings : 1918.—The Committee of the Association will meet at 3 p.m. on Wednesdays :—9 Jan., 13 Feb., 13 March, 10 April, 8 May, 12 June, 10 July, 9 October, 13 November, 11 December. The Finance, Mission, Publications, Scottish, and other SUBCOMMITTEES meet the week before the Executive Committee, and communications respecting Grants and other important business should reach the Secretary at Essex Hall at least ten days before these dates.

The Council of the Association will meet Tuesday, 26 March, and Tuesday, 22 October. The Provincial Meetings in November.

Association Sunday will be 17 November, when Collections on behalf of the Funds of the Association will be taken in our Churches.

The Anniversary Meetings in 1918 will be held in London during Whit-week : Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, 21, 22, 23 May.

MINISTERS' STIPEND AUGMENTATION FUNDS ENGLAND

Ministers' Stipend Augmentation Fund (1856).—Object: The encouragement of ministers of congregations in England assembling for the public worship of God, the members or ministers of which shall not be required to subscribe or assent to any articles of religious belief, or submit to any test of religious doctrine. The Fund is upwards of £50,000; annual subscriptions £150. Treasurer, Richard D. Holt, M.P., India Buildings, Liverpool. Applications for grants should be made in the month of April to the Secretary, B. P. Burroughs, 15 Sweeting Street, Liverpool.

Sustentation Fund for the Augmentation of Ministers' Stipends (1883).—Object: To aid in the maintenance of faithful and efficient ministers of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing or Kindred Congregations as regularly assemble for the public worship of God. In 1912 it was resolved to raise an additional Fund of £50,000 with the view of securing subject to certain conditions a minimum stipend to all accredited ministers of such congregations as aforesaid in England and Wales. Board of twenty-seven Managers, of whom twelve are elected by the contributors, six by the Board, six by the National Conference, and three by the British and Foreign Unitarian Association. Managers are elected for three years and are then eligible for re-election. The Board meets in June to consider applications for grants. Forms of application should be obtained from the Secretary during the month of March. The Fund consists of investments amounting to about £78,000 and annual subscriptions amounting to about £500. Treasurer, Ronald P. Jones, 7 Stone Buildings, Lincoln's Inn, London, W.C.2; Secretary, Harold F. Pearson; Acting Secretary, Rev. W. H. Drummond, 23 Cannon Place, Hampstead, London, N.W.3.

IRELAND

Irish Sustentation Fund (1914).—A sum of £10,000 was raised by subscription and capitalized under the charge of lay trustees appointed by the General Synod of the Non-Subscribing Church of Ireland. The interest on such capital, together with congregational contributions at the fixed rate of five per cent per annum on the minister's stipend from all sources, exclusive of manse, is applied in augmenting the stipends of ministers. Secretary, H. Thomas, Strathfoyle, Hawthornden Road, Knock, Belfast.

Sustentation Fund (1871).—This Fund, which is connected with the ten congregations of the Remonstrant Synod of Ulster, supplies the place of the 'Regium Donum,' which granted annually £69 4s. 8d. to each minister. The Fund amounts to about £12,600, income £610 per annum. The proceeds are distributed amongst the ministers of the congregations which from 1872 have contributed a minimum of 4s. per stipend payer per annum to the Fund. Each minister receives at present £65 a year, if not still enjoying 'Regium Donum' or its equivalent. Treasurer, William McRobert, Ulster Bank, Belfast; Secretary, Rev. J. A. Kelly, The Glebe, Dunmurry, Co. Antrim.

Dublin Fund (1751).—This Fund, capital £600, is for the relief of ministers and their widows, and is administered in connexion with the Presbytery of Antrim. Treasurer, Rev. James Kennedy, Larne.

Dunbar Fund (1871).—This Fund consists of a sum of £2,000, conveyed by the late Miss Jane Dunbar, of Huntly, Banbridge, the interest on which to be applied for the benefit of not more than eight and not less than four struggling, necessitous, and deserving congregations in connexion with the Remonstrant Synod of Ulster. The Trustees of the First Presbyterian Congregation, Banbridge, administer the Fund. Treasurer, W. Lindsay, Ballydown, Banbridge.

SCOTLAND

McQuaker Fund (1889).—Bequest of nearly £30,000, by William McQuaker, of Glasgow, to the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, the interest to be applied in maintaining and diffusing the principles of Unitarian Christianity in Scotland by supplementing the salaries of ministers of non-self-supporting congregations who can show such an amount of congregational income as shall attest to the satisfaction of the Committee a living interest in the work; by contributing to the support of missionary preachers; by the distribution of tracts, controversial and practical, in a cheap and popular form; and by such other means as may seem advisable to the Committee of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association. Secretary, Rev. W. Copeland Bowie, Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C.2.

MINISTERS SOCIETIES AND MEETINGS

Ministers' Pension and Insurance Fund (1902).—To assist Ministers to make provision for their old age and for their families after their death. 'Minister' does not include Lay Preacher or Lay Worker. The Fund is administered by a Board of twelve Managers, four of whom are Ministers. The income of the Fund, in the first instance, is employed in assisting Ministers to pay the premiums on benefit policies effected by them with the Equitable Life Assurance Society. After the Managers have made provision for paying their proportion of such premiums, they may employ the balance, if any, of the income for that year in assisting any Minister, not insured as above, and still in active service, to make provision for his old age, and for his family after his death, in such manner as they may think best. The Philip Holt Fund, administered by the Board, is to be applied at the discretion of the Managers, as an addition to its capital, or in aid of Ministers in active service, or both. It now gives assistance in suitable cases towards insurance for Children's Education and in special cases. The number of beneficiary members on the books is now 134, of whom eleven are in receipt of pensions in the ordinary course, six are insurances assisted under special circumstances, and two are aged ministers to whom grants are made by way of annuity. The representatives of eight deceased beneficiary members have received £2,144 by way of insurance. Treasurer pro tem., Sir Edgar Chatfield-Clarke, 102 Bishopsgate, London, E.C. 2; Secretary, Rev. C. J. Street, Channing Hall, Surrey Street, Sheffield.

Ministers Benevolent Society (1852).—Objects: Affording relief to such Unitarian Christian Ministers in Great Britain as from age or infirmity may be prevented from discharging the public duties of their office, and for the aid of the widows and families of any such ministers as may be left without adequate means of support. Capital, £74,853. Secretary, E. E. Townley, 65 Temple Row, Birmingham.

Ministerial Fellowship (1899).—Objects: To assist in the support of Members who are temporarily without ministerial charge; and to afford counsel and brotherly aid to Members. The Fellowship is represented on the Ministerial Settlements Board, the Committee on the Supply of Ministers, and the Joint-Committee for the Revision of the List of Ministers in the Year Book. Number of Members on the roll, 235. Secretary, Rev. C. J. Street, Channing Hall, Surrey Street, Sheffield.

Missionary Conference (1860).—An Association for the promotion and encouragement of missionary labours for the spread of Liberal Christianity. Annual meeting in July on the Thursday following the U.H.M.C. Examinations. Secretary, Rev. W. T. Bushrod, The Manse, Park Street, Chorley.

Bolton District Ministers Meeting (1873).—Meetings are held monthly for discussion and social intercourse. Secretary (vacant).

Cardiganshire Unitarian Ministers Union (1886).—For mutual help and co-operation in promoting the interests of Unitarianism in Cardiganshire. Secretary, Rev. L. Williams, Allt-y-placa, Llanybyther.

Devon Ministers Conference (1892).—Meetings are held under the auspices of the Western Union. Secretary, Rev. F. Allen, 7 Linden Terrace, Newton Abbot.

East Lancashire Ministers Fraternal (1914).—Meetings are held monthly for discussion and social intercourse. Secretary, Rev. W. McMullan, Rawtenstall.

Exeter Assembly (1655; suspended 1660-1691).—The Assembly has borne the alternative titles of 'United Brethren of Devon and Cornwall' and 'West of England Presbyterian Divines.' Meets annually in June at Exeter. Scribe, Rev. W. H. Burgess, Plymouth.

Liverpool District Ministers Meeting (1885).—Meetings are held monthly for discussion and social intercourse. Secretary, Rev. C. P. Scott, University Settlement, Nile Street, Liverpool.

London Unitarian Ministers Meeting (1893).—Meetings held for open council upon matters relating to the work of the ministry and for the discussion of papers. Secretary, Rev. F. Summers, 4 Durley Road, Stamford Hill, London, N.16.

London and Westminster.—The Body of English Presbyterian Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster can trace its history back to 1601. Its present function is to present Addresses to the Sovereign on certain National occasions. Secretary, Rev. F. K. Freeston, Headland Cottage, Limpsfield, Surrey.

North Midland Ministers Association.—Conferences and meetings of ministers. Secretary, Rev. A. L. Smith, New Road, Belper.

Protestant Dissenting Ministers of Warwickshire and Neighbouring Counties Monthly Meeting (1782).—Dudley and Oldbury Double Lectures (1723-1866) incorporated with the Meeting. Religious services, conferences, public meetings. Secretary, Rev. I. Wrigley, Lye, Stourbridge.

Rochdale and District Fellowship of Unitarian Churches.—This body is a Federation of the Rochdale, Todmorden, Oldham, Middleton, and Heywood congregations for social intercourse and missionary enterprise. Secretary, F. Fitton, 67 Haslam Street, Rochdale.

Wessex Ministers Meeting (1897).—Meetings of ministers in Hants., the Isle of Wight, and Dorset. Convener, Rev. H. S. Solly, Southcote, Alexandra Road, Parkstone, Dorset.

Western Union Ministers Meeting (Northern District) (1908).—Meetings are held under the auspices of the Western Union. Secretary, Rev. C. E. Pike, 13 Taunton Road, Bridgwater.

Yorkshire Ministers Union (1906).—Quarterly meetings are held, at which papers are read and discussed. Secretary, Rev. J. M. Bass, Seedfield, Alverthorpe, Wakefield.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

'The National Conference of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing or Kindred Congregations' had its origin in the example set by the Unitarians of the United States of America, who had organized a 'National Conference of Unitarian and other Christian Churches' in 1865. At a Council Meeting of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, held 19 January, 1881, it was resolved:—'That the Executive Committee be requested to consider the possibility and desirableness of holding a Unitarian Conference in England, and to ascertain the feeling of the larger Congregations, and report to the next meeting of the Council.' On 24 June, 1881, a Committee was formed to make arrangements for a meeting of ministers and laymen in some central district for Religious Fellowship and Conference. Beginning with Liverpool, twelve triennial meetings have been held, 1882-1915.

Triennial Meetings.—(1) Liverpool, 1882; (2) Birmingham, 1885; (3) Leeds, 1888; (4) London, 1891; (5) Manchester, 1894; (6) Sheffield, 1897; (7) Leicester, 1900; (8) Liverpool, 1903; (9) Oxford, 1906; (10) Bolton, 1909; (11) Birmingham, 1912; (12) London, 1915.

Ministerial Settlements Board.—When requested by Congregations, the Board undertakes to recommend for vacant Pulpits Ministers whom it considers the most suitable. Secretary, Rev. James Harwood.

Reading Scheme for Lay Workers.—A course of Reading extending over three years, has been prepared by a Committee of the National Conference, for Lay Workers. It embraces the study of the Old and New Testaments, Church History, the Philosophy of Religion, and Ministerial and Sunday School Work. A copy of the revised prospectus will be supplied on application to Rev. J. Harwood.

INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS

'The International Council of Unitarian and other Liberal Religious Thinkers and Workers' was organized at Boston, U.S.A., 25 May, 1900. In 1910 its title was changed to 'The International Congress of Free Christians and other Religious Liberals' (in French, 'Congrès International des Chrétiens libéraux et d'autres libre-croyants,' and in German, 'Welt-Kongress für freies Christentum und religiösen Fortschritt'). The purpose of the Congress is 'to open communication with those in all lands who are striving to unite pure religion and perfect liberty, and to increase fellowship and co-operation among them.' It seeks to bring into closer union for exchange of ideas, mutual service, and the promotion of their common aims the historic liberal churches, the liberal elements in all churches, scattered liberal congregations, and isolated workers for religious freedom and progress in many lands.

Meetings of the International Congress were held in London (1901), Amsterdam (1903), Geneva (1905), Boston, U.S.A. (1907), Berlin (1910), and Paris (1913). It was intended to hold meetings of the International Congress in London in 1916, but the great War made this impossible. Secretary, Rev. C. W. Wendte, D.D., 165 Hunnewell Avenue, Newton, Mass., U.S.A.

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

The American Unitarian Association was organized 25 May, 1825. Its object is 'to diffuse the knowledge and promote the interests of pure Christianity.' Offices and Book Rooms, 25 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. President, Rev. Samuel A. Eliot, D.D.; Secretary, Rev. Louis C. Cornish; Treasurer, Henry M. Williams. There are also Unitarian Book Rooms at Chicago, 105 South Dearborn Street; New York, 104 East 20th Street; San Francisco, 376 Sutter Street. The General Conference of Unitarian and other Christian Churches held its first meeting in 1865. It is simply a 'Conference' It 'adopts the existing organizations of the Unitarian body as the instruments of its activity, and confines itself to recommending to them such undertakings and methods as it judges to be in the heart of its constituency.' The Unitarian Association is 'the executive arm of the Unitarian body, and the working missionary organization of the Unitarian churches in America.'

Canadian Unitarian Association (1913).—President, J. S. N. Dougall, Montreal; Chairman of Executive, W. P. Hinton, Winnipeg; Treasurer, E. J. Ransom, Winnipeg; Secretary, Rev. Horace Westwood, D.D., Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.

LIBERAL RELIGIOUS MOVEMENTS ABROAD

Outside the United States of America, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, and Hungary, Liberal religious movements seldom employ the Unitarian name; but in different parts of the world there are several congregations and many individuals in substantial agreement with Unitarians. The information given in the Year Book for 1914 respecting Liberal religion in Foreign Countries required careful revision; but the prevalence of the War made revision practically impossible. It is, therefore, deemed best for the present to omit the pages altogether from the Year Book.

EDUCATION OF MINISTERS

MANCHESTER COLLEGE, OXFORD.—Founded at Manchester, 22 February, 1786 (though clearly tracing its ancestry to the earliest Nonconformist Academy, opened by Richard Frankland, one of the ejected clergy, in the year 1670); removed to York in 1803; restored to Manchester in 1840; transferred to London in 1853; removed to Oxford in 1889; New Buildings, Mansfield Road, Oxford, opened October, 1893.

College Studies.—The Curriculum of the College is designed both for Students for the Ministry of Religion and for others who wish to obtain a special knowledge of theological and philosophical subjects. The full course, provided for 'Regular Students,' extends over three years; but Students desiring to avail themselves of only a portion of it may, at the discretion of the Committee, be admitted for shorter periods, under the name of 'Special Students.'

Teaching Staff.—Principal and Professor of Philosophy—Rev. L. P. JACKS, M.A., LL.D., D.Litt.; Rev. HENRY GOW, B.A.—New Testament and Early Christian History; The Work of the Ministry; Rev. D. C. SIMPSON, M.A.—Old Testament and Hebrew.

UNITARIAN HOME MISSIONARY COLLEGE.—Established under the title of the Unitarian Home Missionary Board in 1854; altered in 1889 to Unitarian Home Missionary College. The College adheres to the principle of freely imparting theological knowledge, without insisting on the adoption of particular theological doctrines. In the year 1904 the College celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its foundation, and in commemoration of this event a Memorial Fund of £20,000 was raised to provide Collegiate and Residential buildings at Summerville, Victoria Park, Manchester. A residence for the Warden and twelve students has been provided. The building was opened 4 October, 1905.

Collegiate Course.—The Collegiate Course covers five years: an Arts Curriculum of two years, and a Theological Curriculum of three years. A shorter course may be taken in exceptional cases.

Admission of Students.—Students may be admitted to the Collegiate Course after having attained the age of eighteen years; and to the Theological Curriculum (a) After having completed the Arts Curriculum; or, (b) After having obtained a degree; or, (c) After having attained the age of 25 years, and shown special aptitude for the work of the ministry.

Scholarships.—The Tate Scholarship is of the annual value of £70 and may be held for one, two, or three years. The Gaskell Scholarship is of the annual value of £70. The tenure of the Scholarship is for one year. The Durning-Smith Scholarship is of the annual value of £90. Its purpose is to enable promising students to take a degree at the Victoria University, and it is tenable for one year. The Sharpe Hungarian Scholarship for Hungarian Students was founded in 1911 by the late Miss Emily Sharpe.

Teaching Staff.—Principal—Rev. S. H. MELLONE, M.A., D.Sc.; Tutor and Warden—Rev. H. McLACHLAN, M.A., B.D.; Visitors—Rev. PHILEMON MOORE, B.A., and Rev. W. G. TARRANT, B.A.

PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, CARMARTHEN.—This College is the continuation of the Academy founded by the Rev. Samuel Jones, M.A., some time fellow of Jesus College, Oxford, one of the Two Thousand ejected Ministers of 1662; and is supported and governed by the Presbyterian Board, London, founded in 1689. It is endowed in part by the Will of Dr. Daniel Williams (1644-1715), by the Jackson Trustees, and the Berman Trustees. The College exists for the purpose of educating young men for the Christian ministry among Protestant Nonconformists, and is open to Students of all Denominations without any theological test.

Course of Study.—The course of study extends over three years, and is now mainly Theological, being adapted to the requirements for the B.D. degree of the University of Wales.

Scholarships.—Scholarships are offered by the Presbyterian Board, various bodies of Trustees, and private donors. Graduate Students preparing for the B.D. Examinations of the University of Wales are eligible for Scholarships of £40 a year, offered by Dr. Williams' Trustees, the Berman Trustees, the Hibbert Trustees, and the Managers of the Presbyterian Fund, and tenable at the College for three years, and Undergraduate Students pursuing an approved course of studies in Arts at a University College in preparation for the B.D. course at Carmarthen are also eligible for Scholarships of the same value. Applications should reach the Secretary before the end of June.

Van and Open Air Mission.—The Unitarian Van Mission movement was started (1905) under the auspices of the Missionary Conference, with the Rev. T. P. Spedding as organizer. The work was transferred (1907) to the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, under the general superintendence of Mr. Spedding, who was appointed Missionary Agent of the Association. The object of the Van Mission is the spread of a knowledge of the principles and religious faith of Unitarians among people who are for the most part outside the churches. The outbreak of War (August, 1914) led to the suspension of Van Mission work. The visitation of the Home Military Camps by Mr. Spedding has taken the place of the Van Mission during the War.

Welsh Unitarian Students Education Fund.—Object: To assist in the education of deserving young men who intend entering the Unitarian ministry. Secretary, W. S. Jones, Fronheulog, Penparke, Aberystwyth.

LEGAL INFORMATION

Births, Registration.—Parents are required to register the birth of their children at the Registrar's office for the district in which they reside, within six weeks. Penalty of 40s. for default. There is no charge for such registration.

Deaths, Registration.—Deaths must be registered within five days. The nearest relative present at the death or during the last illness is the responsible person, or should there be no relative present, then the occupier of the house, or the person who causes the body to be buried. Penalty for default, 40s. The doctor's certificate must be produced to the Registrar at the time of registration; and the Registrar's certificate to the officiating minister at the interment.

Registration of Chapels.—All places of worship should be registered. Registration is effected by giving a certificate in writing that the Chapel is used for worship to the Superintendent-Registrar of the District on a form which he will supply on application. The fee on registration is 2s. 6d., and a certified copy of the Registrar-General's certificate of the registration can be obtained for a further payment of 2s. 6d. Registered places of worship are exempt from the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Acts. When a place of worship is rebuilt, either on the same or another site, the old certificate of registration must be cancelled and the place re-registered.

Registration for Marriages.—A place of worship must, before marriages can legally be celebrated therein, in addition to being registered as above mentioned, be separately registered for the performance of marriages. Before registering a place for marriages, the Superintendent-Registrar of the District must be satisfied by certificate that the building has been used for worship for one year previous to the application. A fee of £3 is payable, and the Registration is advertised in the London Gazette and in a local newspaper. When a chapel ceases to be used for worship or is rebuilt, the Certificate is cancelled, and in that case it requires to be renewed if worship is resumed. When a congregation has removed from one chapel to another, and the old building has ceased to be used as a place of public worship, the Certificate of the old chapel may be cancelled, and the new building registered for the solemnization of marriages, without waiting for a year to elapse. All necessary forms and information will be supplied by the Superintendent-Registrar of the District.

Marriages : England and Wales.—Marriages may be solemnized in any registered building, or in a district registry office either by Certificate or by Licence. If by Certificate, notice (accompanied with fee of 1s. for entry in 'Marriage Notice Book') must be given by one of the parties, if both live in one district, to the Superintendent-Registrar, on form furnished for purpose, containing solemn declaration of absence of impediment to intended marriage, certifying that one of the parties has dwelt at least seven days in district, and must be signed in presence of Registrar or deputy; but if parties live in different districts, notices must be sent to respective Superintendent-Registrars. Twenty-one clear days after entry of notice the Certificate (for which 1s. must be paid) will be granted on application.

If by licence, though both parties do not dwell in same district, only one need give notice, certifying that he or she has resided at least fifteen days in district, though marriage may be held in district of either party. Both parties, however, must be in England at the time of notice, though only one clear day is required (unless marriage take place in Ireland with some one there, when seven days are required) between notice and granting of licence. Cost of Licence, £2 2s.

If usual 'place of worship' at which ceremony is desired, be out of district of either's dwelling, by inserting words:—'Such building being usual place of worship of said——, and situate not more than two miles beyond limits of district of——,' Certificate will be granted accordingly.

The marriage must take place in registered building specified in Certificate, with open doors, between the hours of eight in the morning and three in the afternoon, within three calendar months from day of entry of notice, in presence of Registrar (or his deputy, or, if the Marriage Act of 1898 has been adopted, in the presence of the Authorized Person) and two or more credible witnesses besides minister, if any. At some part of ceremony the words must be said:—'I do solemnly declare that I know not of any lawful impediment why I—— may not be joined in matrimony to——'; and each must say to other: 'I call upon these persons here present to witness that I—— do take thee—— to be my lawful wedded wife (or husband)'; without which it is not a marriage.

Registrar's fee for attending marriage by Certificate, 5s.; by Licence, 10s.; for Copy of Certificate, 2s. 6d., and stamp 1d.

By the Marriage Act, 1898 (61 & 62 Vic. c. 58), marriage may be solemnized in the registered building named in the Superintendent's Certificate without the presence of any Registrar, but in the presence of such duly Authorized Person as mentioned in the Statute. The Statute provides for the notices and forms required to be given or complied with and the registers to be kept.

Marriage with a Deceased Wife's Sister was legalized by Act of Parliament, August, 1907.

Marriages : Ireland.—Marriages according to the form and discipline of the Presbyterian Church may be celebrated—(1) By special licence; (2) By licence; or (3) After publication of banns.

(1) In the first case both parties must be members of the same Church as the Moderator who grants the Special Licence.

(2) Ordinary Licences can be granted when only one of the parties is a Presbyterian. Each Presbytery is authorized to appoint, subject to the approval of the Lord Lieutenant, ministers to issue licences for marriage in Meeting Houses duly certified.

Anyone wishing to obtain a Licence must, seven days before the licence shall be delivered to him or her, produce to the licensing minister a certificate from the minister of the congregation of which he or she shall be a member and has been a member for at least one calendar month preceding.

(3) When both parties are Presbyterians, marriages may be celebrated after the banns have been proclaimed for three Sundays in the Presbyterian meeting-houses attended by each of the parties.

Marriages : Scotland.—The ceremony can be performed by the minister of any denomination, in any place, at any time, with or without any particular form. The law has been amended so as to put an end, as far as possible, to what were known as 'irregular' marriages. Legal notice must now be given to the Registrar of the parish or district, the names of the contracting parties being exhibited for seven days on the notice board outside the office of the Registrar in whose district the parties have resided for at least fifteen days immediately preceding. At the expiration of the period named a Certificate will be granted, and on this the marriage may take place either in a church or elsewhere. Any person who has resided for at least twenty-one days in Scotland may be married by going to the Registrar's office in the district in which he or she may reside, accompanied by two witnesses who can certify as to the term of residence, and exchanging written contract with the other party, afterwards proceeding to the County Sheriff's chambers to have the Marriage Registered.

Burial Act, 1880.—Wherever there is a Cemetery there is no difficulty in the way of a Nonconformist minister conducting a funeral service. The Act of Parliament of 1890 authorizes any person responsible for the burial of a body to give forty-eight hours notice to the incumbent of the parish in which the death took place, or in his absence to his deputy, that it is intended that the body shall be buried in the churchyard of the parish without the Church of England service. The Act allowed a like notice to be given to the chaplain of a parochial cemetery if a burial was intended to be made there; but the Burial Act, 1900 (63 & 64 Vic. c. 15, s. 8) requires that in the last-mentioned case the notice shall be given at such time and to such person as the burial authority directs. It is therefore necessary in that case to inquire at the office of the cemetery, and to give such notice as the rules of the cemetery prescribe.

In the case of burials in churchyards the form of notice is specified in the Act of 1880, and the requirements are as follows:—

The Notice must be in writing; must be endorsed on the outside 'Notice of Burial'; must be signed with the name and address of the person giving it, and be in the form, or to the effect, following:—

I, _____, of _____, being the relative [or friend, or legal representative, as the case may be, describing the relation, if a relative] having the charge of, or being responsible for, the burial of A. B., of _____, who died at _____, in the parish of _____, on the _____ day of _____, do hereby give you notice that it is intended by me that the body of the said A. B. shall be buried within the [here describe the churchyard or graveyard in which the body is to be buried] on the _____ day of _____, at the hour of _____, without the performance in the manner prescribed by law of the service for the burial of the dead according to the rites of the Church of England; and I give this notice pursuant to the Burial Laws Amendment Act, 1880.

To the Rector [or as the case may be] of _____ NOTE.—While it is desirable to keep to this form, the person receiving it will not be at liberty to object to its sufficiency, because the exact words are not used; the Act only requiring that the notice shall be in the form, 'or to the effect,' of the above.

In the case of a churchyard, the notice is to be left at the house of the clergyman, or in his absence, of the clergyman in charge of the parish, or of any person appointed to receive such notices. It is not necessary that the clergyman should consent to a burial under the Act. He can object only to the time proposed, and do that only in certain cases. Unless it be otherwise mutually arranged, burials must be between 10 and 6 o'clock from April 1st to October 1st, and between 10 and 3 from October 1st to April 1st.

A burial may take place either without 'any religious service' or 'with such Christian and orderly religious service' at the grave as the person responsible for the burial may think fit, and 'any person or persons'—whether ministers or laymen—who may be invited or authorized, may conduct such service, or take part in any religious act thereat. The words 'Christian service' include 'every religious service used by any church, denomination, or person, professing to be Christian.'

The person having charge of a burial under the Act must, either on the same day or the day after, send to the incumbent or his representative—or, in the case of a Cemetery, to the clerk—a certificate of the burial in prescribed form.

I, _____, of _____, the person having the charge of [or, being responsible for] the burial of the deceased, do hereby certify that on the _____ day of _____, 191____, _____, aged _____, was buried in the churchyard [or graveyard] of the parish [or district] of _____

To the Rector [or as the case may be] of _____

The Act of 1880 does not entitle anyone to be buried in any place in which he would have no right to be buried if the Act had not passed. Neither does it affect previously existing regulations or authority in regard to the position of graves, inscriptions on gravestones, etc.

Burial Act, 1900.—This Act modifies the Act of 1880 in the case of the consecrated parts of parochial cemeteries. The Act does not deal with churchyards. In future, Burial Boards 'may, if they think fit,' apply to have a portion of the cemetery consecrated; formerly they were compelled to have a portion consecrated. Burial Boards are no longer compelled to erect two cemetery chapels, one for Anglicans and one for Nonconformists. They may erect any chapel 'they may consider necessary'; but any chapel so erected 'shall not be consecrated, or reserved for the exclusive use of any denomination.' The payment of fees to an incumbent of a parish will no longer be required 'except for services rendered by him.' In future, when a Nonconformist minister officiates in the consecrated part of a parochial cemetery, he, and not the clergyman, will receive the fee. These provisions apply to cemeteries opened after the passing of the Act. In the case of cemeteries already existing the old fees were continued for fifteen years, that is until 1915.

Cremation.—This is regulated by the Cremation Act, 1902, and the Regulations made by the Home Secretary in pursuance of that Act.

Charitable Trusts.—The Acts relating to Charitable Trusts give the Charity Commissioners very extensive jurisdiction over all charitable trusts (except certain exempted charities), and empower the Commissioners to inquire into the management of charities, to oblige their trustees to render accounts, to advise such trustees on the administration of the trusts, to authorize or direct legal proceedings to be taken, to authorize the granting of leases and making of improvements, and raising of money by mortgage, to authorize trustees to remove schoolmasters and other officers, to authorize the sale, exchange, or partitions of lands, to remove and appoint trustees, and to make new schemes for the administration of charities. Among the charities exempted from the operations of these Acts are any buildings registered as places of meeting for religious worship with the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, and bona fide used as places of meeting for religious worship. Exempted charities can, by application under certain sections of one of the Acts, have the benefits of the Acts extended to them.

Dissenters' Chapels Act, 1844.—It is under this Act (7 & 8 Vic. c. 45), that many of the old Presbyterian Chapels are secured to the Unitarians. The Act provides in substance that where there is no express statement in the deed of foundation as to the particular doctrines for which a chapel was to be employed, twenty-five years' usage shall be conclusive evidence of the legality of the doctrines.

Executors and their Duties.—Immediately on the death of a testator his personal property passes to his executors to be distributed (after the payment of his funeral expenses and debts) in the manner directed by the will. The real property also (except land of copyhold tenure or customary freehold) vests in the executors, who hold it as trustees for the persons beneficially entitled thereto, subject to a liability on account of the testator's debts, should the personal property which he leaves prove insufficient to pay them. They must take out a probate of the will, either personally or through a solicitor, either at Somerset House or at the Registry of the district in which the testator resided. The original will is then deposited in one of the registries of the Court, and the executors obtain a copy of it certified under the seal of the Probate Division. Estate duty is payable upon the principal value of all property, real or personal, settled or not settled, which passes on a death.

National Health Insurance Act, 1911.—By decision of the Commissioners (August, 1912), Unitarian Ministers are not required to be insured under the National Health Insurance Act.

Oaths Act, 1888.—This Act enacts that every person upon objecting to being sworn, and stating, as the ground of such objection, either that he has no religious belief, or that the taking of an oath is contrary to his religious belief, shall be permitted to make his solemn affirmation instead of taking an oath, in all places and for all purposes where an oath is or shall be required by law, which affirmation shall be of the same force and effect as if he had taken the oath. Every such affirmation shall be as follows:—‘I, A. B., do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare and affirm,’ and then proceed with the words of the oath prescribed by law, omitting any words of imprecation or calling to witness. If any person to whom an oath is administered desires to swear with uplifted hand in the form and manner in which an oath is usually administered in Scotland, he shall be permitted to do so, and the oath shall be administered to him in such form and manner without further question. By the Act of 1909, an alteration in the manner of administering oaths is authorized.

Rates Exemption from.—It is enacted by 3 & 4 William IV. c. 30, that ‘no person or persons shall be rated, or shall be liable to be rated to, or to pay any church or poor rates or cesses for, or in respect of, any churches, district churches, chapels, meeting-houses, or premises, or such part thereof, as shall be exclusively appropriated to public religious worship, and which shall be’ registered under 18 & 19 Vic. c. 81, as a place of meeting for religious worship. ' Provided always that no person or persons shall be hereby exempted from any such rates or cesses, for or in respect of, any parts of such churches, district churches, chapels, meeting-houses, or other premises which are not so exclusively appropriated, and from which parts not so exclusively appropriated, such person or persons shall receive any rent or rents or shall derive profit or advantage.' Section 2 proceeds, ' Provided always that no person or persons shall be liable to any such rates or cesses because the said churches, district churches, chapels, meeting-houses, or other premises, or any vestry-rooms belonging thereto or any part thereof, may be used for Sunday or infant schools, or for the charitable education of the poor.' It is difficult to say what user of part of a chapel or school premises would bring the case within the exception from the exemption.

Workmen's Compensation Act, 1907.—It is desirable to insure the minister (if in receipt of a salary under £250 per annum); the chapel-keeper, and where there is an understanding (written or otherwise) that the wife or any member of the family helps, the helper also; any charwoman or other person employed regularly though for only and perhaps a part of a day a week; the grave-digger, if any; the organist and blower and members of the choir, if paid; also any Bible-women or nurses. Where the chapel-keeper regularly employs any charwoman or other person to help, an insurance should be taken out for the benefit of the chapel-keeper in respect of the persons helping, as he would probably be liable under the Act.

Recent Statutes.—The following Acts of Parliament may be usefully consulted on the subjects named: 18 & 19 Vic. c. 81, Places of Religious Worship Registration Act; 55 & 56 Vic. c. 11, Mortmain and Charitable Uses Act Amendment; c. 32; 56 & 57 Vic. c. 53, Trustee Act, 1893; 57 & 58 Vic. c. 35, Charitable Trusts (Places of Religious Worship Amendment Act, 1894); 60 & 61 Vic. c. 5, Marriage Act, 1898; 62 & 63 Vic. c. 32, Burial Act, 1900, c. 15; Factory and Workshops Act, 1901, c. 22; Cremation Act, 1902, c. 8; Marriage Legalization Act, 1903, c. 26; Elementary Education Amendment Act, 1903, c. 13; Employment of Children Act, 1903, c. 45; Shop Hours Act, 1904, c. 31; Prevention of Cruelty to Children Act, 1904, c. 15; Education (Provision of Meals Act), 1906, 6 Ed. APPOINTMENT OF NEW TRUSTEES

This may be made under the Act of 1850 (13 & 14 Vic. c. 28), generally known as Sir Morton Peto's Act, and the Acts of 1869 and 1890 extending the same, now together called the 'Trustees Appointment Acts, 1850 to 1890,' or by the 'Trustee Act, 1893.' When there is an existing power of appointment, the appointment may be effected in the manner, and by the person appointed by the instrument creating the trust; if there is no existing power, or the appointment under the power be not made within twelve months, then recourse should be made to the above Acts, under which the appointment can be made, in the case of Peto's Act, by resolution of the congregation, society, or body of persons interested therein as by the Act provided, or, in the case of the Trustee Act, 1893, by writing by the persons therein mentioned, the trust property in the former case vesting in the new trustees by virtue of the appointment alone, and, in the latter case, by virtue of a declaration forming part of the Deed.

If none of these modes of appointment should be feasible, resort should be had to the powers of the Charity Commissioners.

No form of appointment is prescribed by the Trustee Act, 1893, but in Sir Morton Peto's Act a form is given for cases under that Act only, and is as follows :—

TRUST DEEDS OF CHURCHES

The greater number of Unitarian Churches possess what are known as 'Open Trust Deeds.' The land, buildings, and endowments (if any) are held in Trust for the worship of God, and for the religious, moral, or intellectual improvement of the Congregation for the time being worshipping there, and for its general benevolent objects.

In drafting a New Trust Deed care should be taken to state clearly that if any question should at any time arise as to the purposes for which the said Church or Chapel may lawfully be used, the widest meaning should be attached to the trust aforesaid, so that neither by reference to the actual or supposed opinions of the founders, nor otherwise, shall any restriction be imposed on the liberty of the congregation for the time being to change its opinions with regard to religious doctrines or modes of regulating worship. The Deed should be settled by a solicitor, who will consider questions of consideration, enrolment, etc.

The British and Foreign Unitarian Association has a Special Subcommittee for giving advice to Congregations, respecting the Civil Rights of Unitarians, Chapel Trust Deeds, Endowments, etc., and the British and Foreign Unitarian Association (Incorporated) may be appointed a Trustee. Applications should be addressed to the Secretary, Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C.2. The Committee will expect the congregations to defray the cost of any legal charges. The Solicitor of the Association is Howard Young, Esq., LL.B., 29 Mark Lane, London, E.C.3.

MINISTERIAL CHANGES, 1917

The following changes in the Settlement of Ministers have occurred, or are announced, since the issue of the Year Book, December, 1916 :— R. H. U. Bloor to Brighton from Exeter ; J. UNITARIAN MINISTERS DECEASED

December, 1916—November, 1917

Clarke.—The Rev. Hubert Clarke died at Godalming, 22 January, 1917, aged 63. Mr. Clarke was educated at Manchester New College, London, 1872-79. He was minister at Stockton-on-Tees, 1880-82, Darwen, 1886-88; assistant at Halifax, 1889-92, and at Altrincham, 1892-93. In 1894 he settled as minister at Meadow Chapel, Godalming, where he remained until his death.

Elliot.—The Rev. Thomas Elliot died at Southend-on-Sea, 18 February, 1917, aged 72. Mr. Elliot was a lay preacher among the Congregationalists in Coventry for several years. Removing to London in 1890, a few years later he joined the Highgate Unitarian Church, and frequently occupied the pulpit as a lay preacher. In 1902 he published a volume of sermons Gleanings from a Lay Preacher's Ministry. On retiring from business he lived at Southend, and took charge of the Unitarian Church there in Darnley Road from 1909. In 1913 he resigned his ministry owing to ill health.

Hawkes.—The Rev. Henry Warburton Hawkes died [at Bootle, Liverpool, 8 April, 1917, aged 73. Mr. Hawkes was born at Kendal, and began his business career in Liverpool. Relinquishing his business he became the first minister of the North End Domestic Mission in Bond Street, Liverpool, 1871-87. Ill health led him to accept an invitation to assist in the work of an American Unitarian Mission in Japan. In 1891 after his return to England he became the first minister of the Bootle Free Church, from which he retired in 1900. After a period of rest, Mr. Hawkes with the aid of the Liverpool District Missionary Association founded the Unitarian Church at West Kirby, of which he became the first minister in 1906. In 1913 on his returning to Bootle he became Minister Emeritus of the congregation there. Mr. Hawkes published The Man of Nazareth, The Coming of Christ, Simple Talks about Religion, Gathered Fragments from Many Years, he also wrote several Hymns, and Plays for Young People.

Jones.—The Rev. Thomas Lloyd Jones died in Liverpool, 18 October, 1917, aged 70. Mr. Jones was born at Felinfach in the Vale of Aeron, he was educated at the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen, 1869-71, he studied for the ministry at Manchester New College, London, 1871-77, and began his ministry at Hale, 1878-82. He became Missionary of the Liverpool Domestic Mission to the Poor in 1883, then carried on in Beaufort Street, and which was moved in 1892 to Mill Street, where loved and respected by all he remained until his death.

Price.—The Rev. Douglas Price died at Brisbane, Queensland, Australia, 16 December, 1916. Mr. Price was educated for the Anglican ministry at University College, Durham, 1896-98, graduating M.A., L.Th., he was appointed curate at Leicester in 1898 and rector of All Saints' Church in Brisbane in 1903. Developing liberal theological views his friends at Brisbane formed a Free Church, adopting the name 'Progressive Christians,' and Mr. Price became their minister in 1911.

Russell.—The Rev. Edward Stanley Russell, of Presteign, was killed in Action, 6 November, 1917, aged 35. Mr. Russell was educated at Regent's Park College, 1903-5; University College, 1904-7; and Manchester College, Oxford, 1907-10; graduating B.A. at London University. He was for three years, 1910-13, assistant and co-minister at Ullet Road Church, Liverpool. In September, 1914, he enlisted in the Liverpool Regiment, and soon became corporal and then sergeant. In February, 1915, he received a Commission in the Herefordshire Regiment, with which he landed at Suvla Bay in August, 1915. Later he was invalided home, and in the Spring of 1916, he went to another front, where he won the Military Cross.

Tavener.—The Rev. Lucking Taverne died at Aberdeen, 20 October, 1917, aged 55. He was educated at the Metropolitan Baptist College, London, 1879-81. He became minister of the Brotherhood Church at Walthamstow, 1894-97. In 1897, having meanwhile joined the Unitarian body, he was appointed minister at Stepney Green Chapel, London. Afterwards he was minister at Ipswich, 1901-8; Lydgate, 1908-11; and from 1911 until his death at Aberdeen. Mr. Tavener frequently lectured on the life and art of Mr. G. F. Watts, and other great painters; he was the author of Lessons from the Painters published in 1913 by the Sunday School Association.

Thomas.—The Rev. Emmanuel Lewis Henshaw Thomas died in Manchester, 6 July, 1917, aged 58. Mr. Thomas was born in Colombo, Ceylon, and before coming to England lived in Bangalore, India. In 1879 he entered as a student for the ministry at the Unitarian Home Missionary Board (now College), Manchester, and Owens College. Matriculating at the London University, he entered Manchester New College, London, in 1882, obtaining the degree of B.A. at London University in 1885. Gaining a Hibbert Scholarship, he spent a year in Paris, and a year in Berlin. Mr. Thomas settled as minister at the Bond Street Domestic Mission in Liverpool, 1890-93; Scarborough, 1893-1900; Dean Row and Styal, 1900-12, from 1903 to 1911 acting as Clerical Secretary to the Unitarian Home Missionary College. He began his ministry at Cross Street Chapel, Manchester, in 1912, which continued till his decease. Mr. Thomas was the author of Hortulus Pastoris (a volume of poems), and the translator of M. Etienne Giran's Jesus of Nazareth, published by the Sunday School Association.

Thomas.—The Rev. Halliwell Thomas died at Matlock, 19 May, 1917, aged 72. Mr. Thomas was born near Halifax. He was educated at the Home Missionary Board (now College), 1867-70, and became assistant minister at Bridport, 1870-72. He was minister at Ballymena, 1872-75, Failsworth, Manchester, 1875-85, Stockton-on Tees, 1885-87, Doncaster, 1887-1910, when he retired from the active ministry.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

The Sunday School Association, founded in 1833, has its head-quarters at Essex Hall, London. Its objects are (a) the promotion generally of Sunday School Education, and (b) the publication of suitable religious Books for young people. The qualification for individual Membership is an annual subscription of not less than 5s., or a life donation of not less than £5. Individuals, Schools, or Societies, subscribing a guinea a year, or upwards, are entitled to a copy of every new book printed and published by the Association during the year for which the subscription is paid. District and kindred Societies, whose objects are similar to those of the Association, which contribute one guinea and upwards annually, are thereby deemed to be affiliated to it, and have the right of appointing a delegate to represent it on the Committee and at all General Meetings. Schools contributing 5s. and upwards annually are considered members, and have the right of sending a representative to all the General Meetings. Annual Meeting held in Whit-week.

Officers.—President, Mrs. W. BLAKE ODGERS; Treasurer, Mr. HAROLD WADE; Chairman of Committee, Mr. ION PRITCHARD; Secretaries, Mr. T. M. CHALMERS, M.A.; Rev. BERTRAM LISTER, M.A.

STRAND, LONDON, W.C. 2. 1918

BUSINESS ANNOUNCEMENT

Post Orders.—The publications of the Association are fixed at net prices, which does not include postage or carriage. A sufficient amount should be sent to cover this item.

Payment.—Cash is required in all cases to be sent with the order, unless the purchaser has a Ledger a/c with the Association.

If the exact amount to forward is not known, the approximate sum should be forwarded. A detailed statement will be sent with the goods, and any amount not required will be returned.

When the cash is not enclosed, a note of the cost will be sent to the purchaser, and the goods forwarded upon its receipt.

Discount.—A special discount of 15 per cent. is allowed to Subscribers and Subscribing Schools ordering not less than one dozen copies of the same book direct from Essex Hall.

Reward Books.—A carefully selected list of books suitable for Prizes will be sent post free upon request.

Books from other Publishers.—For the convenience of customers books are obtained to order from any London publisher.

Books on Approval.—Any volume in this catalogue will be sent on approval, if desired. Books not retained must be returned at the end of three days, in perfect condition. Carriage on any book exchanged must be paid both ways by the person ordering.

Sample Copies.—The Association will be pleased to forward Specimen copies of its books so that the selection of books may be made easier. If any particular class of books is wanted, this should be specified. The time allowed to make a selection is fourteen days, unless consent has been obtained beforehand for a longer period.

A Booking Fee of 1/- must be enclosed with each Application, but the Association will pay the carriage both ways.

The Committee hope that Applicants will return the books as quickly as possible, and take care that they are sent back in good condition.

They trust that the opportunity will be taken to show the copies to all the teachers and others interested.

The object of the Association is to supply Sunday schools and parents with text-books of moral and religious instruction at the smallest possible outlay, only a slight addition being made to the actual cost.

All Orders should be addressed to the Business Manager :—

Carpenter, J. Estlin, M.A., D.Litt., D.D.

LIFE IN PALESTINE WHEN JESUS LIVED. New revised and enlarged edition, with Indexes. Cloth 1/6 net.

The Schoolmaster in reviewing the first edition, says: 'It does not require to read more than half-a-dozen pages to feel that our attention is not likely to flag during the rest of the volume. The country, people, government, and religion are all discussed in turn—nothing hurried or curtailed, every sub-division given its due share, and the result is a whole upon which the author may fairly be congratulated.'

* * A Classified list will be found at the end of this Catalogue.

Cooke, Frances E.

THEOPHILUS LINDSEY AND HIS FRIENDS. Cloth 1/- net.

'The stories of Lindsey and his friend Dr. Priestley, which are combined in this little volume, are almost unknown to young people of the present day. Yet because of their faithfulness to duty and fearless search after truth, these men should be lasting examples for all time.'—Preface.

NOBLE WORKERS. Cloth 1/- net. Paper covers 6d. net.

Short sketches of lives of Dr. Chalmers, Mary Ware, Thomas Thrush, Michael Angelo Buonarroti, Frederick Christopher Perthes, Catherine Cappe, John Withers Dowson, Joseph Sturge, and William Lloyd Garrison.

STORY OF THEODORE PARKER. Cloth 1/- net. Paper, 6d. net.

'Although written for young people, there is much in this volume to attract those of maturer years, and teachers who are earnest in their work will find much to interest them in the career of Parker, himself a teacher, in whose heart the love of children was great to the overflow.'—Schoolmaster.

STORY OF WILLIAM ELLERY CHANNING. Cloth 1/- net.

Paper covers 6d. net.

'The story of Dr. Channing told for boys and girls, terse, plain, pointed and attractive, a book which is sure to find its way into many of our young folks' libraries, and should be omitted from no School Library.'—Unity.

THE STORY OF ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI. Cloth 1/- net. Paper covers 6d. net.

'Perhaps now, more than ever, Miss Cooke says in a brief introductory note, 'we need the kindling influence of great aims and lofty ideals, and it would surely be well for ourselves and for the world about us if we were to try to carry the spirit of St. Francis into our daily lives.'

THE STORY OF DOROTHEA LYNDE DIX. Cloth 1/- net. Paper covers 6d. net.

The New Age says:—'The story of the noble devotion and self-sacrifice of this brave, beautiful soul is told in a way that cannot fail to do anyone good who reads it. The magnificent work done for the poor and friendless lunatics by Dorothea Dix places her in the front rank of the world's latter-day saints.'

Davis, Valentine D., B.A.

THE EPISTLES OF ST. PAUL TO THE PHILIPPIANS AND TO PHILEMON. Explained and Illustrated. Cloth 1/- net.

'... Far more to our mind is the choice, careful, and thoughtful little book by Valentine D. Davis, B.A. Such a book as this is worth cart-loads of certain theological publications; it does great credit to the series and to its author.'—Christian World.

Dendy, John

SUCCESSFUL LIFE. A Series of Essays. Cloth 2/- net.

'These frank and well considered addresses would make a good foundation for a useful course of lessons. Apart from class work this is also an excellent book to put into the hands of a young man for his own study.'—Christian World.

* THE LARGER LIFE. A Way through Experience towards the Truth. Cloth 2/6 net.

The Challenge says:—'We do not know any book fuller than this of the kind of religion that a layman needs. . . . It is an excellent book.'

* * A Classified list will be found at the end of this Catalogue.

* HOME PRAYERS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE. 1/- net.

The Inquirer says : 'To write prayers for children of various ages, from infancy to adolescence, is not an easy task. It requires a wide range of sympathy, a certain delicacy of feeling and touch, combined with a simplicity which is free from childishness. That Mr. Tarrant has succeeded so well ought to ensure for his book a place in every home where there are children. It supplies a long-felt want.'

Tavener, Lucking

* LESSONS FROM THE PAINTERS. With 15 Illustrations.
Cloth 1/6 net.

During thirty years of ministry, including pulpit, platform, and class work, I have found the use of works of Art most valuable. At the annual meeting of the Sunday School Association, I ventured to urge its advantage to Sunday School teachers; and this little book is the outcome of that address. It is written in order to show how reproductions of pictures might be used to illustrate ideals and duties.—From Preface.

Thomas, A. Hermann, M.A.

THE EARLY CHURCH. Its Orders and Institutions. 2/6 net.

This little volume is a sequel to the manual entitled Christianity and the Roman Empire. Assuming the relations to the State described in that book, it endeavours to delineate in simple terms the complicated phases of the internal growth and organization of the Church.

Thornhill, Albert, M.A.

* HEROES OF FAITH: From Wiclif to Priestley. With 14 Illustrations. Cloth 1/6 net.

In writing this little book the author has been impelled by the conviction that our young people have only to learn the story of the lives of the great Heroes of Faith to be moved with the desire to emulate their noble examples in the field of daily duty.

THE
FOR 1919

ESSEX HALL, ESSEX STREET, STRAND, LONDON, W.C. 2.

PRINTED BY ELSOM AND CO.
MARKET PLACE, HULL.

PREFACE

THE YEAR BOOK for 1919 contains the names of 350 Ministers and 9 Lay Workers in Great Britain and Ireland, and 14 Ministers in the British Dominions across the seas. The alterations, additions, and omissions in the list of Ministers have been made on the recommendation of a small committee representing the Association, the Conference, and the Ministerial Fellowship. Ten Ministers have died ; four others, for various reasons, have been omitted.

The names of the following Ministers appear in the Year Book for the first time :—Alfred Owen Broadley (formerly a Bible Christian minister), Donald Beaton Fraser (formerly a Congregational minister), Harold Bernard Hannah (formerly a Baptist minister), Walter M. Long (educated, 1916-18, at M.C.O.), Hugh Volk Salmon (educated, 1915-18, at M.C.O.), Ernest Alfred Smith (educated, 1916-18, at M.C.O.), Charles William Townsend (formerly a Baptist minister).

The name of Charles T. Seymour Bullock, formerly in the Colonial list, has been transferred to the ordinary list of Ministers, as he is now in London ; the names of Henry James Adlard, of Ottawa, and D. H. Ferrell, of Montreal, have been inserted in the Colonial list.

Of the Ministers, 114 were educated at Manchester College : this number includes 13 students from the Unitarian Home Missionary College, and 5 from the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen ; 114 Ministers were educated at the Unitarian Home Missionary College, Manchester, and 23 at the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen ; 48 Ministers were educated at ' orthodox ' theological Colleges ; 3 were educated at Unitarian Colleges in America ; 14 Ministers have had a University or College education without special theological training ; 52 have had no College or University training.

252 Ministers and 9 Lay Workers are in charge of Congregations ; 8 are employed as tutors in our colleges, secretaries of associations, editors of papers, and district ministers ; 14 are engaged in work not connected with the denomination ; 10 Ministers are apparently open to accept ministerial appointments ; 66 Ministers have retired from active work.

The list of Congregations contains 369 places of worship ; 288 in England ; 38 in Ireland ; 35 in Wales ; 8 in Scotland. The Old Chapel at Bradwell has been reopened. Services at Atherstone and Marple have been discontinued.

In December, 1918, the following pulpits were vacant, or about to become vacant:—England—Accrington, Ansdell, Ashton-under-Lyne, Bradford (Broadway), Bury (Chesham), Ilford, London (Islington), Manchester (Cross Street and Moss Side), Middleton, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Newchurch, Newport, I.W., Park Lane (Wigan), Rawtenstall, Swinton. Wales—Pontypridd, Swansea. Ireland—Comber. About 50 congregations rely for the most part upon lay preachers.

The Essex Hall Hymnal is used by 187 congregations; 'Hymns of Praise and Prayer' by 15; 'Hymns for the Christian Church and Home' by 6. In Ireland 12 congregations use 'Hymns for Christian Worship'; in Wales 20 use 'Pearls of Praise.' The Berwick Hymnal is used by 15 congregations, the New Hymnal (Novello) by 79; nearly 30 congregations use selections more or less peculiar to themselves. Liturgies are used by 109 congregations.

Every care is taken to bring the information up to date—not always an easy task, as several ministers and secretaries do not take the trouble to return the Forms. Owing to the War, there has been some uncertainty in respect to the names and addresses of the secretaries of congregations. To the large number of correspondents who have promptly replied the Editor is most grateful: without their assistance the Year Book could not be prepared.

MINISTERS

The list contains the name and address, college, university degree, date of entering ministry, and congregations served by the following :—

(1) Ministers in charge of Unitarian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing Congregations in Great Britain and Ireland.

(2) Ministers, formerly settled with Congregations, now engaged as professors, tutors, missionaries, secretaries, etc.

(3) Ministers in charge of Unitarian Congregations in Australia, New Zealand, Canada, and South Africa.

(4) Ministers who have resigned their pastorates, or who have retired from active duty, but who have not withdrawn from the ministry. These names are printed in italic.

ADMISSION OF NAMES

(1) The name of any Minister regularly appointed by a Congregation or a Missionary Society to conduct religious services, and to take charge of the work of the Church or Society, is inserted in the list.

(2) He is described as a 'Minister,' if he (a) holds the certificate of having completed the theological curriculum at Manchester College, Oxford, the Unitarian Home Missionary College, Manchester, the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen, or at Harvard or Meadville, U.S.A. ; or (b) has previously been in the ministry of another denomination, or educated for the ministry in another denomination, at home or abroad, and has (if required) satisfied an Advisory Committee respecting his character and general fitness ; or (c) having been a Lay Worker is certificated as a Minister.

Note.—Managers of Benevolent, Fellowship, Pension, Sustentation, and other Funds are under no obligation to admit a Minister to benefits simply because his name appears in the Year Book.

OMISSION OF NAMES

(1) On resigning his charge, any minister may withdraw his name from the list.

(2) On his becoming minister in another denomination, the name is omitted, unless a personal request is made for its retention.

(3) The names of ministers who have ceased to reside in the United Kingdom are omitted, but may on their personal application be included.

(4) The names are omitted of those who have withdrawn from the ministry to engage in secular pursuits, or who for five years have had no active connexion with our churches or work. This rule does not apply to those who are temporarily out of service, or to those who, having been in the regular ministry, have retired by reason of age or infirmity.

(5) The names of persons are omitted whose character and conduct have, in the opinion of an Advisory Committee, a District Society, or the joint Committee, unfitted them for continuing to hold the office of a minister.

CONGREGATIONS

The list contains the location, the date of foundation, the hours of service, the hymn book in use, the name and address of the Secretary, the name of the Minister, Missionary, or Lay Worker of :—

(a) All duly organized Unitarian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non Subscribing Congregations in Great Britain and Ireland.

(b) Pioneer movements holding regular meetings for worship.

(c) Places of worship closed at present, but not finally given up.

The date following the name and address of the congregation indicates the year in which it was founded, which is not necessarily the date of the existing building; when two or more dates are given, the last refers to the erection of the present building.

Under each Congregation the names of the present and the more recent Ministers are given. Those printed in italic are deceased.

Important to Congregations

As much injury has been done both to congregations and to the ministry by the appointment of unsuitable persons, congregations are advised to take no steps in respect to the selection or appointment of any Minister whose name does not appear in the Year Book.

ABBREVIATIONS

PIONEER PREACHERS

HOSTEL: Unity House, 23 Highbury Place, London, N. 5.

IN RESIDENCE, 1919

JOHN BEGG

J. P. ROSLING

J. HARRY SMITH

THE PIONEER PREACHERS' movement owes its inception to the Rev. R. J. Campbell, M.A., and was an outcome of the New Theology propaganda. When Mr. Campbell retired from the Presidency of the Liberal Christian League the movement was transferred to a new committee acting under the auspices of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association. The Pioneer Preachers are responsible for the missionary work and oversight of several churches in London and elsewhere. In May, 1914, a new Hostel was opened at 23 Highbury Place, London. The premises, including freehold site, alterations, and equipment, cost £1,400. Secretary and Superintendent, Rev. J. A. Pearson, 4 Ella Road, Crouch Hill, London, N. 8.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

The British and Foreign Unitarian Association was constituted in 1825. It arose out of the union of three Societies supported by Unitarians in all parts of the country :—(1) The Unitarian Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge and the Practice of Virtue, by the Distribution of Books, founded in 1791 ; (2) The Unitarian Fund, established in 1806, which may be regarded as the most important ; and (3) The Association for Protecting the Civil Rights of Unitarians, formed in 1819.

The Association is a national and international missionary organization. Its operations cover the British Isles, and Canada, Australia, New Zealand, India, Africa, and several European countries.

The Association assists in establishing and maintaining churches, especially in the early and difficult stages of their growth. It supports ministers, lecturers, and missionary preachers. It holds conferences and meetings in London and in different parts of the country.

The Association is the publication agency of the denomination. Books and pamphlets are issued dealing with the broader aspects of liberal religious thought and life, in addition to direct expositions of Unitarian Christianity. Publications intended for a wider public are issued under the name of 'The Lindsey Press' ; those of a denominational type with the imprint of the Association. Books are frequently presented to public libraries, ministers, and lay preachers. Thousands of Unitarian tracts are distributed, in response to applications from congregations, postal missions, and inquirers in all parts of the world.

The Association is supported by the subscriptions of individuals, collections from congregations, sales of publications, and income from investments. The serviceableness of the Association and the range of its operations are dependent upon the generosity of congregations and of individual Unitarians.

The Association was Incorporated, 28 July, 1915 ; and may now be appointed a Trustee of Chapels, Endowments, and other Funds.

Officers.—President : Mr. Richard D. Holt, M.P. ; Treasurer : Mr. G. W. Brown, B.A. ; Chairman of Committee : Mr. Ronald P. Jones, M.A. ; Secretary : Rev. W. Copeland Bowie.

Book Room and Office.—Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London. The Book Room is open Monday to Friday 9 to 5.30 ; Saturday 9 to 1.

MINISTERS' STIPEND AUGMENTATION FUNDS ENGLAND

Ministers' Stipend Augmentation Fund (1856).—Object: The encouragement of ministers of congregations in England assembling for the public worship of God, the members or ministers of which shall not be required to subscribe or assent to any articles of religious belief, or submit to any test of religious doctrine. The Fund is upwards of £50,000; annual subscriptions £150. Treasurer, Richard D. Holt, M.P., India Buildings, Liverpool. Applications for grants should be made in the month of April to the Secretary, B. P. Burroughs, 15 Sweeting Street, Liverpool.

Sustentation Fund for the Augmentation of Ministers' Stipends (1883).—Object: To aid in the maintenance of faithful and efficient ministers of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing or Kindred Congregations as regularly assemble for the public worship of God. In 1912 it was resolved to raise an additional Fund of £50,000 with the view of securing subject to certain conditions a minimum stipend to all accredited ministers of such congregations as aforesaid in England and Wales. Board of twenty-seven Managers, of whom twelve are elected by the contributors, six by the Board, six by the National Conference, and three by the British and Foreign Unitarian Association. Managers are elected for three years and are then eligible for re-election. The Board meets in June to consider applications for grants. Forms of application should be obtained from the Secretary during the month of March. The Fund consists of investments amounting to about £83,000 and annual subscriptions amounting to about £400. Secretary, Harold F. Pearson; Treasurer and Acting Secretary, Ronald P. Jones, 7 Stone Buildings, Lincoln's Inn, London, W.C.2.

IRELAND

Irish Sustentation Fund (1914).—A sum of £11,000 was raised by subscription and capitalized under the charge of lay trustees appointed by the General Synod of the Non-Subscribing Church of Ireland. The interest on such capital, together with congregational contributions at the fixed rate of five per cent per annum on the minister's stipend from all sources, exclusive of manse, is applied in augmenting the stipends of ministers. Secretary, H. Thomas, Strathfoyle, Hawthornden Road, Knock, Belfast.

Sustentation Fund (1871).—This Fund, which is connected with the ten congregations of the Remonstrant Synod of Ulster, supplies the place of the 'Regium Donum,' which granted annually £69 4s. 8d. to each minister. The Fund amounts to about £12,600, income £610 per annum. The proceeds are distributed amongst the ministers of the congregations which from 1872 have contributed a minimum of 4s. per stipend payer per annum to the Fund. Each minister receives at present £66 a year, if not still enjoying 'Regium Donum' or its equivalent. Treasurer, William McRobert, Ulster Bank, Belfast; Secretary, Rev. J. A. Kelly, The Glebe, Dunmurry, Co. Antrim.

Dublin Fund (1751).—This Fund, capital £600, is for the relief of ministers and their widows, and is administered in connexion with the Presbytery of Antrim. Treasurer, Rev. James Kennedy, Larne.

Dunbar Fund (1871).—This Fund consists of a sum of £2,000, conveyed by the late Miss Jane Dunbar, of Huntly, Banbridge, the interest on which to be applied for the benefit of not more than eight and not less than four struggling, necessitous, and deserving congregations in connexion with the Remonstrant Synod of Ulster. The Trustees of the First Presbyterian Congregation, Banbridge, administer the Fund. Treasurer, W. Lindsay, Ballydown, Banbridge.

SCOTLAND

McQuaker Fund (1889).—Bequest of nearly £30,000, by William McQuaker, of Glasgow, to the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, the interest to be applied in maintaining and diffusing the principles of Unitarian Christianity in Scotland by supplementing the salaries of ministers of non-self-supporting congregations who can show such an amount of congregational income as shall attest to the satisfaction of the Committee a living interest in the work; by contributing to the support of missionary preachers; by the distribution of tracts, controversial and practical, in a cheap and popular form; and by such other means as may seem advisable to the Committee of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association. Secretary, Rev. W. Copeland Bowie, Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C.2.

MINISTERS SOCIETIES AND MEETINGS

Ministers' Pension and Insurance Fund (1902).—To assist Ministers to make provision for their old age and for their families after their death. 'Minister' does not include Lay Preacher or Lay Worker. The Fund is administered by a Board of twelve Managers, four of whom are Ministers. The income of the Fund, in the first instance, is employed in assisting Ministers to pay the premiums on benefit policies effected by them with the Equitable Life Assurance Society. After the Managers have made provision for paying their proportion of such premiums, they may employ the balance of the income in assisting any Minister, not insured as above, and still in active service to make provision for his old age, and for his family after his death, in such manner as they may think best. The Philip Holt Fund, administered by the Board, is to be applied at the discretion of the Managers, as an addition to its capital, or in aid of Ministers in active service, or both. Among other useful application of its resources, it gives assistance in suitable cases towards insurance for Children's Education and in special cases. The number of beneficiary members on the books is 136, of whom eleven are in receipt of pensions in the ordinary course. The representatives of ten deceased beneficiary members have received £2,452 9s. 9d. by way of insurance. Treasurer, Sir Edgar Chatfield-Clarke, 102 Bishopsgate, London, E.C.2; Secretary, Rev. C. J. Street, Redhill, Tansley, Matlock.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

'The National Conference of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing or Kindred Congregations' had its origin in the example set by the Unitarians of the United States of America, who had organized a 'National Conference of Unitarian and other Christian Churches' in 1865. At a Council Meeting of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, held 19 January, 1881, it was resolved:—'That the Executive Committee be requested to consider the possibility and desirableness of holding a Unitarian Conference in England, and to ascertain the feeling of the larger Congregations, and report to the next meeting of the Council.' On 24 June, 1881, a Committee was formed to make arrangements for a meeting of ministers and laymen in some central district for Religious Fellowship and Conference. Beginning with Liverpool, twelve triennial meetings have been held, 1882-1915.

Triennial Meetings.—(1) Liverpool, 1882; (2) Birmingham, 1885; (3) Leeds, 1888; (4) London, 1891; (5) Manchester, 1894; (6) Sheffield, 1897; (7) Leicester, 1900; (8) Liverpool, 1903; (9) Oxford, 1906; (10) Bolton, 1909; (11) Birmingham, 1912; (12) London, 1915.

Officers.—President, Mr. Hugh R. Rathbone, M.A., Liverpool; Treasurer, Mr. F. W. Monks, J.P., Stonecroft, Appleton, Warrington; Secretary, Rev. James Harwood, B.A., 60 Howitt Road, London, N.W.3.

Advisory Committees.—(1) Lancashire and Cheshire (Sec., Rev. Dendy Agate, B.A.); (2) London, the Midlands, and the Southern and Eastern Counties (Sec., Rev. Joseph Wood); (3) North Midlands, Yorkshire, Northumberland and Durham (Sec., Rev. W. R. Shanks); (4) Western Union (Sec., Rev. Rudolf Davis, B.A.); (5) South Wales (Sec., Rev. W. J. Phillips). The chief function of Advisory Committees is to inquire into the credentials of Ministers from other Denominations.

Ministerial Settlements Board.—When requested by Congregations, the Board undertakes to recommend for vacant Pulpits Ministers whom it considers the most suitable. Secretary, Rev. James Harwood.

Reading Scheme for Lay Workers.—A course of Reading extending over three years, has been prepared by a Committee of the National Conference, for Lay Workers. It embraces the study of the Old and New Testaments, Church History, the Philosophy of Religion, and Ministerial and Sunday School Work. A copy of the revised prospectus will be supplied on application to Rev. J. Harwood.

INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS

'The International Council of Unitarian and other Liberal Religious Thinkers and Workers' was organized at Boston, U.S.A., 25 May, 1900. In 1910 its title was changed to 'The International Congress of Free Christians and other Religious Liberals' (in French, 'Congrès International des Chrétiens libéraux et d'autres libre-croyants,' and in German, 'Welt-Kongress für freies Christentum und religiösen Fortschritt'). The purpose of the Congress is 'to open communication with those in all lands who are striving to unite pure religion and perfect liberty, and to increase fellowship and co-operation among them.' It seeks to bring into closer union for exchange of ideas, mutual service, and the promotion of their common aims the historic liberal churches, the liberal elements in all churches, scattered liberal congregations, and isolated workers for religious freedom and progress in many lands.

Meetings of the International Congress were held in London (1901), Amsterdam (1903), Geneva (1905), Boston, U.S.A. (1907), Berlin (1910), and Paris (1913). It was intended to hold meetings of the International Congress in London in 1916, but the great War made this impossible. Secretary, Rev. C. W. Wendte, D.D., 165 Hunnewell Avenue, Newton, Mass., U.S.A.

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

The American Unitarian Association was organized 25 May, 1825. Its object is 'to diffuse the knowledge and promote the interests of pure Christianity.' Offices and Book Rooms, 25 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. President, Rev. Samuel A. Eliot, D.D.; Secretary, Rev. Louis C. Cornish; Treasurer, Henry M. Williams. There are also Unitarian Book Rooms at Chicago, 105 South Dearborn Street; New York, 104 East 20th Street; San Francisco, 570 Phelan Building. The General Conference of Unitarian and other Christian Churches held its first meeting in 1865. It is simply a 'Conference.' It 'adopts the existing organizations of the Unitarian body as the instruments of its activity, and confines itself to recommending to them such undertakings and methods as it judges to be in the heart of its constituency.' The Unitarian Association is 'the executive arm of the Unitarian body, and the working missionary organization of the Unitarian churches in America.'

Canadian Unitarian Association (1913).—Chairman of Executive, W. P. Hinton, Winnipeg; Treasurer, E. J. Ransom, Winnipeg; Secretary, Rev. Horace Westwood, D.D., Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.

Japan Unitarian Association.—Secretary, Nobuichiro Imaoka, Shiba, Tokio, Japan.

LIBERAL RELIGIOUS MOVEMENTS ABROAD

Outside the United States of America, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, and Hungary, Liberal religious movements seldom employ the Unitarian name; but in different parts of the world there are several congregations and many individuals in substantial agreement with Unitarians. The information given in the Year Book for 1914 respecting Liberal religion in Foreign Countries required careful revision; but the prevalence of the War made revision practically impossible. It is, therefore, deemed best for the present to omit the pages altogether from the Year Book.

EDUCATION OF MINISTERS

MANCHESTER COLLEGE, OXFORD.—Founded at Manchester, 22 February, 1786 (though clearly tracing its ancestry to the earliest Nonconformist Academy, opened by Richard Frankland, one of the ejected clergy, in the year 1670); removed to York in 1803; restored to Manchester in 1840; transferred to London in 1853; removed to Oxford in 1889; New Buildings, Mansfield Road, Oxford, opened October, 1893.

College Studies.—The Curriculum of the College is designed both for Students for the Ministry of Religion and for others who wish to obtain a special knowledge of theological and philosophical subjects. The full course, provided for 'Regular Students,' extends over three years; but Students desiring to avail themselves of only a portion of it may, at the discretion of the Committee, be admitted for shorter periods, under the name of 'Special Students.'

Teaching Staff.—Principal and Professor of Philosophy—Rev. L. P. JACKS, M.A., D.D., LL.D., D.Litt.; Rev. HENRY GOW, B.A.—New Testament and Early Christian History; The Work of the Ministry; Rev. D. C. SIMPSON, M.A.—Old Testament and Hebrew.

Rev. CHARLES BARNES UPTON, B.A., B.Sc.—Emeritus Professor of Philosophy.

Special Lecturers.—Rev. Dr. J. E. CARPENTER, M.A., Rev. Dr. P. H. WICKSTEED, M.A., The Master of University College, Professor GILBERT MURRAY, and others.

Secretaries, P. M. OLIVER, B.A., High Croft, Park Road, Bowdon, Altrincham, and Rev. HENRY GOW, B.A., 12 Glenloch Road, Hampstead, London, N.W.3.; Assistant Secretary, C. E. MARSHALL, 38 Barton Arcade, Manchester.

UNITARIAN HOME MISSIONARY COLLEGE.—Established under the title of the Unitarian Home Missionary Board in 1854; altered in 1889 to Unitarian Home Missionary College. The College adheres to the principle of freely imparting theological knowledge, without insisting on the adoption of particular theological doctrines. In the year 1904 the College celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its foundation, and in commemoration of this event a Memorial Fund of £20,000 was raised to provide Collegiate and Residential buildings at Summerville, Victoria Park, Manchester. A residence for the Warden and twelve students has been provided. The building was opened 4 October, 1905.

Collegiate Course.—The Collegiate Course covers five years: an Arts Curriculum of two years, and a Theological Curriculum of three years. A shorter course may be taken in exceptional cases.

Admission of Students.—Students may be admitted to the Collegiate Course after having attained the age of eighteen years; and to the Theological Curriculum (a) After having completed the Arts Curriculum; or, (b) After having obtained a degree; or, (c) After having attained the age of 25 years, and shown special aptitude for the work of the ministry.

Scholarships.—The Tate Scholarship is of the annual value of £70 and may be held for one, two, or three years. The Gaskell Scholarship is of the annual value of £70. The tenure of the Scholarship is for one year. The Durning-Smith Scholarship is of the annual value of £90. Its purpose is to enable promising students to take a degree at the Victoria University, and it is tenable for one year. The Sharpe Hungarian Scholarship for Hungarian Students was founded in 1911 by the late Miss Emily Sharpe.

Teaching Staff.—Principal—Rev. S. H. MELONE, M.A., D.Sc.; Tutor and Warden—Rev. H. McLACHLAN, M.A., B.D.; Visitors—Rev. PHILEMON MOORE, B.A., and Rev. W. G. TARRANT, B.A.

Secretary, Rev. G. A. PAYNE, Heath View, Knutsford.

PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, CARMARTHEN.—This College is the continuation of the Academy founded by the Rev. Samuel Jones, M.A., some time fellow of Jesus College, Oxford, one of the Two Thousand ejected Ministers of 1662; and is supported and governed by the Presbyterian Board, London, founded in 1689. It is endowed in part by the Will of Dr. Daniel Williams (1644-1715), by the Jackson Trustees, and the Berman Trustees. The College exists for the purpose of educating young men for the Christian ministry among Protestant Nonconformists, and is open to Students of all Denominations without any theological test.

Course of Study.—The course of study extends over three years, and is now mainly Theological, being adapted to the requirements for the B.D. degree of the University of Wales.

Scholarships.—Scholarships are offered by the Presbyterian Board, various bodies of Trustees, and private donors. Graduate Students preparing for the B.D. Examinations of the University of Wales are eligible for Scholarships of £40 a year, offered by Dr. Williams' Trustees, the Berman Trustees, the Hibbert Trustees, and the Managers of the Presbyterian Fund, and tenable at the College for three years, and Undergraduate Students pursuing an approved course of studies in Arts at a University College in preparation for the B.D. course at Carmarthen are also eligible for Scholarships of the same value. Applications should reach the Secretary before the end of June.

LEGAL INFORMATION

Births, Registration.—Parents are required to register the birth of their children at the Registrar's office for the district in which they reside, within six weeks. Penalty of 40s. for default. There is no charge for such registration.

Deaths, Registration.—Deaths must be registered within five days. The nearest relative present at the death or during the last illness is the responsible person, or should there be no relative present, then the occupier of the house, or the person who causes the body to be buried. Penalty for default, 40s. The doctor's certificate must be produced to the Registrar at the time of registration; and the Registrar's certificate to the officiating minister at the interment.

Registration of Chapels.—All places of worship should be registered. Registration is effected by giving a certificate in writing that the Chapel is used for worship to the Superintendent-Registrar of the District on a form which he will supply on application. The fee on registration is 2s. 6d., and a certified copy of the Registrar-General's certificate of the registration can be obtained for a further payment of 2s. 6d. Registered places of worship are exempt from the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Acts. When a place of worship is rebuilt, either on the same or another site, the old certificate of registration must be cancelled and the place re-registered.

Registration for Marriages.—A place of worship must, before marriage can legally be celebrated therein, in addition to being registered as above mentioned, be separately registered for the performance of marriages. Before registering a place for marriages, the Superintendent-Registrar of the District must be satisfied by certificate that the building has been used for worship for one year previous to the application. A fee of £3 is payable, and the Registration is advertised in the London Gazette and in a local newspaper. When a chapel ceases to be used for worship or is rebuilt, the Certificate is cancelled, and in that case it requires to be renewed if worship is resumed. When a congregation has removed from one chapel to another, and the old building has ceased to be used as a place of public worship, the Certificate of the old chapel may be cancelled, and the new building registered for the solemnization of marriages, without waiting for a year to elapse. All necessary forms and information will be supplied by the Superintendent-Registrar of the District.

Marriages : England and Wales.—Marriages may be solemnized in any registered building, or in a district registry office either by Certificate or by Licence. If by Certificate, notice (accompanied with fee of 1s. for entry in 'Marriage Notice Book') must be given by one of the parties, if both live in one district, to the Superintendent-Registrar, on form furnished for purpose, containing solemn declaration of absence of impediment to intended marriage, certifying that one of the parties has dwelt at least seven days in district, and must be signed in presence of Registrar or deputy; but if parties live in different districts, notices must be sent to respective Superintendent-Registrars. Twenty-one clear days after entry of notice the Certificate (for which 1s. must be paid) will be granted on application.

If by licence, though both parties do not dwell in same district, only one need give notice, certifying that he or she has resided at least fifteen days in district, though marriage may be held in district of either party. Both parties, however, must be in England at the time of notice, though only one clear day is required (unless marriage take place in Ireland with some one there, when seven days are required) between notice and granting of licence. Cost of Licence, £2 2s.

If usual 'place of worship' at which ceremony is desired, be out of district of either's dwelling, by inserting words:—'Such building being usual place of worship of said——, and situate not more than two miles beyond limits of district of——,' Certificate will be granted accordingly.

The marriage must take place in registered building specified in Certificate, with open doors, between the hours of eight in the morning and three in the afternoon, within three calendar months from day of entry of notice, in presence of Registrar (or his deputy, or, if the Marriage Act of 1898 has been adopted, in the presence of the Authorized Person) and two or more credible witnesses besides minister, if any. At some part of ceremony the words must be said:—'I do solemnly declare that I know not of any lawful impediment why I—— may not be joined in matrimony to——'; and each must say to other: 'I call upon these persons here present to witness that I—— do take thee—— to be my lawful wedded wife (or husband)'; without which it is not a marriage.

Registrar's fee for attending marriage by Certificate, 5s.; by Licence, 10s.; for Copy of Certificate, 2s. 6d., and stamp 1d.

By the Marriage Act, 1898 (61 & 62 Vic. c. 58), marriage may be solemnized in the registered building named in the Superintendent's Certificate without the presence of any Registrar, but in the presence of such duly Authorized Person as mentioned in the Statute. The Statute provides for the notices and forms required to be given or complied with and the registers to be kept.

Marriage with a Deceased Wife's Sister was legalized by Act of Parliament, August, 1907.

Marriages : Ireland.—Marriages according to the form and discipline of the Presbyterian Church may be celebrated—(1) By special licence; (2) By licence; or (3) After publication of banns.

(1) In the first case both parties must be members of the same Church as the Moderator who grants the Special Licence.

(2) Ordinary Licences can be granted when only one of the parties is a Presbyterian. Each Presbytery is authorized to appoint, subject to the approval of the Lord Lieutenant, ministers to issue licences for marriage in Meeting Houses duly certified.

Anyone wishing to obtain a Licence must, seven days before the licence shall be delivered to him or her, produce to the licensing minister a certificate from the minister of the congregation of which he or she shall be a member and has been a member for at least one calendar month preceding.

(3) When both parties are Presbyterians, marriages may be celebrated after the banns have been proclaimed for three Sundays in the Presbyterian meeting-houses attended by each of the parties.

Marriages : Scotland.—The ceremony can be performed by the minister of any denomination, in any place, at any time, with or without any particular form. The law has been amended so as to put an end, as far as possible, to what were known as 'irregular' marriages. Legal notice must now be given to the Registrar of the parish or district, the names of the contracting parties being exhibited for seven days on the notice board outside the office of the Registrar in whose district the parties have resided for at least fifteen days immediately preceding. At the expiration of the period named a Certificate will be granted, and on this the marriage may take place either in a church or elsewhere. Any person who has resided for at least twenty-one days in Scotland may be married by going to the Registrar's office in the district in which he or she may reside, accompanied by two witnesses who can certify as to the term of residence, and exchanging written contract with the other party, afterwards proceeding to the County Sheriff's chamber to have the Marriage Registered.

Burial Act, 1880.—Wherever there is a Cemetery there is no difficulty in the way of a Nonconformist minister conducting a funeral service. The Act of Parliament of 1890 authorizes any person responsible for the burial of a body to give forty-eight hours notice to the incumbent of the parish in which the death took place, or in his absence to his deputy, that it is intended that the body shall be buried in the churchyard of the parish without the Church of England service. The Act allowed a like notice to be given to the chaplain of a parochial cemetery if a burial was intended to be made there; but the Burial Act, 1900 (63 & 64 Vic. c. 15, s. 8) requires that in the last-mentioned case the notice shall be given at such time and to such person as the burial authority directs. It is therefore necessary in that case to inquire at the office of the cemetery, and to give such notice as the rules of the cemetery prescribe.

In the case of burials in churchyards the form of notice is specified in the Act of 1880, and the requirements are as follows:—

The Notice must be in writing; must be endorsed on the outside 'Notice of Burial'; must be signed with the name and address of the person giving it, and be in the form, or to the effect, following:—

I, _____, of _____, being the relative [or friend, or legal representative, as the case may be, describing the relation, if a relative] having the charge of, or being responsible for, the burial of A. B., of _____, who died at _____, in the parish of _____, on the _____ day of _____, do hereby give you notice that it is intended by me that the body of the said A. B. shall be buried within the [here describe the churchyard or graveyard in which the body is to be buried] on the _____ day of _____, at the hour of _____, without the performance in the manner prescribed by law of the service for the burial of the dead according to the rites of the Church of England; and I give this notice pursuant to the Burial Laws Amendment Act, 1880.

To the Rector [or as the case may be] of _____ NOTE.—While it is desirable to keep to this form, the person receiving it will not be at liberty to object to its sufficiency, because the exact words are not used; the Act only requiring that the notice shall be in the form, 'or to the effect,' of the above.

In the case of a churchyard, the notice is to be left at the house of the clergyman, or in his absence, of the clergyman in charge of the parish, or of any person appointed to receive such notices. It is not necessary that the clergyman should consent to a burial under the Act. He can object only to the time proposed, and do that only in certain cases. Unless it be otherwise mutually arranged, burials must be between 10 and 6 o'clock from April 1st to October 1st, and between 10 and 3 from October 1st to April 1st.

A burial may take place either without 'any religious service' or 'with such Christian and orderly religious service' at the grave as the person responsible for the burial may think fit, and 'any person or persons'—whether ministers or laymen—who may be invited or authorized, may conduct such service, or take part in any religious act thereat. The words 'Christian service' include 'every religious service used by any church, denomination, or person, professing to be Christian.'

The person having charge of a burial under the Act must, either on the same day or the day after, send to the incumbent or his representative—or, in the case of a Cemetery, to the clerk—a certificate of the burial in prescribed form.

I _____, of _____, the person having the charge of [or, being responsible for] the burial of the deceased, do hereby certify that on the _____ day of _____, 191____, _____, aged _____, was buried in the churchyard [or graveyard] of the parish [or district] of _____

To the Rector [or as the case may be] of _____

The Act of 1880 does not entitle anyone to be buried in any place in which he would have no right to be buried if the Act had not passed. Neither does it affect previously existing regulations or authority in regard to the position of graves, inscriptions on gravestones, etc.

Burial Act, 1900.—This Act modifies the Act of 1880 in the case of the consecrated parts of parochial cemeteries. The Act does not deal with churchyards. In future, Burial Boards 'may, if they think fit,' apply to have a portion of the cemetery consecrated; formerly they were compelled to have a portion consecrated. Burial Boards are no longer compelled to erect two cemetery chapels, one for Anglicans and one for Nonconformists. They may erect any chapel 'they may consider necessary'; but any chapel so erected 'shall not be consecrated, or reserved for the exclusive use of any denomination.' The payment of fees to an incumbent of a parish will no longer be required 'except for services rendered by him.' In future, when a Nonconformist minister officiates in the consecrated part of a parochial cemetery, he, and not the clergyman, will receive the fee. These provisions apply to cemeteries opened after the passing of the Act. In the case of cemeteries already existing the old fees were continued for fifteen years, that is until 1915.

Cremation.—This is regulated by the Cremation Act, 1902, and the Regulations made by the Home Secretary in pursuance of that Act.

Charitable Trusts.—The Acts relating to Charitable Trusts give the Charity Commissioners very extensive jurisdiction over all charitable trusts (except certain exempted charities), and empower the Commissioners to inquire into the management of charities, to oblige their trustees to render accounts, to advise such trustees on the administration of the trusts, to authorize or direct legal proceedings to be taken, to authorize the granting of leases and making of improvements, and raising of money by mortgage, to authorize trustees to remove schoolmasters and other officers, to authorize the sale, exchange, or partitions of lands, to remove and appoint trustees, and to make new schemes for the administration of charities. Among the charities exempted from the operations of these Acts are any buildings registered as places of meeting for religious worship with the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, and bona fide used as places of meeting for religious worship. Exempted charities can, by application under certain sections of one of the Acts, have the benefits of the Acts extended to them.

Dissenters' Chapels Act, 1844.—It is under this Act (7 & 8 Vic. c. 45), that many of the old Presbyterian Chapels are secured to the Unitarians. The Act provides in substance that where there is no express statement in the deed of foundation as to the particular doctrines for which a chapel was to be employed, twenty-five years' usage shall be conclusive evidence of the legality of the doctrines.

Executors and their Duties.—Immediately on the death of a testator his personal property passes to his executors to be distributed (after the payment of his funeral expenses and debts) in the manner directed by the will. The real property also (except land of copyhold tenure or customary freehold) vests in the executors, who hold it as trustees for the persons beneficially entitled thereto, subject to a liability on account of the testator's debts, should the personal property which he leaves prove insufficient to pay them. They must take out a probate of the will, either personally or through a solicitor, either at Somerset House or at the Registry of the district in which the testator resided. The original will is then deposited in one of the registries of the Court, and the executors obtain a copy of it certified under the seal of the Probate Division. Estate duty is payable upon the principal value of all property, real or personal, settled or not settled, which passes on a death.

National Health Insurance Act, 1911.—By decision of the Commissioners (August, 1912), Unitarian Ministers are not required to be insured under the National Health Insurance Act.

Oaths Act, 1888.—This Act enacts that every person upon objecting to being sworn, and stating, as the ground of such objection, either that he has no religious belief, or that the taking of an oath is contrary to his religious belief, shall be permitted to make his solemn affirmation instead of taking an oath, in all places and for all purposes where an oath is or shall be required by law, which affirmation shall be of the same force and effect as if he had taken the oath. Every such affirmation shall be as follows:—'I, A. B., do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare and affirm,' and then proceed with the words of the oath prescribed by law, omitting any words of imprecation or calling to witness. If any person to whom an oath is administered desires to swear with uplifted hand in the form and manner in which an oath is usually administered in Scotland, he shall be permitted to do so, and the oath shall be administered to him in such form and manner without further question. By the Act of 1909, an alteration in the manner of administering oaths is authorized.

Rates, Exemption from.—It is enacted by 3 & 4 William IV. c. 30, that 'no person or persons shall be rated, or shall be liable to be rated to, or to pay any church or poor rates or cesses for, or in respect of, any churches, district churches, chapels, meeting-houses, or premises, or such part thereof, as shall be exclusively appropriated to public religious worship, and which shall be 'registered under 18 & 19 Vic. c. 81, as a place of meeting for religious worship. ' Provided always that no person or persons shall be hereby exempted from any such rates or cesses, for or in respect of, any parts of such churches, district churches, chapels, meeting-houses, or other premises which are not so exclusively appropriated, and from which parts not so exclusively appropriated, such person or persons shall receive any rent or rents or shall derive profit or advantage.' Section 2 proceeds, ' Provided always that no person or persons shall be liable to any such rates or cesses because the said churches, district churches, chapels, meeting-houses, or other premises, or any vestry-rooms belonging thereto or any part thereof, may be used for Sunday or infant schools, or for the charitable education of the poor.' It is difficult to say what user of part of a chapel or school premises would bring the case within the exception from the exemption.

Workmen's Compensation Act, 1907.—It is desirable to insure the minister (if in receipt of a salary under £250 per annum); the chapel-keeper, and where there is an understanding (written or otherwise) that the wife or any member of the family helps, the helper also; any charwoman or other person employed regularly though for only and perhaps a part of a day a week; the grave-digger, if any; the organist and blower and members of the choir, if paid; also any Bible-women or nurses. Where the chapel-keeper regularly employs any charwoman or other person to help, an insurance should be taken out for the benefit of the chapel-keeper in respect of the persons helping, as he would probably be liable under the Act.

Recent Statutes.—The following Acts of Parliament may be usefully consulted on the subjects named: 18 & 19 Vic. c. 81, Places of Religious Worship Registration Act; 55 & 56 Vic. c. 11, Mortmain and Charitable Uses Act Amendment; c. 32; 56 & 57 Vic. c. 53, Trustee Act, 1893; 57 & 58 Vic. c. 35, Charitable Trusts (Places of Religious Worship Amendment Act, 1894); 60 & 61 Vic. c. 5, Marriage Act, 1898; 62 & 63 Vic. c. 32, Burial Act, 1900, c. 15; Factory and Workshops Act, 1901, c. 22; Cremation Act, 1902, c. 8; Marriage Legalization Act, 1903, c. 26; Elementary Education Amendment Act, 1903, c. 13; Employment of Children Act, 1903, c. 45; Shop Hours Act, 1904, c. 31; Prevention of Cruelty to Children Act, 1904, c. 15; Education (Provision of Meals Act), 1906, 6 Ed. APPOINTMENT OF NEW TRUSTEES

This may be made under the Act of 1850 (13 & 14 Vic. c. 28), generally known as Sir Morton Peto's Act, and the Acts of 1869 and 1890 extending the same, now together called the 'Trustees Appointment Acts, 1850 to 1890,' or by the 'Trustee Act, 1893.' When there is an existing power of appointment, the appointment may be effected in the manner and by the person appointed by the instrument creating the trust; if there is no existing power, or the appointment under the power be not made within twelve months, then recourse should be made to the above Acts, under which the appointment can be made, in the case of Peto's Act, by resolution of the congregation, society, or body of persons interested therein as by the Act provided, or, in the case of the Trustee Act, 1893, by writing by the persons therein mentioned, the trust property in the former case vesting in the new trustees by virtue of the appointment alone, and, in the latter case, by virtue of a declaration forming part of the Deed.

If none of these modes of appointment should be feasible, resort should be had to the powers of the Charity Commissioners.

No form of appointment is prescribed by the Trustee Act, 1893, but in Sir Morton Peto's Act a form is given for cases under that Act only, and is as follows :—

TRUST DEEDS OF CHURCHES

The greater number of Unitarian Churches possess what are known as 'Open Trust Deeds.' The land, buildings, and endowments (if any) are held in Trust for the worship of God, and for the religious, moral, or intellectual improvement of the Congregation for the time being worshipping there, and for its general benevolent objects.

In drafting a New Trust Deed care should be taken to state clearly that if any question should at any time arise as to the purposes for which the said Church or Chapel may lawfully be used, the widest meaning should be attached to the trust aforesaid, so that neither by reference to the actual or supposed opinions of the founders, nor otherwise, shall any restriction be imposed on the liberty of the congregation for the time being to change its opinions with regard to religious doctrines or modes of regulating worship. The Deed should be settled by a solicitor, who will consider questions of consideration enrolment, etc.

The British and Foreign Unitarian Association has a Special Subcommittee for giving advice to Congregations, respecting the Civil Rights of Unitarians, Chapel Trust Deeds, Endowments, etc., and the British and Foreign Unitarian Association (Incorporated) may be appointed a Trustee. Applications should be addressed to the Secretary, Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C.2. The Committee will expect the congregations to defray the cost of any legal charges. The Solicitor of the Association is Howard Young, Esq., LL.B., 29 Mark Lane, London, E.C.3.

MINISTERIAL CHANGES, 1918

The following changes in the Settlement of Ministers have occurred, or are announced, since the issue of the Year Book, December, 1917 :— J. UNITARIAN MINISTERS DECEASED

December, 1917—November, 1918

Critchley.—The Rev. George Critchley died at St. Leonards-on-Sea, 26 January, 1918, aged 74. Mr. Critchley was educated for the ministry at Western College, Plymouth, taking the B.A. degree at London University. From 1870 to 1900 he was a Congregational minister. In 1900 he entered the Unitarian ministry and had charge of Stepney, London, 1900-2, Clarence Road, Kentish Town, 1902-5, Peckham, 1906-7, when, owing to failing health, he retired from active work.

Drummond.—The Rev. James Drummond, born in Dublin 14 May, 1835, son of the Rev. Dr. W. H. Drummond, died at Oxford, 13 June, 1918, aged 83. Educated at Trinity College, Dublin, and Manchester New College. On leaving College in 1859 he became colleague of the Rev. William Gaskell at Cross Street Chapel, Manchester. Appointed Professor of Theology at Manchester New College, London, in 1870, and succeeding Dr. Martineau as Principal in 1885; he removed with the College to Oxford in 1889, and retired in 1906. B.A., with 1st Classical Gold Medal, Trinity College, Dublin; LL.D.; Litt.D.; M.A. (Oxon); D.D. (Tufts). Publications:—Spiritual Religion: Sermons on Christian Faith and Life, 1870; The Jewish Messiah: A Critical History of the Messianic Idea among the Jews, 1877; Introduction to the Study of Theology, 1884; Philo-Judæus; or the Jewish-Alexandrian Philosophy in its Development and Completion, 2 vols. 1888; The Epistle of St. Paul to the Galatians, 1893; Via, Veritas, Vita (the Hibbert Lectures for 1894, on Christianity in its most simple and intelligible form), 1894; The Pauline Benediction (three sermons), 1897; International Handbooks to the New Testament, edited by Orello Cone, D.D., vol.ii., The Epistles of Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians, etc. 1899; Some Thoughts on Christology (Essex Hall Lecture), 1902; Life and Letters of Dr. Martineau (in union with Prof. Upton), 1902; The Character and Authorship of the Fourth Gospel, 1904; Studies in Christian Doctrine, 1908; The Transmission of the Text of the New Testament (a little manual for teachers), 1909; Johannine Thoughts, 1909; Lectures on the Composition and Delivery of Sermons, 1910; Paul: his Life and Teaching, 1911; The Way of Life: New Testament Studies. The Parables of Jesus, The Lord's Prayer and the Teaching of Jesus, 2 vols., 1918. In the press (1918) Pauline Meditations, with Portrait, Biographical Sketch, and Introduction. Dr. Drummond preached the Annual Sermon of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association in 1906. He was a man of noble simplicity and strength of character, a true saint and apostle of righteousness, with a faith in God and a love for man which never faltered.

Edwards.—The Rev. T. E. M. Edwards died in London, 16 March, 1918, aged 77. Mr. Edwards was educated at Western College, Plymouth, 1862-66. From 1866 to 1892 he was a Congregational minister. In 1892 he joined the Unitarian body, and in 1893 he was appointed Missionary minister of the London and South Eastern Counties Provincial Assembly. Owing to ill health he retired in 1909. He took an active part in founding the congregations at Kilburn, Woolwich, Lewisham, Acton, and Ilford. He organized lectures and services at several other places in the London district; and his visits to the smaller country congregations were greatly appreciated.

Hargrove.—The Rev. Charles Hargrove died at Ventnor, I.W., 19 June, 1918, aged 77. He was a native of London and was educated at Wimbledon; King's College, London; and Emmanuel College, Cambridge (1859-62), taking the B.A. (1873) and M.A. (1877) degrees. He entered the Church of Rome and continued his theological studies in Rome and France for six years, and was ordained priest at Avignon in 1869. He severed his connexion with the Church of Rome; and became University Extension Lecturer, 1874-76. In 1876 he was elected minister of Mill Hill Chapel, Leeds. After thirty-six years of active service there, he became Minister Emeritus in 1912. In 1904 he went on a mission to Australia and New Zealand for the British and Foreign Unitarian Association. In 1893 he preached the Annual Sermon, and was President of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, 1910-11, being present at the Coronation of King George V. Visitor of Manchester College, and President of the National Conference from 1915 until his death. He was author of the Life of Suffield, Eternal Life, The Unitarian Name and Protest, The Christian Citizen, The Limits of Compromise in the Profession of Faith, Jesus of Nazareth: Lessons of his Life, Death, and Resurrection, learnt at Ober-Ammergau, What do Unitarians Believe? Our Reasonable Service: Four Sermons on Acts of Worship, Sermons and Impressions brought from America, and many other sermons and pamphlets. In 1915 the University of Leeds conferred upon him the degree of Litt.D. in recognition of his public services during his long residence in Leeds.

Horsley.—The Rev. Harry Charles Horsley died at Whalley Range, Manchester, 15 July, 1918, aged 29. Mr. Horsley was a native of Gloucester, passing from school into business life; afterwards entering Lincoln College, Oxford, and graduating B.A. in 1913, he proceeded to Manchester College, Oxford, for the three years' theological course. He was appointed minister at Acton, London, in 1916; in January 1918, he removed to Moss Side Church, Manchester, where his early death was a deep grief to the congregation.

Jenkins.—The Rev. Thomas Josef Jenkins died at Newchurch, Lancashire, 14 March, 1918, aged 46. Mr. Jenkins was a native of South Wales, and was educated at the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen, 1892-96. In 1896 he was appointed minister of Gellionen and Trebanos; in 1905 he became minister at Hinckley; and in 1913 he removed to Newchurch, where he remained until his death.

Short.—The Rev. Walter Short of Bootle, Liverpool, was killed in action in France, 20 July, 1918, aged 39. Mr. Short was a native of Sheffield, and in early life associated with the United Methodist Church as a lay preacher. Becoming a Unitarian, he joined the Upper Chapel, Sheffield. In 1903 he entered as a student the Unitarian Home Missionary College, Manchester, graduating B.A. at the University of Manchester. Mr. Short was minister at Stalybridge, 1909-12, and Bootle from 1912 until his death. In November, 1915, he joined the army, and received a commission in the K.O.Y.L.I. In January, 1917, he went out to France where he was 1st Lieutenant and was promoted Captain in December, 1917.

Webster.—The Rev. Alexander Webster died at Cults, near Aberdeen, 16 August, 1918, aged 78. Mr. Webster was a native of Old Meldrum, Aberdeenshire. While employed in business at Glasgow, he belonged to the Free Church of Scotland. He became a Unitarian, and his first charge was at Paisley, 1872-74, then Perth, 1875-79, subsequently South St. Mungo Street, Glasgow, 1879-84. His ministry in Aberdeen began in 1884. In 1891 owing to a break-down in health he removed to Clerk's Lane Free Christian Church, Kilmarnock, remaining there for four years, and returning in 1895 to Aberdeen. He conducted very successful open-air services on the Broad Hill, Aberdeen, for many years. In 1897 he was elected a member of the Aberdeen School Board and was made Chairman. He published Burns and the Kirk, The Ideals of Robert Burns, The Religion of Robert Burns. His book My Pilgrimage from Calvinism to Unitarianism passed through several editions. He was the author of Theology in Scotland, Reviewed by Heretic. Mr. Webster was preacher at the anniversary meetings of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association in 1907. Owing to failing health, he retired from the active ministry in 1910. He was a leader of the Unitarian movement in Scotland.

Wooding.—The Rev. William Wooding died in London, 12 January 1918, aged 77. Mr. Wooding was born at Turvey in Bedfordshire. He matriculated at the University of London, afterwards taking the B.A. degree. He studied for the ministry for six years at Spring Hill (now Mansfield College, Oxford), 1860-66. In 1866 he was appointed minister of the Congregational Church, Castlegates, Shrewsbury, leaving in 1870 owing to a change in his theological views. He became head master of a boys school at St. Leonards. In 1875 he was appointed an assistant master at the City of London School, which position he held for thirty-five years. In 1882 he became minister of Stoke Newington Green Chapel, London, retiring in 1907. Mr. Wooding was Trustee of Dr. Williams' Trust from 1901, a member of the Council of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, representing the Association on a tour, with Mrs. Wooding, of the Unitarian Churches in Australia and New Zealand, from November, 1911, to March, 1912. Mr. Wooding was author of The Secret of Righteousness (1913), he contributed one of the essays in Types of Religious Experience, a paper read at Essex Hall in May, 1902, on his religious development, and a volume of Selected Readings for Sunday Schools and Families.

Worthington.—The Rev. Jeffery Worthington died at Cullompton 18 April, 1918, aged 83. Mr. Worthington was educated at Owen College, Manchester, 1851-53. After seven years of journalistic work he studied for the ministry at Manchester New College, 1861-64, and became minister at Bank Street, Bolton, 1864-73. After spending a short time on the Continent, he was appointed minister at Effra Road Brixton, London, 1874-83. He received the degree of B.A. from the new Victoria University, Manchester, in 1882. He was minister at Taunton, 1883-1900; and at Cullompton from 1901 till his death.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

The Sunday School Association, founded in 1833, has its head-quarters at Essex Hall, London. Its objects are (a) the promotion generally of Sunday School Education, and (b) the publication of suitable religious Books for young people. The qualification for individual Membership is an annual subscription of not less than 5s., or a life donation of not less than £5. Individuals, Schools, or Societies, subscribing a guinea a year, or upwards, are entitled to a copy of every new book printed and published by the Association during the year for which the subscription is paid. District and kindred Societies, whose objects are similar to those of the Association, which contribute one guinea and upwards annually, are thereby deemed to be affiliated to it, and have the right of appointing a delegate to represent it on the Committee and at all General Meetings. Schools contributing 5s. and upwards annually are considered members, and have the right of sending a representative to all the General Meetings. Annual Meeting held in Whit-week.

Officers.—President, Mr. F. D. BOWLES, J.P., C.C.; Treasurer, Mr. HAROLD WADE; Chairman of Committee, Mr. ION PRITCHARD; Secretaries, Mr. T. M. CHALMERS, M.A.; Rev. BERTRAM LISTER, M.A.

The Committee meet on the second Friday in the month at 5.30 p.m. Business communications should be addressed to Mr. B. C. HARE, Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C. 2; other Correspondence to the Secretaries at the same address.

Book Room at Essex Hall open from 9 to 5.30; Saturdays, 9 to 1.

A Catalogue of Books for Religious Education in the Sunday School and Home

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION
ESSEX HALL, ESSEX STREET,
STRAND, LONDON, W.C. 2. 1919

BUSINESS ANNOUNCEMENT

Post Orders.—The publications of the Association are fixed at net prices, which does not include postage or carriage. A sufficient amount should be sent to cover this item.

Payment.—Cash is required in all cases to be sent with the order, unless the purchaser has a Ledger a/c with the Association.

If the exact amount to forward is not known, the approximate sum should be forwarded. A detailed statement will be sent with the goods, and any amount not required will be returned.

When the cash is not enclosed, a note of the cost will be sent to the purchaser, and the goods forwarded upon its receipt.

Discount.—A special discount of 15 per cent. is allowed to Subscribers and Subscribing Schools ordering not less than one dozen copies of the same book direct from Essex Hall. (Hymn Books excluded.)

Reward Books.—A carefully selected list of books suitable for Prizes will be sent post free upon request.

Books from other Publishers.—For the convenience of customers books are obtained to order from any London publisher.

Books on Approval.—Any volume in this catalogue will be sent on approval, if desired. Books not retained must be returned at the end of three days, in perfect condition. Carriage on any book exchanged must be paid both ways by the person ordering.

Sample Copies.—The Association will be pleased to forward specimen copies of its books so that the selection of books may be made easier. If any particular class of books is wanted, this should be specified. The time allowed to make a selection is fourteen days, unless consent has been obtained beforehand for a longer period. A Booking Fee of 1/- must be enclosed with each application, but the Association will pay the carriage both ways. The Committee hope that applicants will return the books as quickly as possible, and take care that they are sent back in good condition, and they trust that the opportunity will be taken to show the copies to all the teachers and others interested.

The object of the Association is to supply Sunday schools and parents with text-books of moral and religious instruction at the smallest possible outlay; only a slight addition being made to the actual cost of production.

All Orders should be addressed to the Business Manager :—

Mr. B. C. HARE, Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C. 2.

Postal Orders should be made payable at the East Strand Office.
HOURS OF BUSINESS 9 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. Saturdays 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Catalogue of Publications

Addis, W. E., M.A.

CHRISTIANITY AND THE ROMAN EMPIRE. Cloth 2/6 net, paper covers, 1/- net.

The Review of Reviews says: 'There is considerable cleverness in the choice and arrangement of the materials, and Mr. Addis is also scrupulously fair-minded.'

Armstrong, Richard A., B.A.

OUTLINE LESSONS IN RELIGION. Sewed 6d. net.

An excellent manual for teachers. The author takes his lessons from a stone, an acorn, a dog, and so on to a child, marking the upward development of each, and ending with suggestive lessons on Conscience, God, etc.

'Aunt Amy' (Marian Pritchard).

THE BOOK OF BEGINNINGS, OR STORIES FROM GENESIS, AND HOW TO TEACH THEM. Cloth 1/- net; paper covers 6d. net.

The Christian World says: 'The Book is well planned. The selections from Genesis are given unaltered, in large type, preceded in each case by a brightly-written statement of what in the author's view, the Biblical story amounts to for the modern reader.'

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL CODE BOOK AND TEACHERS' MANUAL.
A Practical Guide to the work of the Sunday School.
Edited by Marian Pritchard. Cloth 9d. net.

The Sunday School.—Accommodation; New Buildings; General Management; Duties of Officers and Staff. Institutions connected with the Sunday School.—The Library, Savings' Bank, Band of Hope, Recreative Evening, Boys' Own Brigade, Guilds, Clubs, Window Gardening Exhibition, Mothers Meetings, etc. Aids to the Teacher.—Tabulated list of useful Books; the Blackboard; Pictures; etc.

Series B. Packet I. Contains 12 booklets, each with 16 printed pages and pictures. Price 2d. net.

Beard, Charles, LL.D.

TEN LESSONS ON RELIGION. Sewed 1d.

This little booklet contains ten brief lessons, in the form of a catechism on the elements of religion. In the hands of an earnest teacher it is certain to be of great service.

Blatchford, Ambrose N. B.A.

LANDMARKS IN RELIGIOUS HISTORY. Cloth 1/- net.

We commend it to all teachers and parents who realise the supreme value of keeping alive in the hearts of the younger generation the fire of heroic endeavour.—Inquirer.

Bowie, W. Copeland

SHORT STORIES FOR THE SUNDAY SCHOOL AND THE HOME. Cloth 1/- net.

Bowie, W. Copeland, and J. Westwood Tosh.

A NEW YEAR'S SERVICE, with Music. Sewed 1d.

A HARVEST THANKSGIVING SERVICE, with Music. Sewed 1d.

A CHRISTMAS SERVICE, with Music. Sewed 1d.

A FESTIVAL SERVICE OF SACRED AND SECULAR SONG. 1d.

Brown, J. E.

ELIZABETH FRY, the Prisoners' Friend. Cloth 6d. net.

Carpenter, J. Estlin, M.A., D.Litt., D.D.

LIFE IN PALESTINE WHEN JESUS LIVED. New revised and enlarged edition, with Indexes. Cloth 2/- net.

The Schoolmaster in reviewing the first edition, says: 'It does not require to read more than half-a-dozen pages to feel that our attention is not likely to flag during the rest of the volume. The country, people, government, and religion are all discussed in turn—nothing hurried or curtailed, every sub-division given its due share, and the result is a whole upon which the author may fairly be congratulated.'

* * A Classified list will be found at the end of this Catalogue.

Cooke, Frances E.

THEOPHILUS LINDSEY AND HIS FRIENDS. Cloth 1/- net.

'The stories of Lindsey and his friend Dr. Priestley, which are combined in this little volume are almost unknown to young people of the present day. Yet because of their faithfulness to duty and fearless search after truth, these men should be lasting examples for all time.'—Preface.

NOBLE WORKERS. Cloth 1/- net. Paper covers 6d. net.

Short sketches of lives of Dr. Chalmers, Mary Ware, Thomas Thurst, Michael Angelo Buonarroti, Frederick Christopher Peithes, Catherine Cappe, John Withers Dowson, Joseph Sturge, and William Lloyd Garrison.

STORY OF THEODORE PARKER. Paper, 6d. net.

'Although written for young people, there is much in this volume to attract those of maturer years, and teachers who are earnest in their work will find much to interest them in the career of Parker, himself a teacher, in whose heart the love of children was great to the overflow.'—Schoolmaster.

STORY OF WILLIAM ELLERY CHANNING. Cloth 1/- net. Paper covers 6d. net.

'The story of Dr. Channing told for boys and girls, terse, plain, pointed, and attractive, a book which is sure to find its way into many of our young folks' libraries, and should be omitted from no School Library.'—Unity.

THE STORY OF ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI. Cloth 1/- net. Paper covers 6d. net.

'Perhaps now, more than ever, Miss Cooke says in a brief introductory note, we need the kindling influence of great aims and lofty ideals, and it would surely be well for ourselves and for the world about us if we were to try to carry the spirit of St. Francis into our daily lives.'

THE STORY OF DOROTHEA LYNDE DIX. Cloth 1/- net. Paper covers 6d. net.

The New Age says: 'The story of the noble devotion and self-sacrifice of this brave, beautiful soul is told in a way that cannot fail to do anyone good who reads it. The magnificent work done for the poor and friendless lunatics by Dorothea Dix places her in the front rank of the world's latter-day saints.'

Davis, Valentine D., B.A.

THE EPISTLES OF ST. PAUL TO THE PHILIPPIANS AND TO PHILEMON. Explained and Illustrated. Cloth 1/- net.

'... Far more to our mind is the choice, careful, and thoughtful little book by Valentine D. Davis, B.A. Such a book as this is worth cartloads of certain theological publications; it does great credit to the series and to its author.'—Christian World.

Dendy, John

SUCCESSFUL LIFE. A Series of Essays. Cloth 2/- net.

'These frank and well-considered addresses would make a good foundation for a useful course of lessons. Apart from class work this is also an excellent book to put into the hands of a young man for his own study.'—Christian World.

THE LARGER LIFE. A Way through Experience towards the Truth. Cloth 2/6 net.

The Challenge says — 'We do not know any book fuller than this of the kind of religion that a layman needs. . . . It is an excellent book.'

* * A Classified list will be found at the end of this Catalogue.

Lee, E. Rosalind

THE PILGRIM FATHERS, their Trials and Adventures. Illustrated by Alice M. Odgers. Cloth 1/- net.

The aim of this short account of the Pilgrim Fathers is to give our young people some idea of the hardships and trials that faced those who first sought refuge in America from religious persecution.

Martineau, Gertrude

LIFE IN EARNEST. Talks to Children. Cloth 1/- net.

This little volume consists of twenty-nine Stories and Addresses contributed to the Children's Column of The Inquirer, and republished in permanent form in response to many requests.

Martineau, M. C.

MORAL AND RELIGIOUS LESSONS FOR INFANTS. Sewed 6d. net.

These lessons were written many years ago for a small Infant School in Suffolk. They have been borrowed for use in two Sunday Schools, a fact which has suggested that they might be useful for a wider circle of readers than those for whom they were originally written.

Tarrant, W. G., B.A.

OUR FAITH: STUDIES IN RELIGION. Paper covers 6d. net.

It seeks to present OUR FAITH in its clearest and most definite form and, at the same time, to indicate its relation to the general religious life of mankind.—Preface.

HOME PRAYERS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE. 1/- net.

The Inquirer says:—To write prayers for children of various ages, from infancy to adolescence, is not an easy task. It requires a wide range of sympathy, a certain delicacy of feeling and touch, combined with a simplicity which is free from childishness. That Mr. Tarrant has succeeded so well ought to ensure for his book a place in every home where there are children. It supplies a long-felt want.

Tavener, Lucking

LESSONS FROM THE PAINTERS. With 15 Illustrations.
Cloth 2/- net.

During thirty years of ministry, including pulpit, platform, and class work, I have found the use of works of Art most valuable. At the annual meeting of the Sunday School Association, I ventured to urge its advantage to Sunday School teachers; and this little book is the outcome of that address. It is written in order to show how reproductions of pictures might be used to illustrate ideals and duties.—From Preface.

Thomas, A. Hermann, M.A.

THE EARLY CHURCH. Its Orders and Institutions. 2/6 net.

This little volume is a sequel to the manual entitled Christianity and the Roman Empire. Assuming the relations to the State described in that book, it endeavours to delineate in simple terms the complicated phases of the internal growth and organization of the Church.

Thornhill, Albert, M.A.

HEROES OF FAITH: From Wiclif to Priestley. With 14 Illustrations. Cloth 2/- net.

In writing this little book the author has been impelled by the conviction that our young people have only to learn the story of the lives of the great Heroes of Faith to be moved with the desire to emulate their noble examples in the field of daily duty.

1920

EDITED BY
W. COPELAND BOWIE, D.D.

Thirty-first Year of Issue

THE BRITISH AND FOREIGN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION
ESSEX HALL, ESSEX STREET, STRAND, LONDON, W.C.2.

PRINTED BY ELSOM AND CO., LTD
MARKET PLACE, HULL.

PREFACE

THE ESSEX HALL YEAR BOOK for 1920, now in its 31st year without change of Editor, contains the names of 343 Ministers and 6 Lay Workers in Great Britain and Ireland, and 13 Ministers in the British Dominions across the seas. The alterations, additions, and omissions in the list of Ministers have been made on the recommendation of a small committee representing the Association, the Conference, and the Ministerial Fellowship. Eleven Ministers have died ; six others, for various reasons, have been omitted.

The names of the following Ministers appear in the Year Book for the first time :—David Conwil Evans (formerly a United Free Church of Scotland minister), Edgar Walford Hill (educated, 1915-19, at M.C.O.), Leonard John Hines (formerly a Congregational minister), Walter Murray (educated, 1916-19, at H.M.C.), Edward Ernest Wrigley (educated, 1915-17, at M.C.O.), John Yeomans (formerly a Baptist minister).

Sam Crook, E. Rosalind Lee, having completed a period of probationary service as Lay Workers, are now regarded as belonging to the regular ministry. In transferring the name of a Lay Worker to the list of Ministers, the period of service as a Lay Worker is indicated.

The names of E. J. Bowden and H. Westwood, formerly in the Colonial list, have been omitted, as they are now in the United States ; the names of Wilfred Harris (Adelaide) and W. E. Williams (Auckland), on their return to England, have been transferred to the home list of Ministers. The name of Georges Salim Kukhi has been inserted on his going as a Missionary to Egypt ; Walter G. Letham has been reinserted on his going to Winnipeg ; and Albert Thornhill has been transferred from the home list of Ministers as he is going out to Auckland, N.Z., early in 1920.

The name of Frank G. Fincham (Dingley Place Mission, London), appears in the list of Lay Workers for the first time.

Of the Ministers, 113 were educated at Manchester College : this number includes 13 students from the Unitarian Home Missionary College, and 5 from the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen ; 109 Ministers were educated at the Unitarian Home Missionary College, Manchester, and 23 at the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen ; 48 Ministers were educated at ' orthodox ' theological Colleges ; 3 were educated at Unitarian Colleges in America ; 15 Ministers have had a University or College education without special theological training ; 50 have had no College or University training.

250 Ministers and 6 Lay Workers are in charge of Congregations ; 6 are employed as tutors in our colleges, secretaries of associations, editors of papers, and district ministers ; 8 are engaged in work not connected with the denomination ; 13 Ministers are apparently open to accept ministerial appointments ; 66 Ministers have retired from active work.

The list of Congregations contains 368 places of worship ; 287 in England ; 38 in Ireland ; 35 in Wales ; 8 in Scotland. Services at University Hall, London, have been discontinued, also at Perth.

In December, 1919, the following pulpits were vacant, or about to become vacant :—England—Banbury, Birmingham (Hurst Street), Blackpool (Lytham Road), Boston, Ipswich, London (Highgate, Islington, Kilburn), Manchester (Failsworth, Gorton, Oldham Road), Mansfield, Nelson, Preston, Selby, Sheffield (Unity Church), Swinton, Warwick, West Kirby. Ireland—Banbridge. Wales—Merthyr, Pontypridd. About 60 congregations rely for the most part upon lay preachers.

The Essex Hall Hymnal is used by 187 congregations ; ‘ Hymns of Praise and Prayer ’ by 14 ; ‘ Hymns for the Christian Church and Home ’ by 4. In Ireland 12 congregations use ‘ Hymns for Christian Worship ’ ; in Wales 20 use ‘ Pearls of Praise.’ The Berwick Hymnal is used by 15 congregations, the New Hymnal (Novello) by 82 ; nearly 30 congregations use selections more or less peculiar to themselves. Liturgies are used by 110 congregations.

Every care is taken to bring the information up to date—not always an easy task, as several ministers and secretaries do not take the trouble to return the Forms. To the large number of correspondents who have promptly replied the Editor is most grateful : without their assistance the Year Book could not be prepared.

W. COPELAND BOWIE.

MINISTERS

The list contains the name and address, college, university degree, date of entering ministry, and congregations served by the following :—

(1) Ministers in charge of Unitarian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing Congregations in Great Britain and Ireland.

(2) Ministers, formerly settled with Congregations, now engaged as professors, tutors, missionaries, secretaries, etc.

(3) Ministers in charge of Unitarian Congregations in Australia, New Zealand, Canada, and South Africa.

(4) Ministers who have resigned their pastorates, or who have retired from active duty, but who have not withdrawn from the ministry. These names are printed in italic.

ADMISSION OF NAMES

(1) The name of any Minister regularly appointed by a Congregation or a Missionary Society to conduct religious services, and to take charge of the work of the Church or Society, is inserted in the list.

(2) He is described as a 'Minister,' if he (a) holds the certificate of having completed the theological curriculum at Manchester College, Oxford, the Unitarian Home Missionary College, Manchester, the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen, or at Harvard or Meadville, U.S.A. ; or (b) has previously been in the ministry of another denomination, or educated for the ministry in another denomination, at home or abroad, and has (if required) satisfied an Advisory Committee respecting his character and general fitness ; or (c) having been a Lay Worker is certificated as a Minister.

Note.—Managers of Benevolent, Fellowship, Pension, Sustentation, and other Funds are under no obligation to admit a Minister to benefits simply because his name appears in the Year Book.

OMISSION OF NAMES

(2) On his becoming minister in another denomination, the name is omitted, unless a personal request is made for its retention.

(3) The names of ministers who have ceased to reside in the United Kingdom are omitted, but may on their personal application be included.

(4) The names are omitted of those who have withdrawn from the ministry to engage in secular pursuits, or who for five years have had no active connexion with our churches or work. This rule does not apply to those who are temporarily out of service, or to those who, having been in the regular ministry, have retired by reason of age or infirmity.

(5) The names of persons are omitted whose character and conduct have, in the opinion of an Advisory Committee, a District Society, or the joint Committee, unfitted them for continuing to hold the office of a minister.

CONGREGATIONS

The list contains the location, the date of foundation, the hours of service, the hymn book in use, the name and address of the Secretary, the name of the Minister, Missionary, or Lay Worker of :—

(a) All duly organized Unitarian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing Congregations in Great Britain and Ireland.

(b) Pioneer movements holding regular meetings for worship.

(c) Places of worship closed at present, but not finally given up.

The date following the name and address of the congregation indicates the year in which it was founded, which is not necessarily the date of the existing building ; when two or more dates are given, the last refers to the erection of the present building.

Under each Congregation the names of the present and the more recent Ministers are given. Those printed in italic are deceased.

Important to Congregations

As much injury has been done both to congregations and to the ministry by the appointment of unsuitable persons, congregations are advised to take no steps in respect to the selection or appointment of any Minister whose name does not appear in the Year Book.

ABBREVIATIONS

Colleges : M.N.C.= Manchester New College (altered in 1893 to Manchester College, M.C.O.), Oxford ; H.M.C.=Unitarian Home Missionary College (altered in 1889 from Board), Manchester ; Car.= Presbyterian College, Carmarthen.

PIONEER PREACHERS

HOSTEL: Unity House, 23 Highbury Place, London, N. 5.

IN RESIDENCE, 1920

VICTOR A. CALLOW, W. C. NEWTON, W. B. TAVENER, BASIL VINEY.

THE PIONEER PREACHERS' movement owes its inception to the Rev. R. J. Campbell, M.A., and was an outcome of the New Theology propaganda. When Mr. Campbell retired from the Presidency of the Liberal Christian League the movement was transferred to a new committee acting under the auspices of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association. The Pioneer Preachers are responsible for the missionary work and oversight of several churches in London and elsewhere. In May, 1914, a new Hostel was opened at 23 Highbury Place, London. The premises, including freehold site, alterations, and equipment, cost £1,400. Secretary and Superintendent, Rev. J. A. Pearson, 4 Ella Road, Crouch Hill, London, N. 8.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

The British and Foreign Unitarian Association was constituted in 1825. It arose out of the union of three Societies supported by Unitarians in all parts of the country :—(1) The Unitarian Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge and the Practice of Virtue, by the Distribution of Books, founded in 1791 ; (2) The Unitarian Fund, established in 1806, which may be regarded as the most important ; and (3) The Association for Protecting the Civil Rights of Unitarians, formed in 1819.

The Association is a national and international missionary organization. Its operations cover the British Isles, and Canada, Australia, New Zealand, India, Africa, and several European countries.

The Association assists in establishing and maintaining churches, especially in the early and difficult stages of their growth. It supports ministers, lecturers, and missionary preachers. It holds conferences and meetings in London and in different parts of the country.

The Association is the publication agency of the denomination. Books and pamphlets are issued dealing with the broader aspects of liberal religious thought and life, in addition to direct expositions of Unitarian Christianity. Publications intended for a wider public are issued under the name of 'The Lindsey Press' ; those of a denominational type with the imprint of the Association. Books are frequently presented to public libraries, ministers, and lay preachers. Thousands of Unitarian tracts are distributed, in response to applications from congregations, postal missions, and inquirers in all parts of the world.

The Association is supported by the subscriptions of individuals, collections from congregations, sales of publications, and income from investments. The serviceableness of the Association and the range of its operations are dependent upon the generosity of congregations and of individual Unitarians.

The Association was Incorporated, 28 July, 1915 ; and may now be appointed a Trustee of Chapels, Endowments, and other Funds.

Officers.—President : Mr. Richard D. Holt ; Treasurer : Mr. Harold Wade ; Solicitor : Mr. Howard Young, LL.B. ; Chairman of Committee : Mr. Ronald P. Jones, M.A. ; Secretary : Rev. W. Copeland Bowie, D.D.

Book Room and Office.—Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London. The Book Room is open Monday to Friday 9 to 5.30 ; Saturday 9 to 1.

Meetings : 1920.—The Committee of the Association will meet at 3 p.m. on Wednesdays :—14 Jan., 11 Feb., 10 March, 14 April, 12 May, 14 July, 13 October, 10 November, 8 December. The Finance, Mission, Publications, Scottish, and other SUBCOMMITTEES meet the week before the Executive Committee, and communications respecting Grants and other important business should reach the Secretary at Essex Hall at least ten days before these dates.

The Council of the Association will meet in March and October on dates to be announced. The Provincial Meetings in November.

Association Sunday will be 21 November, when Collections on behalf of the Funds of the Association will be taken in our Churches.

The Anniversary Meetings in 1920 will be held in London during Whit-week : Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, 25, 26, 27 May.

MINISTERS' STIPEND AUGMENTATION FUNDS ENGLAND

Ministers' Stipend Augmentation Fund (1856).—Object: The encouragement of ministers of congregations in England assembling for the public worship of God, the members or ministers of which shall not be required to subscribe or assent to any articles of religious belief, or submit to any test of religious doctrine. The Fund is upwards of £50,000; annual subscriptions £150. Treasurer, Richard D. Holt, India Buildings, Liverpool. Applications for grants should be made in the month of April to the Secretary, B. P. Burroughs, 15 Sweeting Street, Liverpool.

Sustentation Fund for the Augmentation of Ministers' Stipends (1883).—Object: To aid in the maintenance of faithful and efficient ministers of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing or Kindred Congregations as regularly assemble for the public worship of God. In 1912 it was resolved to raise an additional Fund of £50,000 with the view of securing subject to certain conditions a minimum stipend to all accredited ministers of such congregations as aforesaid in England and Wales. Board of twenty-seven Managers, of whom twelve are elected by the contributors, six by the Board, six by the National Conference, and three by the British and Foreign Unitarian Association. Managers are elected for three years and are then eligible for re-election. The Board meets in June to consider applications for grants. Forms of application should be obtained from the Secretary during the month of March. The Fund consists of investments amounting to about £83,000 and annual subscriptions amounting to about £350. Treasurer, Harold F. Pearson, 22 College Hill, London, E.C. 4; Secretary, Ronald P. Jones, 7 Stone Buildings, Lincoln's Inn, London, W.C. 2.

IRELAND

Irish Sustentation Fund (1914).—A sum of £11,000 was raised by subscription and capitalized under the charge of lay trustees appointed by the General Synod of the Non-Subscribing Church of Ireland. The interest on such capital, together with congregational contributions at the fixed rate of five per cent per annum on the minister's stipend from all sources, exclusive of manse, is applied in augmenting the stipends of ministers. Secretary, H. Thomas, 19 Holland Park, Knock, Co. Down.

Sustentation Fund (1871).—This Fund, which is connected with the ten congregations of the Remonstrant Synod of Ulster, supplies the place of the 'Regium Donum,' which granted annually £69 4s. 8d. to each minister. The Fund amounts to about £12,600, income £610 per annum. The proceeds are distributed amongst the ministers of the congregations which from 1872 have contributed a minimum of 4s. per stipend payer per annum to the Fund. Each minister receives at present £68 a year, if not still enjoying 'Regium Donum' or its equivalent. Treasurer, William McRobert, Ulster Bank, Belfast; Secretary, Rev. J. A. Kelly, The Glebe, Dunmurry, Co. Antrim.

Dublin Fund (1751).—This Fund, capital £600, is for the relief of ministers and their widows, and is administered in connexion with the Presbytery of Antrim. Treasurer, Rev. James Kennedy, Larne.

Dunbar Fund (1871).—This Fund consists of a sum of £2,000, conveyed by the late Miss Jane Dunbar, of Huntly, Banbridge, the interest on which to be applied for the benefit of not more than eight and not less than four struggling, necessitous, and deserving congregations in connexion with the Remonstrant Synod of Ulster. The Trustees of the First Presbyterian Congregation, Banbridge, administer the Fund. Treasurer, W. Lindsay, Ballydown, Banbridge.

SCOTLAND

McQuaker Fund (1889).—Bequest of nearly £30,000, by William McQuaker, of Glasgow, to the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, the interest to be applied in maintaining and diffusing the principles of Unitarian Christianity in Scotland by supplementing the salaries of ministers of non-self-supporting congregations who can show such an amount of congregational income as shall attest to the satisfaction of the Committee a living interest in the work; by contributing to the support of missionary preachers; by the distribution of tracts, controversial and practical, in a cheap and popular form; and by such other means as may seem advisable to the Committee of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association. Secretary, Rev. W. Copeland Bowie, Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C.2.

MINISTERS SOCIETIES AND MEETINGS

Ministers' Pension and Insurance Fund (1902).—To assist Ministers to make provision for their old age and for their families after their death. 'Minister' does not include Lay Preacher or Lay Worker. The Fund is administered by a Board of twelve Managers, four of whom are Ministers. The income of the Fund, in the first instance, is employed in assisting Ministers to pay the premiums on benefit policies effected by them with the Equitable Life Assurance Society. After the Managers have made provision for paying their proportion of such premiums, they may employ the balance of the income in assisting any Minister, not insured as above, and still in active service, to make provision for his old age, and for his family after his death, in such manner as they may think best. The Philip Holt Fund, administered by the Board, is to be applied at the discretion of the Managers, as an addition to its capital, or in aid of Ministers in active service, or both. Among other useful application of its resources, it gives assistance in suitable cases towards insurance for Children's Education and in special cases. The number of beneficiary members on the books is 142, of whom seventeen are in receipt of pensions or annuities. The representatives of twelve deceased beneficiary members have received £2,863 7s. 9d. by way of insurance. Treasurer, Sir Edgar Chatfield-Clarke, 102 Bishopsgate, London, E.C. 2; Secretary, Rev. C. J. Street, Redhill, Tansley, near Matlock.

Ministers Benevolent Society (1852).—Objects: Affording relief to such Unitarian Ministers in Great Britain as from age or infirmity may be prevented from discharging the public duties of their office, and for the aid of the widows and families of any such ministers as may be left without adequate means of support. Capital, £74,853. Secretary, E. E. Townley, 65 Temple Row, Birmingham.

Ministerial Fellowship (1899).—Objects: To assist in the support of Members who are temporarily without ministerial charge; and to afford counsel and brotherly aid to Members. The Fellowship is represented on the Ministerial Settlements Board, the Committee on the Supply of Ministers, and the Joint-Committee for the Revision of the List of Ministers in the Year Book. Number of Members on the roll, 242. Secretary, Rev. C. J. Street, Redhill, Tansley, near Matlock.

Missionary Conference (1860).—An Association for the promotion and encouragement of missionary labours for the spread of Liberal Christianity. Annual meeting in July on the Thursday following the U.H.M.C. Examinations. Secretary, Rev. W. T. Bushrod, The Manse, Park Street, Chorley.

Yorkshire Ministers Union (1906).—Quarterly meetings are held, at which papers are read and discussed. Secretary, Rev. J. M. Bass, 60 Batley Road, Wakefield.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

'The National Conference of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing or Kindred Congregations' had its origin in the example set by the Unitarians of the United States of America, who had organized a 'National Conference of Unitarian and other Christian Churches' in 1865. At a Council Meeting of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, held 19 January, 1881, it was resolved:—'That the Executive Committee be requested to consider the possibility and desirableness of holding a Unitarian Conference in England, and to ascertain the feeling of the larger Congregations, and report to the next meeting of the Council.' On 24 June, 1881, a Committee was formed to make arrangements for a meeting of ministers and laymen in some central district for Religious Fellowship and Conference. Beginning with Liverpool, twelve triennial meetings have been held, 1882-1915. The next meeting will be held in Leeds in April, 1920.

Triennial Meetings.—(1) Liverpool, 1882; (2) Birmingham, 1885; (3) Leeds, 1888; (4) London, 1891; (5) Manchester, 1894; (6) Sheffield, 1897; (7) Leicester, 1900; (8) Liverpool, 1903; (9) Oxford, 1906; (10) Bolton, 1909; (11) Birmingham, 1912; (12) London, 1915.

Officers.—President, Mr. Hugh R. Rathbone, M.A., Liverpool; Treasurer, Mr. T. Fletcher Robinson, 117 Claremont Road, Pendleton, Manchester. Secretary, Rev. C. M. Wright, M.A., North Cote, Mines Avenue, Aigburth, Liverpool.

Advisory Committees.—(1) Lancashire and Cheshire (Sec., Rev. Dendy Agate, B.A.); (2) London, the Midlands, and the Southern and Eastern Counties (Sec., Rev. Joseph Wood); (3) North Midlands, Yorkshire, Northumberland and Durham (Sec., Rev. W. R. Shanks); (4) Western Union (Sec., Rev. Rudolf Davis, B.A.); (5) South Wales (Sec., Rev. W. J. Phillips). The chief function of Advisory Committees is to inquire into the credentials of Ministers from other Denominations.

Ministerial Settlements Board.—When requested by Congregations, the Board undertakes to recommend for vacant Pulpits Ministers whom it considers the most suitable. Secretary, Rev. C. M. Wright.

Reading Scheme for Lay Workers.—A course of Reading extending over three years, has been prepared by a Committee of the National Conference, for Lay Workers. It embraces the study of the Old and New Testaments, Church History, the Philosophy of Religion, and Ministerial and Sunday School Work. A copy of the revised prospectus will be supplied on application to Rev. C. M. Wright.

INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS

'The International Council of Unitarian and other Liberal Religious Thinkers and Workers' was organized at Boston, U.S.A., 25 May, 1900. In 1910 its title was changed to 'The International Congress of Free Christians and other Religious Liberals' (in French, 'Congrès International des Chrétiens libéraux et d'autres libre-croyants,' and in German, 'Welt-Kongress für freies Christentum und religiösen Fortschritt'). The purpose of the Congress is 'to open communication with those in all lands who are striving to unite pure religion and perfect liberty, and to increase fellowship and co-operation among them.' It seeks to bring into closer union for exchange of ideas, mutual service, and the promotion of their common aims the historic liberal churches, the liberal elements in all churches, scattered liberal congregations, and isolated workers for religious freedom and progress in many lands.

Meetings of the International Congress were held in London (1901), Amsterdam (1903), Geneva (1905), Boston, U.S.A. (1907), Berlin (1910), and Paris (1913). It was intended to hold meetings of the International Congress in London in 1916, but the great War made this impossible. Secretary, Rev. C. W. Wendte, D.D., 165 Hunnewell Avenue, Newton, Mass., U.S.A.

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

The American Unitarian Association was organized 25 May, 1825. Its object is 'to diffuse the knowledge and promote the interests of pure Christianity.' Offices and Book Rooms, 25 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. President, Rev. Samuel A. Eliot, D.D.; Secretary, Rev. Louis C. Cornish; Treasurer, Henry M. Williams. There are also Unitarian Book Rooms at Chicago, 105 South Dearborn Street; New York, 104 East 20th Street; San Francisco, 570 Phelan Building. The General Conference of Unitarian and other Christian Churches held its first meeting in 1865. It is simply a 'Conference.' It 'adopts the existing organizations of the Unitarian body as the instruments of its activity, and confines itself to recommending to them such undertakings and methods as it judges to be in the heart of its constituency.' The Unitarian Association is 'the executive arm of the Unitarian body, and the working missionary organization of the Unitarian churches in America.'

Canadian Unitarian Association (1913).—Chairman of Executive, W. P. Hinton, Winnipeg; Treasurer, E. J. Ransom, Winnipeg.

Japan Unitarian Association.—Secretary, Nobuichiro Imaoka, 2 Shikokumachi, Mita, Shiba, Tokio, Japan.

LIBERAL RELIGIOUS MOVEMENTS ABROAD

Outside the United States of America, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, and Hungary, Liberal religious movements seldom employ the Unitarian name; but in different parts of the world there are several congregations and many individuals in substantial agreement with Unitarians. The information given in the Year Book for 1914 respecting Liberal religion in Foreign Countries required careful revision; but the War made revision practically impossible; in another year it is hoped to compile a new record.

EDUCATION OF MINISTERS

MANCHESTER COLLEGE, OXFORD.—Founded at Manchester, 22 February, 1786 (though clearly tracing its ancestry to the earliest Nonconformist Academy, opened by Richard Frankland, one of the ejected clergy, in the year 1670); removed to York in 1803; restored to Manchester in 1840; transferred to London in 1853; removed to Oxford in 1889; New Buildings, Mansfield Road, Oxford, opened October, 1893.

College Studies.—The Curriculum of the College is designed both for Students for the Ministry of Religion and for others who wish to obtain a special knowledge of theological and philosophical subjects. The full course, provided for 'Regular Students,' extends over three years; but Students desiring to avail themselves of only a portion of it may, at the discretion of the Committee, be admitted for shorter periods, under the name of 'Special Students.'

Teaching Staff.—Principal and Professor of Philosophy—Rev. L. P. JACKS, M.A., D.D., LL.D., D.Litt.; Rev. HENRY GOW, B.A., D.D.—New Testament and Early Christian History; The Work of the Ministry; Rev. D. C. SIMPSON, M.A.—Old Testament and Hebrew; Mr. LACHLAN MACRAE, M.A.—Reader in History of Doctrine.

Rev. CHARLES BARNES UPTON, B.A., B.Sc.—Emeritus Professor of Philosophy.

Special Lecturers.—Professor JOHN BURNET (University of St. Andrews), Professor B. W. BACON (Yale University, U.S.A.), Rev. Dr. J. E. CARPENTER, M.A., Professor FOSTER WATSON (University College of Wales), and others.

Secretaries, P. M. OLIVER, B.A., High Croft, Park Road, Bowdon, Altrincham, and Rev. HENRY GOW, B.A., D.D., 12 Glenloch Road, Hampstead, London, N.W.3.; Assistant Secretary, C. E. MARSHALL, 38 Barton Arcade, Manchester.

UNITARIAN HOME MISSIONARY COLLEGE.—Established under the title of the Unitarian Home Missionary Board in 1854; altered in 1889 to Unitarian Home Missionary College. The College adheres to the principle of freely imparting theological knowledge, without insisting on the adoption of particular theological doctrines. In the year 1904 the College celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its foundation, and in commemoration of this event a Memorial Fund of £20,000 was raised to provide Collegiate and Residential buildings at Summerville, Victoria Park, Manchester. A residence for the Warden and twelve students has been provided. The building was opened 4 October, 1905.

Collegiate Course.—The Collegiate Course covers five years: an Arts Curriculum of two years, and a Theological Curriculum of three years. A shorter course may be taken in exceptional cases.

Admission of Students.—Students may be admitted to the Collegiate Course after having attained the age of eighteen years; and to the Theological Curriculum (a) After having completed the Arts Curriculum; or, (b) After having obtained a degree; or, (c) After having attained the age of 25 years, and shown special aptitude for the work of the ministry.

Scholarships.—The Tate Scholarship is of the annual value of £70 and may be held for one, two, or three years. The Gaskell Scholarship is of the annual value of £70. The tenure of the Scholarship is for one year. The Durning-Smith Scholarship is of the annual value of £90. Its purpose is to enable promising students to take a degree at the Victoria University, and it is tenable for one year. The Sharpe Hungarian Scholarship for Hungarian Students was founded in 1911 by the late Miss Emily Sharpe.

Wood Trust Fund (1850).—Bequest by the late Rev. Samuel Wood for assisting the training of male and female teachers for public elementary schools. The Trustees consider applications from pupil teachers who, having duly served their apprenticeship, propose to enter a Training College. Secretary and Treasurer, Charles Fenton, I.S.O. 10 Vineyard Hill, Wimbledon.

Workers Aid Society (1891).—Object: To aid the workers at the Invalid Children's Convalescent Hospital Home, Winifred House and the various Missions in poor districts, by supplying them with clothing. Secretary, Miss M. Barmby, Mount Pleasant, Sidmouth.

LEGAL INFORMATION

Births, Registration.—Parents are required to register the birth of their children at the Registrar's office for the district in which they reside, within six weeks. Penalty of 40s. for default. There is no charge for such registration.

Deaths, Registration.—Deaths must be registered within five days. The nearest relative present at the death or during the last illness is the responsible person, or should there be no relative present, then the occupier of the house, or the person who causes the body to be buried. Penalty for default, 40s. The doctor's certificate must be produced to the Registrar at the time of registration; and the Registrar's certificate to the officiating minister at the interment.

Registration of Chapels.—All places of worship should be registered. Registration is effected by giving a certificate in writing that the Chapel is used for worship to the Superintendent-Registrar of the District on a form which he will supply on application. The fee on registration is 2s. 6d., and a certified copy of the Registrar-General's certificate of the registration can be obtained for a further payment of 2s. 6d. Registered places of worship are exempt from the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Acts. When a place of worship is rebuilt, either on the same or another site, the old certificate of registration must be cancelled and the place re-registered.

Registration for Marriages.—A place of worship must, before marriages can legally be celebrated therein, in addition to being registered as above mentioned, be separately registered for the performance of marriages. Before registering a place for marriages, the Superintendent-Registrar of the District must be satisfied by certificate that the building has been used for worship for one year previous to the application. A fee of £3 is payable, and the Registration is advertised in the London Gazette and in a local newspaper. When a chapel ceases to be used for worship or is rebuilt, the Certificate is cancelled, and in that case it requires to be renewed if worship is resumed. When a congregation has removed from one chapel to another, and the old building has ceased to be used as a place of public worship, the Certificate of the old chapel may be cancelled, and the new building registered for the solemnization of marriages, without waiting for a year to elapse. All necessary forms and information will be supplied by the Superintendent-Registrar of the District.

Marriages : England and Wales.—Marriages may be solemnized in any registered building, or in a district registry office either by Certificate or by Licence. If by Certificate, notice (accompanied with fee of 1s. for entry in 'Marriage Notice Book') must be given by one of the parties, if both live in one district, to the Superintendent-Registrar, on form furnished for purpose, containing solemn declaration of absence of impediment to intended marriage, certifying that one of the parties has dwelt at least seven days in district, and must be signed in presence of Registrar or deputy; but if parties live in different districts, notices must be sent to respective Superintendent-Registrars. Twenty-one clear days after entry of notice the Certificate (for which 1s. must be paid) will be granted on application.

If by licence, though both parties do not dwell in same district, only one need give notice, certifying that he or she has resided at least fifteen days in district, though marriage may be held in district of either party. Both parties, however, must be in England at the time of notice, though only one clear day is required (unless marriage take place in Ireland with some one there, when seven days are required) between notice and granting of licence. Cost of Licence, £2 2s.

If usual 'place of worship' at which ceremony is desired, be out of district of either's dwelling, by inserting words :—'Such building being usual place of worship of said——, and situate not more than two miles beyond limits of district of——,' Certificate will be granted accordingly.

The marriage must take place in registered building specified in Certificate, with open doors, between the hours of eight in the morning and three in the afternoon, within three calendar months from day of entry of notice, in presence of Registrar (or his deputy, or, if the Marriage Act of 1898 has been adopted, in the presence of the Authorized Person) and two or more credible witnesses besides minister, if any. At some part of ceremony the words must be said :—'I do solemnly declare that I know not of any lawful impediment why I—— may not be joined in matrimony to——'; and each must say to other : 'I call upon these persons here present to witness that I—— do take thee—— to be my lawful wedded wife (or husband)'; without which it is not a marriage.

Registrar's fee for attending marriage by Certificate, 5s. ; by Licence, 10s. ; for Copy of Certificate, 2s. 6d., and stamp 1d.

By the Marriage Act, 1898 (61 & 62 Vic. c. 58), marriage may be solemnized in the registered building named in the Superintendent's Certificate without the presence of any Registrar, but in the presence of such duly Authorized Person as mentioned in the Statute. The Statute provides for the notices and forms required to be given or complied with and the registers to be kept.

Marriage with a Deceased Wife's Sister was legalized by Act of Parliament, August, 1907.

Marriages : Ireland.—Marriages according to the form and discipline of the Presbyterian Church may be celebrated—(1) By special licence ; (2) By licence ; or (3) After publication of banns.

(1) In the first case both parties must be members of the same Church as the Moderator who grants the Special Licence.

(2) Ordinary Licences can be granted when only one of the parties is a Presbyterian. Each Presbytery is authorized to appoint, subject to the approval of the Lord Lieutenant, ministers to issue licences for marriage in Meeting Houses duly certified.

Anyone wishing to obtain a Licence must, seven days before the licence shall be delivered to him or her, produce to the licensing minister a certificate from the minister of the congregation of which he or she shall be a member and has been a member for at least one calendar month preceding.

(3) When both parties are Presbyterians, marriages may be celebrated after the banns have been proclaimed for three Sundays in the Presbyterian meeting-houses attended by each of the parties.

Marriages : Scotland.—The ceremony can be performed by the minister of any denomination, in any place, at any time, with or without any particular form. The law has been amended so as to put an end, as far as possible, to what were known as 'irregular' marriages. Legal notice must now be given to the Registrar of the parish or district, the names of the contracting parties being exhibited for seven days on the notice board outside the office of the Registrar in whose district the parties have resided for at least fifteen days immediately preceding. At the expiration of the period named a Certificate will be granted, and on this the marriage may take place either in a church or elsewhere. Any person who has resided for at least twenty-one days in Scotland may be married by going to the Registrar's office in the district in which he or she may reside, accompanied by two witnesses who can certify as to the term of residence, and exchanging written contract with the other party, afterwards proceeding to the County Sheriff's chambers to have the Marriage Registered.

Burial Act, 1880.—Wherever there is a Cemetery there is no difficulty in the way of a Nonconformist minister conducting a funeral service. The Act of Parliament of 1890 authorizes any person responsible for the burial of a body to give forty-eight hours notice to the incumbent of the parish in which the death took place, or in his absence to his deputy, that it is intended that the body shall be buried in the churchyard of the parish without the Church of England service. The Act allowed a like notice to be given to the chaplain of a parochial cemetery if a burial was intended to be made there; but the Burial Act, 1900 (63 & 64 Vic. c. 15, s. 3) requires that in the last-mentioned case the notice shall be given at such time and to such person as the burial authority directs. It is therefore necessary in that case to inquire at the office of the cemetery, and to give such notice as the rules of the cemetery prescribe.

In the case of burials in churchyards the form of notice is specified in the Act of 1880, and the requirements are as follows:—

The Notice must be in writing; must be endorsed on the outside 'Notice of Burial'; must be signed with the name and address of the person giving it, and be in the form, or to the effect, following:—

I, _____, of _____, being the relative [or friend, or legal representative, as the case may be, describing the relation, if a relative] having the charge of, or being responsible for, the burial of A. B., of _____, who died at _____, in the parish of _____, on the _____ day of _____, do hereby give you notice that it is intended by me that the body of the said A. B. shall be buried within the [here describe the churchyard or graveyard in which the body is to be buried] on the _____ day of _____, at the hour of _____, without the performance in the manner prescribed by law of the service for the burial of the dead according to the rites of the Church of England; and I give this notice pursuant to the Burial Laws Amendment Act, 1880.

To the Rector [or as the case may be] of _____ NOTE.—While it is desirable to keep to this form, the person receiving it will not be at liberty to object to its sufficiency, because the exact words are not used; the Act only requiring that the notice shall be in the form, 'or to the effect,' of the above.

In the case of a churchyard, the notice is to be left at the house of the clergyman, or in his absence, of the clergyman in charge of the parish, or of any person appointed to receive such notices. It is not necessary that the clergyman should consent to a burial under the Act. He can object only to the time proposed, and do that only in certain cases. Unless it be otherwise mutually arranged, burials must be between 10 and 6 o'clock from April 1st to October 1st, and between 10 and 3 from October 1st to April 1st.

A burial may take place either without 'any religious service' or 'with such Christian and orderly religious service' at the grave as the person responsible for the burial may think fit, and 'any person, or persons'—whether ministers or laymen—who may be invited or authorized, may conduct such service, or take part in any religious act thereat. The words 'Christian service' include 'every religious service used by any church, denomination, or person, professing to be Christian.'

The person having charge of a burial under the Act must, either on the same day or the day after, send to the incumbent or his representative—or, in the case of a Cemetery, to the clerk—a certificate of the burial in prescribed form.

I, _____, of _____, the person having the charge of [or, being responsible for] the burial of the deceased, do hereby certify that on the _____ day of _____, 191____, _____, aged _____, was buried in the churchyard [or graveyard] of the parish [or district] of _____

To the Rector [or as the case may be] of _____

The Act of 1880 does not entitle anyone to be buried in any place in which he would have no right to be buried if the Act had not passed. Neither does it affect previously existing regulations or authority in regard to the position of graves, inscriptions on gravestones, etc.

Burial Act, 1900.—This Act modifies the Act of 1880 in the case of the consecrated parts of parochial cemeteries. The Act does not deal with churchyards. In future, Burial Boards 'may, if they think fit,' apply to have a portion of the cemetery consecrated; formerly they were compelled to have a portion consecrated. Burial Boards are no longer compelled to erect two cemetery chapels, one for Anglicans and one for Nonconformists. They may erect any chapel 'they may consider necessary'; but any chapel so erected 'shall not be consecrated, or reserved for the exclusive use of any denomination.' The payment of fees to an incumbent of a parish will no longer be required 'except for services rendered by him.' In future, when a Nonconformist minister officiates in the consecrated part of a parochial cemetery, he, and not the clergyman, will receive the fee. These provisions apply to cemeteries opened after the passing of the Act. In the case of cemeteries already existing the old fees were continued for fifteen years, that is until 1915.

Cremation.—This is regulated by the Cremation Act, 1902, and the Regulations made by the Home Secretary in pursuance of that Act.

Charitable Trusts.—The Acts relating to Charitable Trusts give the Charity Commissioners very extensive jurisdiction over all charitable trusts (except certain exempted charities), and empower the Commissioners to inquire into the management of charities, to oblige their trustees to render accounts, to advise such trustees on the administration of the trusts, to authorize or direct legal proceedings to be taken, to authorize the granting of leases and making of improvements, and raising of money by mortgage, to authorize trustees to remove schoolmasters and other officers, to authorize the sale, exchange, or partitions of lands, to remove and appoint trustees, and to make new schemes for the administration of charities. Among the charities exempted from the operations of these Acts are any buildings registered as places of meeting for religious worship with the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, and bona fide used as places of meeting for religious worship. Exempted charities can, by application under certain sections of one of the Acts, have the benefits of the Acts extended to them.

Dissenters' Chapels Act, 1844. It is under this Act (7 & 8 Vic. c. 45), that many of the old Presbyterian Chapels are secured to the Unitarians. The Act provides in substance that where there is no express statement in the deed of foundation as to the particular doctrines for which a chapel was to be employed, twenty five years' usage shall be conclusive evidence of the legality of the doctrines.

Executors and their Duties.—Immediately on the death of a testator his personal property passes to his executors to be distributed (after the payment of his funeral expenses and debts) in the manner directed by the will. The real property also (except land of copyhold tenure or customary freehold) vests in the executors, who hold it as trustees for the persons beneficially entitled thereto, subject to a liability on account of the testator's debts, should the personal property which he leaves prove insufficient to pay them. They must take out a probate of the will, either personally or through a solicitor, either at Somerset House or at the Registry of the district in which the testator resided. The original will is then deposited in one of the registries of the Court, and the executors obtain a copy of it certified under the seal of the Probate Division. Estate duty is payable upon the principal value of all property, real or personal, settled or not settled, which passes on a death.

National Health Insurance Act, 1911.—By decision of the Commissioners (August, 1912), Unitarian Ministers are not required to be insured under the National Health Insurance Act.

Oaths Act, 1888.—This Act enacts that every person upon objecting to being sworn, and stating, as the ground of such objection, either that he has no religious belief, or that the taking of an oath is contrary to his religious belief, shall be permitted to make his solemn affirmation instead of taking an oath, in all places and for all purposes where an oath is or shall be required by law, which affirmation shall be of the same force and effect as if he had taken the oath. Every such affirmation shall be as follows:—‘I, A. B., do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare and affirm,’ and then proceed with the words of the oath prescribed by law, omitting any words of imprecation or calling to witness. If any person to whom an oath is administered desires to swear with uplifted hand in the form and manner in which an oath is usually administered in Scotland, he shall be permitted to do so, and the oath shall be administered to him in such form and manner without further question. By the Act of 1909, an alteration in the manner of administering oaths is authorized.

Rates, Exemption from.—It is enacted by 3 & 4 William IV. c. 30, that ‘no person or persons shall be rated, or shall be liable to be rated to, or to pay any church or poor rates or cesses for, or in respect of, any churches, district churches, chapels, meeting-houses, or premises, or such part thereof, as shall be exclusively appropriated to public religious worship, and which shall be ‘registered under 18 & 19 Vic. c. 81, as a place of meeting for religious worship. ' Provided always that no person or persons shall be hereby exempted from any such rates or cesses, for or in respect of, any parts of such churches, district churches, chapels, meeting-houses, or other premises which are not so exclusively appropriated, and from which parts not so exclusively appropriated, such person or persons shall receive any rent or rents or shall derive profit or advantage.' Section 2 proceeds, ' Provided always that no person or persons shall be liable to any such rates or cesses because the said churches, district churches, chapels, meeting-houses, or other premises, or any vestry-rooms belonging thereto or any part thereof, may be used for Sunday or infant schools, or for the charitable education of the poor.' It is difficult to say what user of part of a chapel or school premises would bring the case within the exception from the exemption.

Workmen's Compensation Act, 1907.—It is desirable to insure the minister (if in receipt of a salary under £250 per annum); the chapel-keeper, and where there is an understanding (written or otherwise) that the wife or any member of the family helps, the helper also; any charwoman or other person employed regularly though for only and perhaps a part of a day a week; the grave-digger, if any; the organist and blower and members of the choir, if paid; also any Bible-women or nurses. Where the chapel-keeper regularly employs any charwoman or other person to help, an insurance should be taken out for the benefit of the chapel-keeper in respect of the persons helping, as he would probably be liable under the Act.

Recent Statutes.—The following Acts of Parliament may be usefully consulted on the subjects named: 18 & 19 Vic. c. 81, Places of Religious Worship Registration Act; 55 & 56 Vic. c. 11, Mortmain and Charitable Uses Act Amendment; c. 32; 56 & 57 Vic. c. 53, Trustee Act, 1893; 57 & 58 Vic. c. 35, Charitable Trusts (Places of Religious Worship Amendment Act, 1894); 60 & 61 Vic. c. 5, Marriage Act, 1898; 62 & 63 Vic. c. 32, Burial Act, 1900, c. 15; Factory and Workshops Act, 1901, c. 22; Cremation Act, 1902, c. 8; Marriage Legalization Act, 1903, c. 26; Elementary Education Amendment Act, 1903, c. 13; Employment of Children Act, 1903, c. 45; Shop Hours Act, 1904, c. 31; Prevention of Cruelty to Children Act, 1904, c. 15; Education (Provision of Meals Act), 1906, 6 Ed. APPOINTMENT OF NEW TRUSTEES

This may be made under the Act of 1850 (13 & 14 Vic. c. 28), generally known as Sir Morton Peto's Act, and the Acts of 1869 and 1890 extending the same, now together called the 'Trustees Appointment Acts, 1850 to 1890,' or by the 'Trustee Act, 1893.' When there is an existing power of appointment, the appointment may be effected in the manner, and by the person appointed by the instrument creating the trust; if there is no existing power, or the appointment under the power be not made within twelve months, then recourse should be made to the above Acts, under which the appointment can be made, in the case of Peto's Act, by resolution of the congregation, society, or body of persons interested therein as by the Act provided, or, in the case of the Trustee Act, 1893, by writing by the persons therein mentioned, the trust property in the former case vesting in the new trustees by virtue of the appointment alone, and, in the latter case, by virtue of a declaration forming part of the Deed.

If none of these modes of appointment should be feasible, resort should be had to the powers of the Charity Commissioners.

No form of appointment is prescribed by the Trustee Act, 1893, but in Sir Morton Peto's Act a form is given for cases under that Act only, and is as follows:—

TRUST DEEDS OF CHURCHES

The greater number of Unitarian Churches possess what are known as 'Open Trust Deeds.' The land, buildings, and endowments (if any) are held in Trust for the worship of God, and for the religious, moral, or intellectual improvement of the Congregation for the time being worshipping there, and for its general benevolent objects.

In drafting a New Trust Deed care should be taken to state clearly that if any question should at any time arise as to the purposes for which the said Church or Chapel may lawfully be used, the widest meaning should be attached to the trust aforesaid, so that neither by reference to the actual or supposed opinions of the founders, nor otherwise, shall any restriction be imposed on the liberty of the congregation for the time being to change its opinions with regard to religious doctrines or modes of regulating worship. The Deed should be settled by a solicitor, who will consider questions of consideration enrolment, etc.

The British and Foreign Unitarian Association has a Special Subcommittee for giving advice to Congregations, respecting the Civil Rights of Unitarians, Chapel Trust Deeds, Endowments, etc., and the British and Foreign Unitarian Association (Incorporated) may be appointed a Trustee. Applications should be addressed to the Secretary, Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C.2. The Committee will expect the congregations to defray the cost of any legal charges. The Solicitor of the Association is Howard Young, Esq., LL.B., 29 Mark Lane, London, E.C.3.

UNITARIAN MINISTERS DECEASED

Agar.—The Rev. William Agar died at Sidmouth, 12 February, 1919, aged 82. Mr. Agar was a native of Leicester. He studied at the Unitarian Home Missionary Board (now College), 1871-74. He was minister at Wolverhampton, 1874-77; Poole, 1878-81; Wellington Street, Leicester, 1886-96; Sidmouth, 1899-1914, when he retired from the active ministry.

Carter.—The Rev. George Carter died in London, 24 January, 1919, aged 82. Mr. Carter carried on a printing business in London until 1906. From 1867 to 1871 he conducted Unitarian services at Walworth, which he continued at Alder Street, Peckham, 1872-74. In 1875 a temporary building was erected in Avondale Road, Peckham, followed later by a permanent church. From 1885 to 1892 Mr. Carter had charge of the Bermondsey congregation, an outcome of the services in the Town Hall and the Star Music Hall, and in 1888 the church was built in Fort Road, Bermondsey. In 1893 he returned as minister to Avondale Road, Peckham; he retired from active duty in 1905, but still preached occasionally. Mr. Carter was a member of the Council of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association.

Charlesworth.—The Rev. Addison A. Charlesworth died in London, 7 March, 1919, aged 54. Mr. Charlesworth was born in London, educated at Bishop Stortford and at New College, London, for the Congregational ministry. Becoming Unitarian, he was minister at Godalming in 1892 and in the following year he was appointed to Newhall Hill, Birmingham, which he resigned in 1903. In 1905 he became minister at Highgate, London, where he remained until his death. He took an active part in the work of the London District Unitarian Society, and was a keen social worker.

Crossley.—The Rev. James Crossley died at Lytham, 2 March, 1919, aged 62. Mr. Crossley was educated at Owens and the Lancashire Independent Colleges, with an intervening year at Leipzig. He became a Unitarian minister in 1883, his first charge being at Hastings, 1883-85; then Cradley, 1885-91; Commission Street, Bolton, 1891-92; Church of the Messiah, Birmingham, assistant minister, 1892-94; Birkenhead, 1894-1911; and Ansdell, 1911-18, when, owing to illness, he retired from the active ministry.

Hirst.—The Rev. Joseph Crowther Hirst died at Gateacre, Liverpool, 6 January, 1919, aged 70. Mr. Hirst was a native of Huddersfield. In 1868 he gave up business life and entered the Unitarian Home Missionary Board (now College) as a student. His successive pastorates were at Rochdale (Clover Street), 1871-74; Scarborough, 1874-77; Cheltenham, 1878-82; Dewsbury, 1882-85; Hale, 1885-98; and Gateacre from 1898 until his death. Mr. Hirst was the author of Half-hours with the Parables, and contributed articles for a number of years to the Children's columns of the Weekly Examiner and Times, Manchester. He was President of the Liverpool District Missionary Association and other societies, and a member of the Committee of the Widows Fund.

Jones.—The Rev. Francis Henry Jones died in London, 17 February, 1919, aged 74. Mr. Jones was a native of Derby. He entered Owens College in 1861, and two years later became a student at Manchester New College, London. Graduating B.A. in 1867 at London University, he studied at Berlin and Zurich as a Hibbert Scholar, 1869-70. He was minister at Loughborough, 1871-78; at Oldham, 1878-85; and in 1885 he was appointed Librarian and Secretary of Dr. Williams' Trust, and resigned in 1914. He was Editor of The Christian Reformer, also of Teachers Notes. He was Secretary of the Hibbert Trust from 1902 till his death. He was a Director of The Inquirer, Treasurer of the Social Service Union, and a member of the Council of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association.

McDowell.—The Rev. John McDowell died at Pendleton, Manchester, 9 April, 1919, aged 70. Mr. McDowell was educated at the Unitarian Home Missionary Board (now College) and Owens College, Manchester. In 1874 he became minister at Pendleton, Manchester, where he remained seventeen years. He went to Melbourne Church, Australia, for three years in 1891. He settled in 1896 at the Holbeck Mission, Leeds, until 1900. He was invited to the Parker Memorial Mission, Boston, U.S.A., in 1900. In 1901 he became minister at Bath, where he remained until he retired in 1913.

Marshall.—The Rev. Thomas Lethbridge Marshall died at Exeter, 1 February, 1919, aged 93. Mr. Marshall's family belonged to the West of England, he spent ten years of his boyhood in or near Boston, U.S.A. Coming to England he became a student in 1841 at Manchester New College, then at Manchester, and remained till 1846. In 1846 he was appointed minister at Warwick, where he remained seven years. He was minister in London, at Hackney, 1853-57; Stamford Street, 1858-62; and Brixton, 1863-73. Mr. Marshall was Editor of The Inquirer from 1856 to 1888, and Secretary of the Presbyterian Board from 1856 to 1898. He was a member of the Committee and Council of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association for many years, and Assistant Secretary from 1854 to 1859. He was a Trustee of Dr. Williams' Trust from 1853 to 1898. As 'Octogenarian' and 'Nonagenarian' he contributed articles of reminiscence to The Christian Life.

Rump.—The Rev. Alfred Edgar Rump died at Tharston, Norfolk, 24 January, 1919. He was a lay preacher in the Eastern Union for several years; and in 1903 he was appointed minister at Hapton, where he remained till 1917, when ill-health caused his retirement.

Spedding.—The Rev. Thomas Perkins Spedding died at Mansfield, 28 June, 1919, aged 54. Mr. Spedding was a native of Stockport. He was trained at the Unitarian Home Missionary Board (now College), 1883-86. He was appointed minister at Clover Street Chapel, Rochdale, in 1886, and became minister of the united congregations of Clover Street and Blackwater Street in 1890. After a ministry in Rochdale of twenty-one years, Mr. Spedding was appointed Missionary Agent of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association in 1907, and superintended the Van Mission until 1914, when it came to an end owing to the War. He visited the men in the Home Military Camps till 1918, when he was appointed minister at Mansfield. Mr. Spedding was Secretary of the Pioneer Preachers Movement. After a visit to Palestine he compiled a series of lesson notes on Scenes and Stories from the Life of Jesus; he also edited the Guild Messenger for several years, and was joint editor, for a time, of Monthly Lesson Notes, issued by the Manchester District Sunday School Association. Mr. Spedding was an ardent and devoted missionary of the principles of Unitarian Christianity; and he was personally much beloved by his friends.

Summers.—The Rev. Frederick Summers died at Southport, 21 February, 1919, aged 75. Mr. Summers was born in Warwickshire and educated in Birmingham. He devoted himself to missionary work. In 1876 he was appointed to Beaufort Street Mission, Liverpool (now at Mill Street), and three years later to George's Row Mission, St. Luke's, London (now Dingley Place), where he remained for thirty-nine years, retiring in 1918 through illness. As 'Sigma' he contributed articles to The Christian Life. He was a member of the Council of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

The Sunday School Association, founded in 1833, has its head-quarters at Essex Hall, London. Its objects are (a) the promotion generally of Sunday School and Religious Education, and (b) the publication of suitable religious and educational Books for schools and young people. The qualification for individual Membership is an annual subscription of not less than 5s., or a life donation of not less than £5. Individuals, Schools, or Societies, subscribing a guinea a year, or upwards, are entitled to a copy of every new book published by the Association during the year for which the subscription is paid. District and kindred Societies, whose objects are similar to those of the Association, which contribute one guinea and upwards annually, are thereby deemed to be affiliated to it, and have the right of appointing a delegate to represent it on the Committee and at all General Meetings. Schools contributing 5s. and upwards annually are considered members, and have the right of sending a representative to all the General Meetings. Annual Meeting held in Whit-week.

Officers.—President, Mr. F. D. BOWLES, J.P., C.C.; Treasurer, Mr. W. H. BALLANTYNE; Chairman of Committee, Mr. ION PRITCHARD; Hon. Secretary, Mr. T. M. CHALMERS, M.A.; Secretary, Rev. BERTRAM LISTER, M.A.

The Committee meet on the second Friday in the month at 5.30 p.m. Business communications should be addressed to Mr. B. C. HARE, Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C. 2; other Correspondence to the Secretary at the same address.

Book Room at Essex Hall open from 9 to 5.30; Saturdays, 9 to 1.

A Catalogue of Books for Religious Education in the Sunday School and Home

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION
ESSEX HALL, ESSEX STREET,
STRAND, LONDON, W.C. 2. 1920

BUSINESS ANNOUNCEMENT

Post Orders.—The publications of the Association are fixed at net prices, which does not include postage or carriage. A sufficient amount should be sent to cover this item.

Payment.—Cash is required in all cases to be sent with the order, unless the purchaser has a Ledger a/c with the Association.

If the exact amount to forward is not known, the approximate sum should be forwarded. A detailed statement will be sent with the goods, and any amount not required will be returned.

When the cash is not enclosed, a note of the cost will be sent to the purchaser, and the goods forwarded upon its receipt.

Discount.—A special discount of 15 per cent. is allowed to Subscribers and Subscribing Schools ordering not less than one dozen copies of the same book direct from Essex Hall. (Hymn Books excluded.)

Reward Books.—A carefully selected list of books suitable for Prizes will be sent post free upon request.

Books from other Publishers.—For the convenience of customers books are obtained to order from any London publisher.

Books on Approval.—Any volume in this catalogue will be sent on approval, if desired. Books not retained must be returned at the end of three days, in perfect condition. Postage on any book exchanged must be paid both ways by the person ordering.

Specimen Copies.—The Association will be pleased to forward specimen copies of its books so that the selection of books may be made easier. If any particular class of books is wanted, this should be specified. The time allowed to make a selection is fourteen days, unless consent has been obtained beforehand for a longer period. A booking fee of 1/- must be enclosed with each application. The Association will pay the carriage one way. The Committee hope that applicants will return the books as quickly as possible, and take care that they are sent back in good condition.

The object of the Association is to supply Sunday schools and parents with text-books of moral and religious instruction at the smallest possible outlay; only a slight addition being made to the actual cost of production.

All Orders should be addressed to the Business Manager :—

Mr. B. C. HARE, Essex Hall, Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C. 2.

Postal Orders should be made payable at the East Strand Office.

HOURS OF BUSINESS 9 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. Saturdays 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Catalogue of Publications

Addis, W. E., M.A.

CHRISTIANITY AND THE ROMAN EMPIRE. Cloth 2/6 net, paper covers, 1/- net.

The Review of Books says:—‘There is considerable cleverness in the choice and arrangement of the materials, and Mr. Addis is also scrupulously fair-minded.’

Armstrong, Richard A., B.A.

OUTLINE LESSONS IN RELIGION. Sewed 6d. net.

An excellent manual for teachers. The author takes his lessons from a stone, an acorn, a dog, and so on to a child, marking the upward development of each, and ending with suggestive lessons on Conscience, God, etc.

‘Aunt Amy’ (Marian Pritchard).

THE BOOK OF BEGINNINGS, OR STORIES FROM GENESIS, AND HOW TO TEACH THEM. Paper covers 6d. net.

The Christian World says: ‘The Book is well-planned. The selections from Genesis are given unaltered, in large type, preceded in each case by a brightly-written statement of what in the author’s view, the Biblical story amounts to for the modern reader.’

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL CODE BOOK AND TEACHERS’ MANUAL.

A Practical Guide to the work of the Sunday School.

Edited by Marian Pritchard. Cloth 1s. net.

The Sunday School.—Accommodation; New Buildings; General Management; Duties of Officers and Staff. Institutions connected with the Sunday School.—The Library, Savings’ Bank, Band of Hope, Recreative Evening, Boys’ Own Brigade, Gulls, Clubs, Window Gardening Exhibition, Mothers Meetings, etc. Aids to the Teacher.—Tabulated list of useful Books; the Blackboard; Pictures; etc.

HYMN LESSONS. For Junior and Infant Classes. Comprising the three following publications:

THE TEACHERS’ NOTE BOOK. With Outline Lessons and General Plan of the Scheme. For use in conjunction with the Sheets and Pictures mentioned below.

Series B. Packet I. Contains 12 booklets, each with 16 printed pages and pictures. Price 2d. net.

Beard, Charles, LL.D.

TEN LESSONS ON RELIGION. Sewed 1d.

This little booklet contains ten brief lessons, in the form of a catechism on the elements of religion. In the hands of an earnest teacher it is certain to be of great service.

Blatchford, Ambrose N. B.A.

LANDMARKS IN RELIGIOUS HISTORY. Cloth 1/- net.

We commend it to all teachers and parents who realise the supreme value of keeping alive in the hearts of the younger generation the fire of heroic endeavour.—Inquirer.

Bowie, W. Copeland

SHORT STORIES FOR THE SUNDAY SCHOOL AND THE HOME. Cloth 1/6 net.

Bowie, W. Copeland, and J. Westwood Tosh.

A NEW YEAR'S SERVICE, with Music. Sewed 1d.

A HARVEST THANKSGIVING SERVICE, with Music. Sewed 1d.

A FESTIVAL SERVICE OF SACRED AND SECULAR SONG. 1d.

Brown, J. E.

ELIZABETH FRY, the Prisoners' Friend. Cloth 6d. net.

Carpenter, J. Estlin, M.A., D.Litt., D.D.

LIFE IN PALESTINE WHEN JESUS LIVED. New revised and enlarged edition, with Indexes. Cloth 2/- net.

The Schoolmaster, in reviewing the first edition, says: 'It does not require to read more than half-a-dozen pages to feel that our attention is not likely to flag during the rest of the volume. The country, people, government, and religion are all discussed in turn—nothing hurried or curtailed, every sub-division given its due share, and the result is a whole upon which the author may fairly be congratulated.'

* * * A Classified list will be found at the end of this Catalogue.

Cooke, Frances E.

THEOPHILUS LANDSEY AND HIS FRIENDS. Cloth 1/- net.

'The stories of Landsey and his friend Dr Priestley, which are combined in this little volume, are almost unknown to young people of the present day. Yet because of their faithfulness to duty and fearless search after truth, these men should be lasting examples for all time.'—Preface.

NOBLE WORKERS. Cloth 1/- net. Paper covers 6d. net.

Short sketches of lives of Dr. Chalmers, Mary Ware, Thomas Thrush, Michael Angelo Lombardi, Frederick Christopher Penthes, Catherine Cappe, John Withers Bowson, Joseph Sturge, and William Lloyd Garrison.

STORY OF THEODORE PARKER. Paper, 6d. net.

'Although written for young people, there is much in this volume to attract those of maturer years, and teachers who are earnest in their work will find much to interest them in the career of Parker, himself a teacher, in whose heart the love of children was great to the overflow.'—Schoolmaster.

STORY OF WILLIAM ELLERY CHANNING. Cloth 1/- net.

Paper covers 6d. net.

'The story of Dr. Channing told for boys and girls, terse, plain, pointed, and attractive, a book which is sure to find its way into many of our young folks' libraries, and should be omitted from no School Library.—Unity.

THE STORY OF ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI. Cloth 1/- net.

'Perhaps now, and ever, Miss Cooke says in a brief introductory note, we need the kindling influence of great aims and lofty ideals, and it would surely be well for ourselves and for the world about us if we were to try to carry the spirit of St. Francis into our daily lives.'

THE STORY OF DOROTHEA LYNDE DIX. Cloth 1/- net.

Paper covers 6d. net.

The New Age says: 'The story of the noble devotion and self-sacrifice of this brave, beautiful soul is told in a way that cannot fail to do anyone good who reads it. The magnificent work done for the poor and friendless lunatics by Dorothea Dix places her in the front rank of the world's latter-day saints.'

Davis, Valentine D., B.A.

THE EPISTLES OF ST. PAUL TO THE PHILIPPIANS AND TO PHILEMON. Explained and Illustrated. Cloth 1/- net.

'... Far more to our mind is the choice, careful, and thoughtful little book by Valentine D. Davis, B.A. Such a book as this is worth cart-loads of certain theological publications; it does great credit to the series and to its author.'—Christian World.

Dendy, John

SUCCESSFUL LIFE. A Series of Essays. Cloth 2/- net.

'These frank and well-considered addresses would make a good foundation for a useful course of lessons. Apart from class work this is also an excellent book to put into the hands of a young man for his own study.'—Christian World.

THE LARGER LIFE. A Way through Experience towards the Truth. Cloth 2/6 net.

The Challenge says:—'We do not know any book fuller than this of the kind of religion that a layman needs. . . . It is an excellent book.'

* * A Classified list will be found at the end of this Catalogue.

HOME PRAYERS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE. 1/- net.

The Inquirer says: To write prayers for children of various ages from infancy to adolescence, is not an easy task. It requires a wide range of sympathy, a certain delicacy of feeling and touch, combined with a simplicity which is free from childishness. That Mr. Tarrant has succeeded so well ought to ensure for his book a place in every home where there are children. It supplies a long-felt want.

Tavener, Lucking

LESSONS FROM THE PAINTERS. With 15 Illustrations. Cloth 2/- net.

During thirty years of ministry, including pulpit, platform, and class work, I have found the use of works of Art most valuable. At the annual meeting of the Sunday School Association, I ventured to urge its advantage to Sunday School teachers; and this little book is the outcome of that address. It is written in order to show how reproductions of pictures might be used to illustrate ideals and duties.—From Preface.

Thomas, A. Hermann, M.A.

THE EARLY CHURCH. Its Orders and Institutions. 2/6 net.

This little volume is a sequel to the manual entitled Christianity and the Roman Empire. Assuming the relations to the State described in that book, it endeavours to delineate in simple terms the complicated phases of the internal growth and organization of the Church.

Thornhill, Albert, M.A.

HEROES OF FAITH: From Wiclif to Priestley. With 14 Illustrations. Cloth 2/- net.

In writing this little book the author has been impelled by the conviction that our young people have only to learn the story of the lives of the great Heroes of Faith to be moved with the desire to emulate their noble examples in the field of daily duty.
